"THE PRINCE CHAP" IS DRAMATIC CLUB CHOICE

W. F. WOOD HAS LEADING PART IN THANKSGIVING
PRODUCTION.

"The Prince Chap," a comedy in three acts, has been chosen by the Dramatic Club for its Thanksgiving production. It will be given on the evening of November 21, the night before the Football Hop. The club is extremely fortunate in its selection of a play, for "The Prince Chap" has an interesting plot which lends itself well to amateur production. Under the coaching of Mrs. Skinner the cast has been rehearsing for the past week, and the play promises to be as much of a success as "The Tailor-Made Man," which was given last year.

The leading part, that of Peyton, an American sculptor, is taken by Walter F. Wood while the female lead of Claudia is taken in the first act by Helen Crandall, and in the other two acts by Miss Gottlieb. One of the big laughs of the play is Phoebe Puckers, a maid of all work in the studio building. This part is admirably interpreted by Miss Hannah Jensen. Other parts in the cast are Le Comte de Roche, an amateur painter, taken by Andrew Schenker; Marcus Runion, an English serving man, taken by Lewis C. Richardson; Ballington, Yadder, and Fritz, artists, taken by Paul Steere, Lawrence W. Parker, and William Graf; a truckman, taken by Marcus A. McCarron; Mrs. Arrington, Claudia's mother, taken by Miss Gladys Goldthorpe; Alice Travers, fiancée of William Peyton, taken by Miss Katherine Potter.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS TO JUDGE AT WINTER FAIR

EVERY DEPARTMENT WILL EXHIBIT; MANY TO GIVE DEMONSTRATIONS

Orchestra Concert by Wireless in Armory Friday Evening.

Friday and Saturday, December 2 and 3, will be two big days on the college calendar. On these days, the Agricultural Club is to hold its Sixth Annual Winter Fair. From the opening of the fair at 1 P. M. Friday until the midnight hour on Saturday there will be interesting, amusing, and educational attractions to make every minute a busy one for patrons of the fair.

As an innovation in our Winter Fair program, comes the plan of those in charge, to put on a High School Students' Judging Contest. Teams from nine high schools in the state will judge Horticultural, Dairy, Poultry products and Dairy Cattle. A prize known as the Woodford Farm Cup is offered by Mr. J. W. Alsop, a trustee of the college, to the winning high school team.

There will also be a Judging Contest by students of the college in which individual winners will receive medals as first prizes.

Departments

Every department of the college is to have an exhibit at the fair. Two entirely new exhibits are to be those of the Farm Management and Marketing Departments. Each department will give a separate demonstration at a scheduled time so everyone can see all the demonstrations. These will in-

CROWDS OF ALUMNI EXPECTED FOR BIG RALLY AND TRIP TO KINGSTON

ALUMNI SECRETARY FITTS SENDS OUT ADVANCE NOTICE OF BIG NIGHT BEFORE RALLY TO ALL LOCALS. OLD TIMERS TO SPEAK

In accordance with the suggestion of A. J. Brundage and A. W. Manchester at the A. A. meeting last Friday night, plans are assuming definite shape for an Alumni Rally in connection with the "pep" meeting that will be held the Friday night preceding the Rhode Island game.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR RHODE ISLAND TRIP

TICKETS MUST BE SOLD
BEFORE FRIDAY NOON

Train Scheduled to Leave Eagle-ville at 8:23 A. M.

The committee in charge of arrangements for transportation to Kingston on the 19th has been in touch with officials of the Central Vermont Railroad for the past week and have been offered the round trip rate of $3.64 providing two hundred tickets are sold. These tickets are to be forwarded immediately to the station agent at Eagleville and as soon as they are sold the railroad will commence arranging for the train in order to file tariff rates and to fix a running time for the train the tickets must be sold by Friday noon.

It is hoped that every person who can possibly go will purchase his ticket by that time. Those who made the trip two years ago know what a help, the fact that the student body was present, was to the team and that the trip was the most important event of the year.

Tickets may be secured at all times from the members of the committee, Putnam 3 Storrs, Bolan 3 Storrs, Metzger 48 Koons, Hitchkiss C. S. C. House, Peterson Phi Mu Delta House, and the Misses Flannagan and Wakeman. The tickets issued will be exchanged for the regular ones as soon as the two hundred have been sold and the others obtained from the railroad.

