COLOR OF BABY CHICKS SIGNIFIES THEIR SEX

VALUABLE DISCOVERIES
MADE BY DR. L. C. DUNN

Will be of Great Benefit to Poultry
Raisers

Dr. Dunn's investigations and experiments regarding the distinguishing between the sex of chicks by their color has caused considerable comment.

The method is based on the fact that in nearly all pure breeds of poultry some varieties are characterized by plumage colors which are transmitted from the mother to the sons only. Some of the characteristics which have been investigated are "barring" of the Barred Rocks and the "white" of the Columbian pattern, also varieties such as Light Brahmas, Columbian Plymouth Rocks and Columbian Wyandottes. These varieties have been experimented with and found satisfactory.

As an example of Dr. Dunn's method a Barred Rock female and a Buff Plymouth Rock cockerel are crossed. The male chicks resemble the barred mother and the female chicks will be black.

Of the varieties which can be used under this method of breeding are: Barred Plymouth Rock females, Columbian Wyandottes females, Light Brahma females or Columbian Plymouth Rock females. The males should be either Black or Buff males to be used with the Barred Rocks and Buff or Red males to be used with the Columbian females. All of the birds to be mated both males and females should be standard birds and of the best vigor and laying ability. The chicks resulting from this method should not be mated beyond the first generation as this will lead to the depreciation of the stock.

Dr. Dunn's method is most useful for producers of chicks for market where a method of distinguishing between chicks to fatten for market and chicks to be fed for egg laying would involve the saving of considerable time and expense.

PART OF 1922 NUTMEG READY FOR PRINTING

A representative from Bachrach's Studios visited the "Hill" last Tuesday and took the orders for the individual pictures, of the 1922 Nutmeg.

The front part of the book, from the beginning to the senior section will be proof read for the last time and Editor-in-chief Harold Steck will go to New Haven the latter part of this week to set up the several sections in the front part of the book.

DEBATING TEAM MEETS SPRINGFIELD ON FRIDAY

THIS IS THE FIRST OF THREE COLLEGE DEBATES

"Resolved That the Phillippines Should be Granted Their Independence Within Two Years" to be Debated

Friday night the College Debating team will meet a team from the Springfield College at Springfield, in the first intercollegiate debate of the year for Connecticut.

Debating is one of the newer institutions at C. A. C., but it is gaining in popularity with the students. Last year Connecticut entered the intercollegiate field against Rhode Island, and convinced the judges that all European immigration to the United States should be suspended for two years. This year three debates have been arranged by President Raymond C. Abbe of the Debating Club; a dual one with Springfield, and a triangular affair with Mass. Aggie, and Rhode Island State.

The subject of the Springfield debate is: Resolved that the Phillippines should be granted their independence within two years. The Connecticut team, composed of Samuel A. Feir '25, Joseph L. Rivkin '25, Russell A. Palen '24, and Andrew Schenker '22 as alternate, will debate the negative side of the question. The team was chosen more than a month ago, and the men have been collecting and organizing (Cont. on page 8, col. 3)

DILLON ELECTED ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION SECRETARY

Frosh to Play Prep Schools in Basketball

Owing to the absence of Fred Peterson from college it was necessary to elect a new secretary to the Athletic Association at the regular meeting held in Hawley Armory last night. H. A. Baldwin and J. T. Dillon were nominated and Dillon was elected.

In order that athletes might obtain plenty of work in the Dining Hall students were urged to eat on the table side instead of the cafeteria side.

A motion was passed that the assistant manager of basketball draw up a schedule of games, for the freshman team, that will be played here against secondary schools and under the supervision of the coach.

It was voted that every member of the student body be taxed twenty-five cents to buy equipment for the track team. Coach Daly remarked on the promising outlook for track this season.

TWO DATES ARE SET FOR FRATERNITY PLEDGING

Constitution of the Mediator May be Changed

There will be two pledge dates a year, between which no man can be pledged to fraternities, according to a new Mediator ruling made Tuesday, February 7. The first pledge date this year was December 8. The second will be April 1, two months after the beginning of the second semester, a date agreed upon by the Mediator at its recent meeting.

