ALMA MATER

Once more as we gather today
We sing our Alma Mater's praise
And join in the fellowship strong
Which inspires our college days.
We're backing our men in the strife
Cheering them to Victory!
And pledge anew to Old Connecticut
Our steadfast spirit of loyalty.

When time shall have severed us far,
And the years their changes bring,
The thought of the college we love
In our memories will cling.
For friendships that ever remain
And associations dear,
We'll raise a song to Old Connecticut
And join our voices in one long cheer.

Chorus —

Connecticut, Connecticut,
Thy sons and daughters true
Unite to honor thy name,
Our fairest White and Blue.

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE: March in the Dorian Mode Alexandre Guilmant

Members of the congregation are requested to remain in their places until the Seniors have left the church.

*The congregation will stand.

RESPONSIVE READING

Come, ye children, hearken unto me:
I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

*What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good?*

Keep thy tongue from evil, And thy lips from speaking guile;
Depart from evil, and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it.

Doth not wisdom cry, And understanding put forth her voice?
I love them that love me; And those that seek me early shall find me.

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom,
And the man that getteth understanding.
*For the gaining of it is better than the gaining of silver,
And the profit thereof than fine gold.*

She is more precious than rubies:
And none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared unto her.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her:
And happy is every one that retaineth her.

Length of days is in her right hand; In her left hand are riches and honor.
Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace.

Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth;
And let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth;
And walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes:
But know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.
*Teach me to do thy will; For thou art my God:
Thy Spirit is good; Lead me in the land of uprightness.*

Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth,
Before the evil days come, and the years draw nigh,
When thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.
*O satisfy us early with thy mercy,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.*

May our sons be as plants grown up in their youth,
And our daughters as corner-stones,
Polished after the similitude of a palace.
*Happy is the people that is in such a case;
Yea, happy is the people whose God is the Lord.*

CHORAL RESPONSE

Now unto the King, eternal, immortal, invincible,
The only wise God
Be honor and glory, dominion and power,
World without end . . . Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

TUNE: Ton-y-Botel

Once to every man and nation
Comes the moment to decide,
In the strife of truth with falsehood,
For the good or evil side;
Some great cause, God's new Messiah,
Offering each the bloom or blight —
And the choice goes by forever
'Twixt that darkness and that light.

Then to side with truth is noble,
When we share her wretched crust,
Ere her cause bring fame and profit,
And 'tis prosperous to be just;
Then it is the brave man chooses,
While the coward stands aside
Till the multitude make virtue
Of the faith they had denied.

Though the cause of evil prosper,
Yet 'tis truth alone is strong;
Truth for ever on the scaffold,
Wrong for ever on the throne;
Yet that scaffold sways the future,
And, behind the dim unknown,
Standeth God within the shadow,
Keeping watch above His own.

Arranged from J. Russell Lowell's "The Present Crisis," 1844.