The schedule at present for the special is: leave Eagleville 8:23, arrive at New London at 10:20, leave at 10:30, arrive at Kingston 11:30. After the game the train will leave Kingston at 5:30, arrive at New London at 6:30 leaving at 7:30 and arriving at Eagleville at nine.

In a college with a student body the size of Connecticut there should be no difficulty in selling two hundred tickets for an event of such importance as the Rhode Island game. Purchase your ticket before Friday.

The following open letter has been written by J. N. Fitts, Sec. of the Alumni Association, with the intention of getting as many as possible of the Alumni back to the Rally, and to go with the student body on the special train to the game. Sec. Fitts is also preparing a letter to the various Alumni groups. A large number of the Alumni are expected back in view of the fact that they have been returning in increasing numbers each year for the Rhode Island game. It is intended to have various members of the Alumni who were prominent in athletics and activities while in college, tell the student body of previous Rhode Island games, and to get the old "Aggie spirit" going strong.

The Alumni have been well pleased with the showing made by Connecticut in football this year, and they are coming back with the intention of giving the team all the support possible. Following is the letter prepared by Sec. Fitts.

Storrs, Conn.

The Rhode Island game comes on Nov. 19. The C. A. C. boys have the fighting spirit to win this game. Let us support them in Kingston this year. A mass meeting will be held in Hawley Armory on Friday evening preceeding the game. Come to this meeting and see an exhibition of college spirit, also tell and show the crowd that the Alumni are with them.

A special train leaves Eagleville for Kingston at 8:23 A. M. Saturday, Willimantic, a few minutes later. Round trip fare is $3.64, getting back to Eagleville at 9:00 P. M. It is possible to board the train at Willimantic. If the Willimantic agent has no tickets, get them on the train, but try to be with the bunch on Friday night, and stay with them until the game is won, and the celebration over.

J. N. Fitts, Sec.

ARMISTICE DAY PROCLAMATION

By direction of President Beach, and in conformity with the recent Act of Congress and the Proclamation of the President of the United States, Friday, November 11th (Armistice Day) will be observed as a holiday in all departments of the College. There will be no classes or other exercises at which the attendance of students is required. At 11:15 in the morning a Memorial Service will be held in the Armory, which all students, faculty, members of the community and service men of the Town are invited to attend. This will end with the nation-wide two-minute period of silence and prayer at 12:00 M. Following this the College Memorial Trees will be remarked and decorated.

It is urged that students who are not on the "Hill" on Armistice Day observe this day in the spirit of the President's Proclamation.

E. W. SINNOTT,

Chairman, Armistice Day Committee.

ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY ELEVEN GOES DOWN TO 39-14 DEFEAT

CAPTAIN MITCHELL LEADS ELEVEN IN BRILLIANT OFFENSIVE ATTACK, ENDING FOOTBALL CAREER ON GARDNER DOW FIELD SATURDAY IN A BLAZE OF GLORY

Uncovering a slashing aggressive attack, Captain Mitchell's blue and white hosed Aggie eleven defeated the fast and heavy St. Lawrence University eleven in the last home game of the season on Gardner Dow field Saturday by a 39-14 tally. The game was a battle royal from start to finish with the odds for the greater part of the contest in favor of the Nutmeggers. Open work was brought into play on many occasions, usually with spectacularly successful results, both of the St. Lawrence and one of Connecticut's touchdowns being the direct results of the use of the forward pass.

Playing the game of his life "Ching" Hammill, the flashy Aggie quarter, again was the bulwark of the blue and white attack, showing uncanny ability in placing forwards and picking holes. "Bill" Baxter, alternating with Hammill at quarter and at half back, also put Connecticut within scoring distance on several occasions, making long gains off the St. Lawrence wings.

"Capt" Mitchell at tackle, Frostholm at right end and "Beano" Graf, at center, all playing in their last game on Gardner Dow field were out for blood through the entire game, Graf breaking up play after play sharing the line honors with Captain "Art" Mitchell who smeared plays from all directions and broke the heavy St. Lawrence line twice to throw the runner for a heavy loss.

"Dane" Frostholm brought the entire assemblage to its feet when in the last few minutes of play he received a pretty forward from Baxter for a gain of eighteen yards and then broke away for a forty yard run and a touchdown.

First Blood.