No exceptions will be made to this rule, although two men had been pledged by two different fraternities before the rule went into effect on Tuesday noon. The fraternities will wait until April 1 before handing pledges to any upperclassmen, first or second semester freshmen. The pledges will be delivered in a way similar to that of the first pledge date.

May Change Constitution

A committee has been appointed in the Mediator to shape up a system of government with the possible idea of the Mediator becoming solely an interfraternity council, having jurisdiction only over fraternity matters. If the Mediator decides to adopt the new constitution, then the non-fraternity membership will be reduced and the Mediator will hand over some of the responsibilities it has assumed in college affairs to the Student Council.

Beat Rhode Island! sang the student body to Coach Tasker's five previous to the set-to between the two quintets at Hawley Armory Friday night—and beat Rhode Island they did, running up more than double the number of points the Rhode Islander's were able to garner in two twenty-minute halves of exciting basketball. 41-18 was the official tally with the Blue and White five on the long end, repeating the "double the score" performance for the second time this season.

It was a fast whirlwind contest from start to finish, the Aggies showing much better form than in the previous night's encounter with Tufts. The visitors were outclassed however in all departments of play and were unable to offer any real opposition with the exception of a few sensational spurts.

The Rhode Island five started the first half in a promising manner and at one time held a two point lead. This did not last long however and for the remainder of the half the Aggie five was always on the offense although the tally stood 12-10 at half time.

The Aggies let loose in full force at the opening of the second half and for the best part of this frame the engineers were little more than spectators as the Blue and White basketekers under Captain Alexander's generalship staged an exhibition of passing and shooting superior to any shown heretofore this year on the Hawley Armory floor.

"Phil" Lord the sturdy Aggie guard was the life of the Blue and White defense, "Phil" was all over the back court at once, and time after time he succeeded in breaking up passes that seemed destined for sure counts.

Freddy Stull also had a big night at center, his floor work being of a high order. Makofski opened the second half with a difficult double counter and immediately followed it up with two more wonder shots. Captain Alexander then dropped a few from the corners and for the remainder of the contest the Aggies held a regular

WEALTH OF MATERIAL FOR BASEBALL TEAM

TEN LETTER MEN AMONG THE MANY CANDIDATES

Hardest Baseball Schedule Connecticut Has Ever Carried.

With a wealth of seasoned material and some highly tooted new men, a good schedule, and a coach who is fast putting Connecticut into the front rank of smaller Eastern colleges, the Aggie baseball outlook for 1922 is very bright.

Although no official call for candidates has been sounded yet, a large number of men have been limbering up in the Armory.

Ten wearers of the baseball "C" are among those getting in a few preliminary licks. Heading the list is Captain Louis Metelli, the aggressive little catcher. "Lou" Alexander, the team's best hitter last year, and "Deac" Sawin, a "C" man in 1919, who returned to college this semester, are both excellent pitchers. Three of last year's varsity infielders, Mullane, Gordon, and Brow, are ready for work. In the outfield four letter men are available: Brundage, Emigh, Laubscher, and Lord. Feldman, third base, and Flynn, pitcher and first baseman; two varsity men who did not make their letter, will each make strong bids for the team.

ATTENTION OF ALUMNI

ARE YOU GOING TO OUR GAME WITH TRINITY ON FEBRUARY 15 IN HARTFORD.

No formal Midwinter Banquet will be held this year, but the Alumni are informally invited to meet at the Hotel Garde Restaurant on Asylum Street, not later than six o'clock, the night of the game. Here we may lunch together and later go to the game in a body. An attempt will be made to reserve a block of seats for us, in the Hopkins Street Gymnasium where the game will be played.

The local C. A. C. Alumni Club of Hartford plan to entertain the team after the game at the La Bal Taberin, and want just as many of the old students and faculty as can to stay and have a good time together.

J. N. Fitts,
Alumni Secretary.

THE FRESHMEN CONTINUE THEIR WINNINGS

The Freshmen continued their winnings last Monday night by defeating the much reputed team of the School of Ag to the tune of 46-13. At the start, things looked bad for the Freshmen but they soon found themselves. With the addition of a new man, Berry, the team was greatly strengthened. Berry was the main point getter of the game, tossing the ball thru the rim six times for the Freshmen. Ganem and Eddy also starred for the winners, each getting 5 baskets from the floor. Sweeney was the main stay for the losers, but owing to the careful guarding of the Freshmen he only made 3 field goals.

