ELAINE STEELE, horn, is a fourth semester performance major who grew up in Norwalk, Connecticut. She began playing horn in the sixth grade. In high school, she participated in Western Regionals for 4 years and All State for 3. She also was involved in her high school's marching band, in which she was section leader for 2 years and head drum major her senior year. She played with the Norwalk Youth Symphony for 5 years, where she played at Carnegie Hall and toured Prague, Budapest, Vienna, and Salzburg. Elaine has also participated in other community ensembles, including the Stamford Young Arts Philharmonic, Darien Community Band, Westport Community Band, Bridgeport's Science of the Stage, and the Connecticut Wind Ensemble. This semester, she has begun to play mallet instruments and is looking forward to joining Uconn's marching band next fall as a member of their front ensemble.

ASHLEY DEVENY, horn, is a junior at the University of Connecticut studying Music and English. She has participated in Regional Music festivals, as well as New England Music festivals. She has been a member of the University of Connecticut Symphonic Band and Horn Ensemble and has studied with Matthew Aubin, Daniel Williams and Robert Hoyle. This will be Ashley's final recital before she graduates from the Fine Arts Program in May.