Connecticut Aggies first touchdown came in the first of the second quarter. St. Lawrence having made three first downs in the first quarter, losing the ball when Makofski intercepted a forward and covered twenty-five yards before he was brought down. A succession of brilliant line plunges by Daly and Makofski and spectacular runs by Hammill and Baxter brought the ball to the St. Lawrence 2-yard line. Hammill going over for a touchdown. Eddy failed to kick the goal. Hammill followed this with another touchdown within a few minutes when the ball went to Connecticut on St. Lawrence's 20-yard line, Hammill and Makofski worked it down to the 7-yard line, Hammill going over. Eddy kicked the goal.

Early in the third quarter Hammill sent a long forward hurtling to Ryan who received it behind the St. Lawrence goal post for the touchdown, this being immediately followed by another when after Freddy Stull had recovered the ball on a St. Lawrence fumble of Eddy's kick on the 10-yard line Harry McKniff went over again.

In the final period the ball went to the Aggies on St. Lawrence's 20-yard line. Makofski and Stull ploughed through the line for sixteen yards and Baxter went over for another touchdown. Eddy failed to kick the goal. Frostholm in the last few minutes of play made the final touchdown of the Aggie eleven on Dow field for the season when he received a pass from Baxter and raced forty yards for a touchdown.

Atwood, Connery and Neavling were the bright spots in the St. Lawrence attack, accounting for the greater part of the territory gained.

The summary:—

Connecticut		St. Lawrence
Eddy	le.	Murphy
Mitchell	lt.	Kane
Slutsky	lg.	Smith
Graf	c.	G. Neavling
Juraliwick	rg.	J. Neavling
Prentice	rt.	Drew
Frostholm	re.	Bagley
Hammill	qb.	Carrol
Baxter	lh.	Inglee
Makofski	lh.	Flynn
Daly	fb.	McAllister

Substitutions: Baxter for Hammill, Hammill for Baxter, Stull for Daly, Ryan for Baxter, McKniff for Makofski, Ganem for Stull, Slanetz for Slutsky; St. Lawrence: Atwood for Carrol, Carrol for Flynn; officials: Referee, Madden, Amherst; umpire, Johnson; lines, Whalen; touchdowns: Hammil 2, McKniff, Ryan, Baxter, Frostholm; St. Lawrence, Connery 2.

The Megaphone

It was a foregone conclusion that the team would send the St. Lawrence University eleven home minus their official scalp but it was a big surprise to the many spectators that the Aggie eleven should be able to pile up the score that it did.

* * * * *

With all due credit to that sterling backfield combination it can truthfully be said that there is absolutely nothing which is more encouraging to the Aggie supporters than the rapid progress achieved by the line.

* * * * *

There will be no difficulty at all in disposing of those two hundred tickets for that hilarious journey to Kingston—but it is a case of—do it now. The tickets must be secured by Friday. The price is $3.64. Let's Go!

* * * * *

With the Rhode Island game so near at hand the student body must take more care than ever to see that the men on the squad are given proper cooperation in their efforts to train.

* * * * *

A few nights ago Coach Tasker went the rounds to see that all was well in the rooms of the men on the squad. In two instances he found the beds of members of the squad carefully and scientifically disjointed, almost beyond hope of repair, bedclothing tied up into disheartening shoestring knots and doors barricaded. Horseplay of this nature is probably essential every so often in order to prevent stagnation of student initiative. However let's be careful who the victims are.

CALL FOR BASKET BALL WORK SOUNDED

ALEXANDER'S QUINTET WILL RESPOND MONDAY

Over Forty Candidates Expected to Report. Much Promising Material.

The first official call for Basketball practice has been sounded by Coach Tasker, and Monday is the designated day. It is expected that about forty candidates will be out on the floor of Hawley Armory showing their wares until the first cut is made in their ranks. With every member of last years squad all ready for the center's tap, with the exception of "Bill" Gromwoldt, varsity center for three seasons, who was graduated last June, and over forty Freshmen candidates ready and anxious for the whistle to blow, it looks as if there will be plenty of competition for berths on Captain Alexander's quintet. According to the advance dope which is now being mullied over by the boys on the bunks there will be a big shakeup in the lineup for the season.