Summary:

|-------------|------------------|
| Freshmen 46 | School of Ag. 13 |
| Berry | l.f. Sweeney |
| Ganem | r.f. Vail |
| Eddy | c. Schulcher |

SPRINGFIELD & M. A. C. TO BE WEEK-END OPPONENTS

Trinity Quintet Will Face Aggie Machine at Hartford Wednesday.

Both Quintets in Condition

Another busy week-end is lined up for the Blue and White quintet. Friday night the Aggie five will meet the fast Springfield College quintet at Springfield while Saturday afternoon Mass. Aggie will meet the Nutmeggers at Amherst.

Captain Alexander's five now has a record of eleven wins in thirteen starts and with only six games remaining on the calendar the end of the season is fast approaching. In addition to the two contests scheduled for this week end two games with the fast Trinity five, one to be played at Hartford next Wednesday and the other finishing up the season on the Hawley Armory floor March 4 remain to be played. The crack Worcester Tech machine and the University of Maine five will also appear on the Hawley Armory court.

Workouts this week in preparation for the two big games in the Bay State have been very comprehensive. Coach Tasker has been grooming the

Score in Second Frame

Captain Alexander and his Blue and White experienced very little difficulty Thursday evening in sending the Tufts college aggregation on its way after administering a 47-35 defeat on the Hawley Armory floor. It was easy work for the Aggies and in the first half the lack of competition allowed Coach Tasker's quintet to run up a total of thirteen points before the visitors were able to cage a counter. Toward the latter part of the initial frame, the Aggie defense sagged a little and the visitors took immediate advantage of this running up points enough to bring the score to a 23-12 tally at half time. Both quintets were somewhat off form in shooting in this period. Captain Alexander of the Blue and White quintet and Mahoney the diminutive visiting forward tied for honors in this frame with Freddy Stull trailing as a close second. Mahoney caged several difficult long shots for the visitors and also played a fast floor game.

In the second half Aleck was the big gun of the Aggie offense scoring by far the largest number of points. Mahoney also worked well in this frame while Stull, Putnam and Krasow each dropped in one difficult double counter.

The summary:

PHI EPSILON PI TOPS ALPHA PHI AT POOL

In the opening game of the interfraternity pool tournament, played last Wednesday night, Phi Epsilon Pi topped the Alpha Phi fraternity 100-86.

Albert Feldman '23 represented the winning organization and Francis Boulanger '22 shot for the losers.

Poor shooting was in evidence on both sides. Boulanger made several spectacular shots, but was unable to shoot a consistent game.

WINNING COMBINATION IN TRACK IS PREDICTED

Track workouts have been in progress daily for the last week and although it is much too early to predict the strength of the material available all indications point to a winning combination being turned out. Coach Daly has been devoting considerable time to the development of hurdlers and several promising candidates for this department have been uncovered.

Coach Daly would not make any predictions with regard to the probabilities or possibilities of the 1922 track season. He explained that it was entirely too early in the season to prophesy. The track squad is being augmented daily and to date about seventy-five men have reported for workouts.

Miss Julia Bayley, has been ill for some time, at her home in Pierce City, Missouri. Miss Bayley had intended to be back on the "Hill," to resume her work in the Chemical Department at the beginning of the second semester, but due to a reverse in the condition of her health she will not be able to take up her work for some time to come.

FROSH FOOTBALL PLAYERS GIVEN CLASS NUMERALS

At a meeting of the Freshmen class last Monday it was voted to give the following men class numerals for playing class football:

V. Anderson, E. W. Johnson, E. Thompson, W. Houston, P. MacCarroll, T. Cronin, H. Eyre, H. Potter, J. MacAllister, J. Baylock, A. Entin, H. Swem, N. Rowley.

The class voted to raise money to buy these letters by assessing each member of the class.

An amendment was made to the class constitution that numerals were to be granted to persons winning a second place or better in the interclass track meet. It was also voted that the girls be granted class numerals for playing the required units in interclass sports.

