Pianist Minyoung Lee has performed throughout the United States, Europe, and Asia as a soloist and collaborative artist. She has performed with prestigious ensembles including the George Enescu Philharmonic Orchestra, Korean Broadcast System (KBS) Symphony, Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra, Suwon Philharmonic, and the Korea Symphony Festival Orchestra. As a soloist with the Jeunesse Musicales World Orchestra, Lee has performed in the Philippines, Malaysia, and Korea. She has given solo performances in St. Louis, San Francisco, Houston, New Haven, Calgary, Banff, London, Seoul, and other major cities in Korea. An active chamber musician, she has performed in various distinguished venues such as the Korea Festival Ensemble Concert series, Sarasota Chamber Music Festival, Banff Music Festival, and the International Young Artist Festival in Japan, and has collaborated with world-renowned musicians including Josef Silverstein, Marc Johnson, and members of St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

Prior to teaching at UConn, Lee was a member of faculty at Idyllwild Arts Academy, Southern Illinois University and Principia College. Lee received her bachelor of music degree from Seoul National University, a master of music degree and an artist diploma from Yale University, and a doctor of musical arts degree from Rice University. Her primary teachers include Boris Berman, Robert Roux and John Perry. Currently, Lee is Assistant Professor In-Residence of Piano and Interim Keyboard Area Coordinator.

“[W]ith lovely delicacy ... freedom and unfailing rhythmic poise. [W]ith extraordinary sensitivity to harmony, [her playing] was mesmerizing.”
San Francisco Classical Voice

“[Her] pianism was marked with assurance, integrity, and a technique so clean and colorful.”
The Manila Bulletin