"Phil" Lord, "Louie" Alexander, "Sam" Putnam, "Socco" Metelli "Phil" Dean, "Jimmy" Mullane and "Slats" Bamford are the members of last years squad who have been getting in a few preliminary workouts. It is expected that when the football season is ended that "Bill" Baxter and "Moe" Daly both members of last years squad will join the ranks. Among the newcomers who are preceded by flattering credentials are "Louie" Ganem and Fred and Frank Stull all members of the winning Torrington High combination last season. Krasow and O'Brien two forwards

NEW LONDON VOCATIONAL LOSES TO SECOND TEAM

Game too Slow to be Interesting

The second team defeated the New London Vocational school eleven in a preliminary contest to the big game by a 14-0 score on Gardner Dow field. The game was slow, time out being necessary on several occasions for the New London men. The first score came in the early part of the second quarter when Donahue carried the ball over after a steady march up the field. Eddy kicked the goal. This was almost immediately followed up by another touchdown when Sneiderman, Quigley and Donahue plowed through the New London line for consistent gains, Donahue again going over the line Eddy failed to kick the goal. Eddy and Boas were the stars of the Connecticut line, while Quigley and Sneiderman accounted for most of the ground gained in the back field, while Swem saved the bacon for the scrubs on two occasions by timely tackles.

who hail from Crosby High in Water- bury, the home of Captain "Louie" are expected to give the present in- cumbents of these positions a run for their money that will be worth watch- ing. Tom Kennedy a former Hartford High boy, Noble Rowley and Ray Wetstine also Hartford High men, have signified their intentions of join- ing the squad. Harry Potter a mem- ber of the Guilford Town team last season, Paul McCarron, forward on the Worcester Commerce High five for two seasons and Makofski a boy who looks like a strong contender for honors at center, having gained more than a local reputation through his work at Schenectady High, are also expected to report within a few days.

Coach Tasker in a statement issued today stated that in the selection of the Aggie quintet, the man who was able to stay through the whole game and still be in good shape would have the preference. "I want men who are in the game at all times, and who will not sacrifice team play for individual work," said Coach Tasker. He also stated that there was no time like the present for the student body to realize the importance of giving proper sup- port to the members of the basketball squad in their efforts to keep in train- ing.

Late Trustee Remembers College in Whose Work He Was Interested.

The will of E. Stevens Henry of Rockville, a trustee of the College be- fore his death, and a prominent man in business and politics in this state, has recently been published.

Many bequests to public institutions are included in the will and among them a gift of $1000 to the Connecti- cut Agricultural College, in the great work of which Mr. Henry was so thoroughly and unselfishly interested.

The donation to the College is made in the seventh article of the will and reads as follows: "I give and be- queath to the Connecticut Agricultur- al College $1000 to be deposited in a Connecticut Savings Bank and the in- come only used in providing prizes to be awarded to the most efficient stu- dents at the discretion of the presi- dent of the College."

This is the second bequest of this nature that the College has received, the first being that of R. Hicks of Tol- land, the income of which is used an- nually for the Hicks Prize essays.

Well, if it's as cold down at Kingston as it was in Storrs at the St. Lawrence game, we'll have to parade around to keep our feet warm. But hot or cold, wet or dry, windy or calm that pigskin has got to travel back to Storrs on the rails of the old C. V.

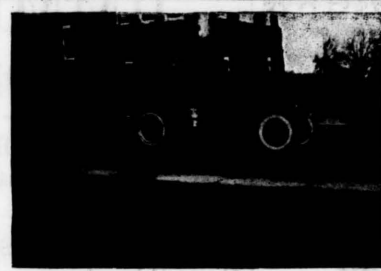

Passengers on the special train have been requested by the C. V. management to part their hair in the middle because the cars are liable to tip over if all the weight is not evenly distributed. (Hort students can learn the trick from any man in the Science course.)

We haven't heard anything definite as yet, but maybe the Rhode Island authorities will pass immigration laws against the incoming horde of Northern barbarians. When we go down there, let's show 'em how high-class collegians operate at a football game and afterwards Maybe we can give them a few pointers in pep and punch.

By the way, have you heard that the Press Club is now trying to club the press into taking our stuff. There's one good way of getting your name in the home town paper and that is to put it in yourself. Take a four year course in typewriting with the Press Club. (Advertisement)

The man who said that college men had swelled heads cannot be referring to our two prominent 1921 alumni who are touring the South with packs on their backs. These two are certainly "keeping their feet on the ground"

After the bacon has been tucked away in Captain Mitchell's overcoat and the boys are on their way back to the hill top full of joy and near beer, sitting on the air-tight cushions of the C. V. literally, and sitting on the world, figuratively,—then we might think that "it was all over" for another year, but there are some things that, after the Rhode Island game, will just begin.