Mr. Jerold A. Manter, Instructor of Zoology, who has been ill since the early part of the fall is reported to be improving. Mr. Manter is at present in a Hartford Hospital, where he has been under treatment for several weeks. It is expected that he will be able to return to his home in the near future.

ANOTHER ADVANCE

None of the student activities have been standing still since the fall opening. Progress has been made in every one. It might be well, however, to point out at this time an advance which is significant and worth while. Reference is made to the intercollegiate debating schedule, toward which the debating club turned its forensic efforts some time ago. The club has survived what appeared to be disaster upon several occasions and has finally entered upon a strong and useful regime.

ONE OF THE BEST

The successes of the Ag. Club mark it as one of the best conducted student activities of the year. It has again proved itself at the Hartford Fair. The leaders of the club next year will have to go some if they expect to keep the pace that has been set.

THE BUS FARE

What should be the bus fare to Willimantic?

The Student Council, at the beginning of the present college year, concluded that a $1.50 round trip was too high. After investigation they decided to accept the garage's proposal of a $1.20 fare beginning March 1.

If the college found it possible, within a year or two, to operate this bus line at cost, then the proposition would be solved.

AN INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Mediator is beginning to see that the time has come when it must give up some of its secondary powers in order to properly conduct its primary affairs, namely, matters relating solely to fraternal government.

The Mediator cannot be a true interfraternity council and an adjunct of the Student Council at the same time.

Matters of freshmen discipline that have come under the jurisdiction of the Mediator heretofore should be relegated to the list of responsibilities of the Student Council, the number of non-fraternity delegates on the Mediator should be cut down to one, and then the interfraternity council should sit back in its imperial chair content with surveying its rightful domain.

ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

Along with the increase in alumni activity this year has come a growth in the intimacy of relations between the alumni and the undergraduates.

The common ground of "Athletics" has provided a field upon which the alumni have crowded close to the student body, anxious to do their bit in assisting the rapidly climbing Blue and White to its place on the ladder.

Through the Campus they have kept in touch with situations and circumstances on the Hill and as often as was possible, individuals have come to games at Storrs and in other places, to see for themselves the teams that were surpassing expectations. Alumni influence has been injected into our athletic administration and is now a strong factor in its operation.

The Hartford alumni are looking forward to the game which is looming large in Hartford athletic circles this year, the Aggie game with Trinity. After the game they are going to "set the boys up" to a time at Le Bal. It will certainly be Aggie night at the old Tabarin, and probably Aggie morning too, by the time the music stops.

Alumni cooperation in regard to the Monteith Portrait Fund is assured, but will probably not manifest itself in terms of contribution until more pressing matters have been settled.

The Alumni secretary idea seems to be the main issue among the graduates at the present time. Alumni preparations seem to be complete in this regard so that it may not be long before a capable secretary will be directing and coordinating the fast appearing duties of the association.

TWO PLEDGE DATES

Two pledge dates a year are necessary, declares the Mediator, and undoubtedly this organization is correct in so maintaining.

Conditions, after the first pledge date, leading up to the few pledges of the second semester, are the same as they were before the first pledge date, except that they are in milder form. Whether a man is a freshman who came in with his class in the fall, a new freshman who has appeared for the second semester, or an upperclass non-fraternity man, it is easy to imagine circumstances in which three fraternities might be after the same man during the second semester. Under this condition the first fraternity which stuck a pledge pin on the man would have him, but with a definite second pledge date, then the man has a chance to look over the fraternities, if he is new in the second semester and there is no possibility of hard feeling arising because of "stolen" men.

SAFETY VALVE

Dear Editor:

Are the Co-eds an inspiration to College athletes? I should say so! How could the Conceit in men live if it were not fed with the admiration, hero-worship, and praise of some "best girl" or "best girls?" And if Conceit were to die in men how could they live, for the equation goes this way: ninety per cent Conceit plus ten per cent Ego equals one man. Subtract the ninety per cent of Conceit and all you have is the ten per cent of the man left. With that for a substance he would wither and die in a very short space of time.