THE GIVER AND THE GIFT

People who think of college donations in terms of Eastman's contribution to M. I. T. would be inclined to consider a bequest of $1000 as insignificant. But the pecuniary value of a gift of this kind can never outshine that which accompanies the gift but which cannot be described in commercial terms,—the spirit of the man who gave.

In receiving Mr. Henry's most valuable bequest, Connecticut cannot forget the unremitting service of a man who did not forget the institution which he loved in his bestowal of worldly goods.

RHO—RHODE ISLAND

True as it may be that the compass of Connecticut rivalry is swinging to the north, the fact remains that nothing gives the alumni, the faculty, the students and the football squad any greater satisfaction than seeing the Blue and White farmers plant pigskins in the garden back of the Kingston goal posts. Great heaps of latent Aggie spirit has been developed and strengthened in both alumni and student personalities in the past on just such trips as will be made November 19 on the road to Rhode Island.

For the benefit of those who are not yet fully acquainted with the details of the recent escapade of Professor G. C. White, head of the Dairy Department, The Campus prints the following expose, as reported by our staff detective.

Standish offered Jacquith two dollars any time he could persuade Prof. White to get up at 5 A. M. and milk eight test cows. Vail and "Herc" Ellis also put up two dollars each, making six dollars in all.

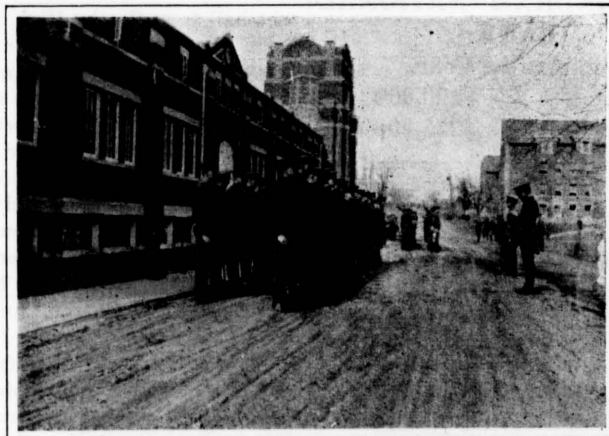

Jacquith went to Prof. White and told him he'd give him the six dollars if he would milk the cows. Prof. White said he'd think it over.

Sunday morning, October 16th, Prof. White came to Jacquith promptly at five and said, "Well, boss, what do you want me to do?"

The cows having already been fed; he set to milking them. Seeing that he was getting along all right, Jacquith went back for his "beauty sleep." At quarter to eight he rose and went into the barn. The professor had milked the eight cows and cleaned five of them. Being a good sport, he declined to take the men's money, but offered the use of his car for a good time. And so the dairymen "stepped out" Wednesday evening, October 26th, going to the Mary Ann in Willimantic.

It's Protein That Makes Milk—Not Color

Variation in color, from a light yellow to a brownish, will occasionally be found in Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed.

This is due to the corn solubles. These contain a small amount of sugar, which is affected by the heat in drying.

The corn solubles enrich the feed. They give it more protein, more phosphates, and greater digestibility than are contained even in the corn from which it is made.

This concentration of the corn solubles in the feed, with their rich qualities, is of far greater value to the dairy farmer than is a feed of absolutely uniform appearance.

If you select your feed on these standards, you will buy Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed. Because then you will be getting the most milk at the lowest cost.

PAPERS OF STATE TO GET NEWS OF COLLEGE

Press Club Organizes Publicity Work.

To promote further newspaper publicity for the College, a meeting of the Press Club and Press Bureau was held Nov. 3rd in Main 7, and regular correspondents were assigned to more than a dozen newspapers in the state.

The Press Club is a student organization whose members have had previous experience in newspaper work, while the press bureau is made up of underclassmen interested in publicity, but who have not had much experience in newspaper writing.

The nature and purpose of the organization was explained by R. C. Abbe, President of the Press Club, and Marcus A. McCarron, Director of the Press Bureau outlined the method of sending out news to the various papers. About twenty state papers and several outside the state will be covered by correspondents. Athletics, student activities, and items of local interest to the papers will be featured by the student writers.

The Publicity Department of the College has voted to extend credit to the Press Club to the amount of $25. for stamps and stationery, so that these materials will not have to be supplied by the students.