Another quality which is contained in the make-up of man, but is not so great as to give it a percentage value is a certain quality preserved from childhood. Observers of human nature have noticed that a child at play likes to have its mother watch its actions with admiration and praise written all over her face. The man is the same. Many times while watching a game on the side-lines I have seen a player look up into the audience to see if "She" was there and after he had satisfied his curiosity he would turn back and work even harder. While every athlete plays for the glory of his Alma Mater there is also a certain amount of desire for personal glory attached, and when he meets his friend after the game and she claps her hands, and she looks up into his eyes and says, "Oh, you were wonderful!" is there anything in this world that could send his heart beating faster than this little Co-ed's words of praise? I should say not. His thermometer of self-esteem rises to the bursting point.

ALREADY GONE TO PRESS

Plans for the 1922-1923 catalogue are practically completed, and part of the catalogue has already gone to press, according to Sec. G. S. Torrey.

The new catalogue will differ but little from the present edition, possibly the most important change being a renumbering course. The new edition will also contain an outline of the work required for a degree in those departments that offer sufficient courses for major work.

SLIGHT REDUCTION IN DINING HALL RATES

The long awaited and eagerly anticipated reduction in board has arrived at last. Although it amounts to only thirty cents a week, nevertheless it is something, and shows that the downward trend of the high cost of existence has begun.

Starting February 12, the charge for a two weeks' meal ticket on the service side will be $11.20. The former price was $11.80. Both prices are exclusive of the regular $30 overhead charge which is collected at the beginning of each semester.

To the Editor of the Campus:

At a recent and poorly attended mass meeting the Cheer Leaders requested all freshmen present to stand up. Much to everyone's surprise more than half the gathering rose.

Granted that not all the frosh are turning out for these pep-fests, but nevertheless there is something radically wrong when as many if not more of the wearers of the green show up than do upperclassmen. How can you reasonably expect a freshman to go over and stretch his lungs when he knows that a great many upperclassmen will not be there—simply because they don't have to, and because it is easier to follow the "line of least resistance."

Without attempting to be too presumptuous or forward, it seems to the writer that the upperclassmen should set us a good example by turning out en masse. You'll find that we frosh will be there too.

This year for the first time finds Connecticut well up the Trail that leads to a place in the athletic sun. Captain Alexander and his sensational squad of basketeers are making Aggie history. We are becoming known. Prep and high school men are looking this way. Let's not slump at the crucial moment; but all turn out regardless of class or clique—remembering that now and for all time we are sons and daughters of old Connecticut—ready to give that team united support and applause in the mass meetings and at the games.

IDEAL ORCHESTRA TO PLAY FOR SOPH. DANCE

May be Held in Armory at Willimantic

Several changes have been made in the plans of those who are arranging for the Washington's Birthday dance which is to be given in Willimantic on the evening of Feb. 22 by the Sophomore class. The committee has been extremely fortunate in securing the services of the Ideal Orchestra of Webster, Mass. to furnish music for the evening. This orchestra has an enviable reputation in this state and Massachusetts and has drawn tremendous crowds at every affair for which it has played. Negotiations are under way to have the dance in the Armory in order that the patrons may have advantage of the larger floor space. Admission will be sixty cents and dancing will be from eight until one.

New York will be the first stopping place for the engineers when they start their four day inspection trip about the first of March, at which time they plan to visit several large steamships, Statue of Liberty and other points of interest to them.

The Feed that is in every dealer's stock and is contained in every high producing dairy ration

BUFFALO CORN GLUTEN FEED is a standard product that can be obtained at almost any feed store. Dealers always carry a regular stock of it to fill the great demand of dairy farmers who wish to produce a large flow of milk from their cows.

There is no other feed that is as available as Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed, and whether you are mixing your own ration or having it mixed for you by the dealer, be sure you include it.

Other high protein feeds are scarce and some are out of the market now but not so with Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed. You have always had it and you will always be able to get it. It is the mainstay of every good dairy ration.

SAYS SENSATION HAS TOO GREAT POWER TO AT-TRACT

Rev. Dawson Elaborates on Campus
Editorial in First of Two Sermons on Relations of Student to Church

At the morning service, Storrs Congregational Church last Sunday, Mr. Dawson called attention to the closing sentence of an editorial in the CAMPUS for January 26th, which suggested a study of points at which the church is failing to reach the students. After congratulating the Campus on its editorial fairness, the Chaplain told what he was trying to secure, to re-enforce the church work among the students, and then began an inquiry into student-conditions which negated successful results both in church and in the class-room. This inquiry will be concluded next Sunday.