THIRD PLACE WON BY CONN. AT FRUIT SHOW

Judging and Packing Teams Share Honors.

Six members of the Senior Hort. class attended the New England Fruit Show in Concord, N. H. over the week end of Nov. 6. Three of these men, R. S. Wooster, H. Jaynes, and F. Hawley composed the Fruit Judging team from Conn. while C. H. Ferris, R. C. Howes, and R. R. Keeler composed the packing team. The results of the judging were, Mass. Agri. College, first, New Hampshire State College, second, C. A. C. third, Maine, Agri. College, fourth, and Rhode Island State College, fifth.

The packing team also received third place being led by Maine, first and Mass. Aggie, second.

REV. J. R. RULIFFSON SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Great Need of Leaders in Small Communities.

Rev. J. R. Ruliffson of Densboro, New York was the speaker at the College Assembly, Wednesday morning November 2. The topic of Rev. Ruliffson's address was one which is of vital importance to the rural communities in agriculture, namely "the great need of trained leaders in modernizing the environment of the country." He showed that the value of land is determined to a large extent by its surroundings and how places could be made of greater importance by social service and the leadership of trained men.

R. E. JOHNSON LECTURES TO AGRICULTURAL CLUB

Gives Interesting Account of Proceedings at the National Dairy Show

At the meeting of the Ag. Club held Thursday, October 27, R. E. Johnson, '22 gave an interesting talk on "The National Dairy Show." Johnson was one of those in charge of the cattle shown by the college at the State Fair at Hartford this fall. After this fair, his work with dairy cattle took him to the National Dairy Show at St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota.

According to the authorities, the fair this year was one of the best ever held, in spite of the fact that the management went $50,000 in debt. Johnson spoke a few words in description of the fair grounds and buildings, stating that their extent may be judged by the fact that such a small department as Apiculture was allotted a building of its own.

AT OTHER COLLEGES

The Iowa State Student recently published the telephone numbers of the girls' dormitories at Ames. The "Student" explains its action by saying that telephone conversations are an important part of a college career.

Mixed Freshman classes at the University of Indiana have been done away with, and the boys and girls placed in different classes.

The members of the Senior class of the Oregon Agricultural College are entering into a moustache growing contest. For the best "sprig" grown a five pound box of candy will be the prize.

The Trinity Tripod has a rather forceful method of bringing culprits before the eyes of the students. A number of students went down to see the Yale-Army game at New Haven instead of staying at the College to see one of their own games, and the Tripod printed their names on the front page.

RATS DECLARED TABOO BY ZOO. DEPARTMENT

Borium Carbonate and Garbage "Salad" Used.

Under the direction of Prof. G. H. Lamson Jr., of the Zoology Dept., the freshman class in zoology has conducted a rat campaign in an effort to decrease the population of these undesirable residents on the "hill."

The campus was divided into sections and each section placed in charge of a leader. Each man in the class was assigned a house or building, and he was responsible for the distribution of poison in that house or building, provided the occupants or owners wish to cooperate in the campaign.

Paul Mehl, who has had two years of graduate work in the University of Wisconsin and three years work on agricultural marketing in Oregon, has come to take the place left vacant by Mr. Munroe, of the college Extension Department.

200% Profit

The equivalent of a bushel of corn, worth from 30 to 40 cents, when fed to good cows will produce about three pounds of butter worth from $1.00 to $1.50 — at least 200% clear profit, as the manure, skim-milk and calf pay for the cost of care and housing.

How can you make money easier? There never was a time when the production of butter-fat was more profitable, with cheap feed and high prices for butter-fat.

A De Laval Separator enables you to get the most profit from your cream — it skims cleaner, turns easier and lasts longer than any other.

De Laval Prices Reduced

Take advantage of the 1922 reduced prices, available now, which put De Laval Separators on practically their pre-war basis. You may be paying for a De Laval and not getting it by using a cream waster.

TWO YEAR MEN GIVEN RECEPTION BY DEAN DODGE THURSDAY EVENING.

Sixty-five men were officially enrolled in the two year course in Agriculture at the close of registration on November eighth. Of these forty-eight are enrolled in the dairy course while seventeen have signed up in the live stock course.

Accommodations have finally been made for the large number of men whose arrival was unexpected.

The men were given an informal reception Thursday evening by Richard E. Dodge, dean of the two year course at which their relation to the college and their status in the student body was explained.