"Man's animal nature," he said, "is more ancient and stronger than his mental and spiritual nature. Sensation has greater attracting power than ideas. I could take two bullpups with me to a point midway between Storrs Hall and Koons Hall, and, setting them upon each other, would have a larger congregation, and a more interested congregation, inside of two minutes than we have here.

"Public worship rests to a great degree, in the Protestant Church, upon the power to hear. Hearing, especially as associated with the reception of ideas, is one of the more recently emerging forms of development, coming late in evolution. It is only in the mammals, and in man, that we find the perfected ear, with both its outer and inner equipment. It is known, also that the power or faculty which has been most lately gained, in a process of development, is the first power to become lost, or dulled, after the entire bodily organism has become fatigued by intense exertion or emotion. After excessive physical exertion or emotional excitement, attention either in class-room or church becomes painful.

"The over-fatigued student is not succeeding in his studies, neither does he attend church. Left to his own choice, he avoids the place where words are used in connection with ideas."

Referring to the usual comment made upon a condition in colleges where the crush of activities, distractions, and excitement is preventing the best mental development, Mr. Dawson quoted the excuse, "It's that way everywhere." "This is no excuse," he replied, "for it is our mission not to follow, like sheep, the familiar line of least resistance, but to create new lines of social resistance.

"It was the task of the Vestal Virgins, in ancient Rome, to guard and keep ever-burning the sacred fire. For it was believed that when the fire died out, through neglect the commonwealth was doomed. The Vestal Virgin who neglected to guard the sacred fire, because she became absorbed in her own bodily pleasure, was put to death.

"It is for college and church to guard the sacred fire of men's highest civilization. If they neglect this fire—

HORT STUDENTS GIVE
DINNER TO MR. PIERSON

Prominent Nurseryman Tells of Opportunities in Greenhouse Work

At the close of assembly, a dinner was given to the speaker Mr. Wallace R. Pierson by twenty-five members of the student body and faculty who are especially interested in horticulture. After dinner, Prof. Hollister made a few remarks and introduced the other speakers. Prof. Stevens brought out the fact that the Hort Club on the Hill was in the process of reorganization, and invited all students present to join. Professor Patch, Professor Moss and Mr. Pierson were the other speakers.

Mr. Pierson, who is himself a graduate of M. A. C., discussed colleges and agricultural colleges in particular as to the value of their training to a man. He said that he had employed a large number of college men himself, and that one outstanding difference between a college man and any other fellow of the same age was that the college man had yet to learn to work.

Mr. Pierson also spoke on the opportunities of a young man in the field of floriculture and greenhouse work. He to succeed one must not only be will-laid special emphasis on the fact that ing to work but to run risks.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED AT C. A. C.

Following the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Meeting on Sunday evening there will be a special program as an observance of Lincoln's Birthday. Miss Anita P. Forbes, of the Hartford High School will give readings on the Phases of Modern Verse with special reference to Lincoln's birthday. Miss Forbes comes to Storrs under the auspices of the Womens Club. A community sing will also be held during the evening. With a lively Christian Endeavor meeting at six forty-five and this special program following there should be no reason why at least two thirds of our college community should not find a profitable evening at the Church.

if their members show greater zeal in pursuing bodily pleasures than an improving mind and soul, the seed of death is in them.

"It is the distinctive merit of the educated man that, listening to words which mean nothing whatever to the illiterate, a vast panorama of ideas unfolds itself before him. At the violet end of the untaught man's spectrum of ideas, beyond which there is nothing intelligible to him, the ultra-violet rays of the educated man's spectrum of ideas begins. So that, as the chemist and physicist perceive what is invisible to the untaught man, so the educated man hears what is inaudible to the illiterate. Thus the sterling mark of an education is the developed ability to see the invisible and hear the inaudible.

"Men and women of the church and college—your ears are the trained ears of the political, economic and spiritual commonwealth. Blessed are you, if you have learned to hear!"

- The final contest of the tournament will be played on February 27.

LOWELL ALUMNI ELECT OFFICERS FOR 1922

Groton, Jan. 30—"The Connecticut Agricultural College Alumni association of Lowell have elected the following officers for 1922: President, Dr. Frederick Miller, '06, of Lowell; vice-president, Keith Scott, '08, of Groton; secretary and treasurer, Edwin Choate Eaton, '11, of Groton.

The association plans to attend the Trinity game at Connecticut on March 4, and watch the Nutmeg Aggie basketball team that defeated Harvard, West Point, Rhode Island, Mass. Aggies, Brown and other colleges, defeat the team from Hartford.

Pres. H. F. Newberry of the Two Year Club, reports that the club already has a membership of about fifty. The club is nearly furnished with the exception of a pool table which is expected within two or three weeks.

BLACKGUARD SHOW TO BE PRESENTED AT STAFFORD

Proceeds of Two Day Performance to be Used for Portrait Fund.

Arrangements have been made by G. V. Hildring and F. W. Hawley for the repetition of the recent Blackguard Show at Stafford Springs on February 24 and 25 in conjunction with a carnival to be given by one of the lodges of that town. The first part of the show given at Storrs consisting of the Valentine Meadow Golf Club activities is the only part to be given at Stafford. Due to the insufficiency of the funds, raised by the last performance the proceeds of the play in Stafford will be given for the benefit of the Monteith picture fund.

Some of the new men who appear to be of varsity calibre are: Wetstine, O'Brien, Makofski, and Ganem, infielders; Hammill, outfielder; Balock and R. W. Potter, catchers; Wells and Minnum, pitchers.

Manager H. B. Beiseigel has scheduled seventeen games. There is a prospect of two or three more being added before the list is completed.

Six of the teams played last year have been dropped. These are Holy Cross, Williams, Boston University, Manhattan College, Wentworth, and Lowell Textile. Four newcomers, Bates, New Hampshire, Syracuse and Providence College appear on the slate. This is the first time that the blue and white has tackled Syracuse and Providence in any sport.

As usual, the season opens with Brown at Providence. The game comes on Saturday, April 8, this year. Trinity and Bates, which play here on the 17 and 19 of May, will probably be the two Junior Week contests. The Commencement games, with Syracuse and Providence on the 8 and 10 of June, wind up the hardest baseball schedule Connecticut has yet faced:

The schedule is as follows:

- Sat. April 8, Brown at Providence.
- Sat. April 22, Massachusetts Aggies at home.
- Wed. April 26, Boston College at Boston.
- Sat. April 29, Springfield at home.
- Wed. May 3, Clark at home.
- Sat. May 6, Massachusetts Aggies at Amherst.
- Wed. May 10, Worcester Tech at Worcester.
- Fri. May 12, Springfield at Springfield.
- Wed. May 17, Trinity at home.
- Fri. May 19, Bates at home.
- Wed. May 24, Wesleyan at Middletown.
- Fri. May 26, Rhode Island at Kingston.
- Tue. May 30, Wesleyan at home.
- Thur. June 1, Rhode Island at home.
- Sat. June 3, New Hampshire at home.
- Thur. June 8, Syracuse at home.
- Sat. June 10, Providence College at home.

varsity in preparation for the Springfield encounter with the hope that the Aggies may be able to retrieve the trouncing which the directors administered to the wearers of the Blue and White a few weeks ago on the home floor. It is probable that the same lineup will start the Springfield game which appeared at the opening of the Rhode Island State contest. The second team has been creating considerable comment because of the excellent showing which it has been making against the varsity in the last few week's workouts and there are those who predict another shift in the varsity lineup. No definite move in this direction has been made however.

The Mass. Aggie game promises to be hotly contested. Although the Bay Staters seemed completely outclassed in their recent appearance on the Hawley Armory court Coach Gore of the Bay State five predicted that the showing of the visitors would be of a much different brand when the Nutmeggers struck the Amherst floor. The Blue and White quintet will be somewhat handicapped because of the cramped nature of the Mass Aggie court but Coach Tasker feels that this will not work seriously to the disadvantage of his charges.

Connecticut Aggie Night at Springfield

Friday night has been officially set aside as Connecticut Aggie night at the Springfield institution, since both the varsity Debating and Basketball teams will meet Springfield that night. The basketball game will follow immediately after the debate and following the basketball game a dance and informal reception will be tendered the Aggies by the Springfield boys.