After this an initiation was staged by the Senior members of the course, the new men being put through their paces in front of Valentine House.

POULTRY CLASS VISITS FARMS THRUOUT STATE

Prof. Warner and men in his 2a poultry class made a trip last Friday over several up-to-date poultry plants in the state. All types of farms were seen, from the one man plant to the flock of several thousand Leghorns belonging to Mr. Hendee of the Indian Motorcycle Company.

ALUMNI NOTES

Among the alumni back on the Hill for the smokers were Victor Rome, ex '22 and Cy Ward, ex '21. The latter stayed over to see the St. Lawrence football game. Mr. Devkin of the Syracuse chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi was also present at the smoker last Friday.

The following alumni were on the Hill for the Sigma Alpha Pi Fraternity smoker Friday evening November 4—W. J. Van Gagener, '13, C. N. Burnham '16, A. C. Klingman '17, S. A. Edwards '18, R. T. Mattoon '19, H. B. Goodrich '20, F. Wooding '20, J. C. Taylor '21, P. H. Wallace '21, D. W. Gates '21, H. D. Neuman '21, H. F. Carrier ex '22, M. S. Bindless ex '23, D. W. Thomas ex '23, R. N. Smith and P. L. Sanford '15.

William Gronwoldt '21, is working for Borden's Milk Co. in Brooklyn, New York.

Paul N. Manwaring '20, is a traveling salesman for stocks and bonds.

Sylvester "Tommy" Meade, '17, is an instructor in dairying at the New Jersey State College, New Brunswick.

William Maloney '21, Earle D. Blevins '21, and Joseph Pillion ex-'24, are employed by the Automatic Refrigerator Co. of Hartford.

Lloyd W Denison, ex-'22 is working for the Traveller's Insurance Co. in Pittsfield, Mass.

Last week while trying to get the Eleventh Annual Egg Laying Contest started the Poultry Department was overrun with visitors. About twenty people came from Conn. There were also visitors from Rhode Island, Mass. and New York states.

BIESEIGAL, PRESIDENT OF HORT. CLUB RESIGNS

At a meeting of the Hort. Club Thurs. evening Nov. 3 the resignation of Pres. Bieseigal was read and accepted and R. C. Howes appointed as temporary chairman until the next meeting. The meeting was spent in discussing the Ag. Club fair.

clude an exhibit of the packing and shipping of poultry products by the Poultry Department, an interesting demonstration by the Apiary, a fruit packing and grafting demonstration by the Horticultural Department an appetizing demonstration by the "cooks" of the Home Economics Department and pleasing exhibits from the Millinery and Dressmaking Departments. The Mechanical Engineering Department has an exhibit that is sure to draw the crowds, and Farm Management and Farm Machinery have some interesting things to show, while the "cheerful worker," the dairy cow, will entertain in the Dairy Department exhibit. Mr. Robert Scoville, a college trustee, has offered a cup as a prize for the best exhibit.

In connection with the Marketing Exhibit, will be shown the work of the students entering drawings in the contest for the best design to be used as a trade-mark for products of the Connecticut Poultry Association.

Concert

Another attraction will be the latest electrical method of receiving the market reports through the air and early Friday evening there will be an orchestra concert in the armory. The music will be imported via wireless telephone and amplified to such an extent that it can be heard throughout the audience. As this is one of the marvels of the modern Age of Electricity, no one can afford to miss it.

Pleasure will be added to the educational value of the fair by a straw-ride Friday evening.

Masquerade

The fair proper will close at 6 p. m. Saturday, at which time arrangements for the First Annual Harvest Masquerade Dance will begin. All men are to come dressed as farmers, while the young women may choose any form of costume they wish. Prizes will be given to the latter for the three best costumes. The faculty are also invited to attend in costume but dress suits are not eligible for the prizes. The Church-Reed Co. of Willimantic has kindly consented to loan as many suits of overalls and jumpers as the men will need.

The decorations of the hall and the program of dances will be quite novel. The music will be furnished by the Hills-Boulanger, 8-piece orchestra of Hartford. There will be provision for amusement of those who do not dance, in the form of card games, checkers, and a midway with all sorts of amusements and games. If the weather permits, there will be a "weenie" roast held on the A. A. Field.

The co-eds will serve doughnuts and coffee during both days of the fair. Ice cream, home-made candy and cake will be on sale.