Trinity at Hartford Wednesday

Followers of the Aggie quintet are becoming more and more enthusiastic as the date for the contest with the fast Trinity quintet approaches, and it is thought that a large number of the students and alumni will be on hand to give Captain Alexander and his cohorts the glad hand when they trot onto the court at the Hopkins street gym at Hartford Wednesday.

The Trinity machine has been traveling at a fast clip and it is believed that the Aggie machine will encounter some real opposition at the hands of the Hartford boys.

Trinity has been somewhat handicapped this season by injuries to its stellar performers. Canner the boy who proved a hoodo to the hopes of the Aggies at Hartford last year has been out of uniform for the greater part of the season but it is expected that he will be on hand to perform against the Aggies. It is not known whether Tansill will be on deck next Wednesday night or not. It is understood however that the Trinity squad has been greatly strengthened by the acquisition of several strong players previously ineligible.

It is rumored that several of our charming co-eds are so proper that in their needful arithmetic calculations they refuse to do even improper fractions.

PROMINENT SENIOR MAY GO TO DENMARK

To Take Graduate Work in Dairy

One of the men leaving the Hill this semester is Henry D. Boas. He first came to C. A. C. in September, 1918 and joined Co. A of the S. A. T. C. The following January he entered the college as a Freshman. Since that time, Boas has entered into many of the activities on the Hill. He has made his "C" in football, is a member of the Mediator and the Student Council, and is a Gamma Chi Epsilon man. His chief interest, however, has been in agriculture, and as president of the Ag Club last fall, he made it one of the biggest successes which it has ever known.

Boas has majored in the department of Dairy Production, and will receive his diploma in June. Until next spring he plans to do advanced registry testing for the dairy department of the college. Work in his major subject has been so creditable that he has made application to the Scandinavian Foundation for a dairy scholarship in Denmark. Five scholarships are granted each year to citizens of the United States for study in Denmark, the applicants being picked by a board. If Boas succeeds in obtaining one of these scholarships, he will spend one or two years in graduate dairy work, in Europe.

WALLACE PIERSON SPEAKS AT COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

Head of Cromwell Nurseries Explains

Extent and Problems of Floricultural Industry

Giving his audience a general idea of the nursery and greenhouse business in the United States, Wallace Pierson, owner and manager of the Campbell Nurseries at Cromwell, Conn., addressed the student body at President's Hour yesterday.

In his talk Mr. Pierson laid considerable emphasis on Quarantine 37, a bill passed by the Federal Horticultural Board prohibiting the importation of practically all nursery stock from European countries. There are in the U. S. a number of plant diseases that have grown to be a serious menace to various economic plants of this country, and the object of this quarantine, said Mr. Pierson is to prevent the importation of more of these serious pests. According to the speaker, one of the advantages of this quarantine, apart from its protection from disease and parasites, is that it has served to start the nurserymen of this country to produce plants that heretofore they felt they were dependent on European countries for.

The gypsy moth, the white pine blister rust, the bud moth, and the chestnut blight were quoted by the speaker as being some of the serious diseases or parasites that this country is already fighting. Showing how the individual is affected by these diseases or parasites, Mr. Pierson stated that the Balsam, the pine tree commonly used as Christmas trees in this country, is threatened with extinction because of the ravages of the bud moth. The speaker quoted the fact that Christmas trees were selling for $12.00 apiece on the streets of New York this last Christmas because of the scarcity caused by this insect.

The second installment for the 1922 Nutmeg is to be collected in the near future.

Percentages will be posted by classes and fraternities.

material ever since. A practice debate was held on Wednesday night, and the arguments of the team put into final shape for presentation against Springfield.

Each of the three speakers will be given ten minutes for his main speech and an additional five minutes for a summary and rebuttal speech.

The debaters will journey to Springfield by auto, along with the basketball squad, which plays Springfield on the same night. February 10th will be "Connecticut Aggie Night" at Springfield, and the double bill of a debate and a basketball game is inducing a number of students to follow the teams to Springfield on that night. The debate will begin at seven o'clock with the game following.

Both teams will stay in Springfield over night, and most of the men will go to Amherst the next day, to see the basketball game with Mass. Aggie in the afternoon.
