BEST EXHIBIT EVER PUT ON BY THE COLLEGE IS HOW HARTFORD EXHIBIT HAS BEEN DESCRIBED

Imitation Barn Roof With Sign Attracts Attention.—College Publicity Secured Through the Rest Booth.

"The best exhibit ever put on by the College," is the way in which the student Agricultural Club exhibit at the Hartford Winter Exposition has been described.

The accompanying picture of this exhibit was printed in a recent issue of the "Extension Service News," and has been given a wide circulation among the farmers of the state. It is reprinted in the "Campus" through the courtesy of the "News."

This picture shows only one half of the College exhibit, which extended across the entire end of the State Armory for 140 feet. The barn roof, of imitation slate, and the sign "Connecticut Agricultural College" in large maroon letters, were easily the outstanding features of the entire exhibit.

At the extreme left of the exhibit the Home Economics booth was very tastefully arranged to show the work done by the Co-eds at C. A. C. Samples of millinery, dressmaking and sewing were displayed, and placards outlined the subjects and courses which the girls study during each of the four years. The booth was in charge of Miss Mable Bennett and Miss Mary Beeghly of the senior class.

The rest booth in the exhibit was de-

TWENTY-FIVE SENIORS HEAD HONOR LIST

Total of 98 Names Appear on New List. Sophs, Juniors, School of Ag. and Frosh is order of Percentage.

Once more the Honor List has been posted, and the most consistent students have been rewarded by seeing their names among the higher ones of the college.

In the matter of class standing the seniors lead. Twenty-five seniors or 47.2 per cent of the class are on the list. These are: Raymond Abbe, Mary Beeghly, Mabel Bennett, Henry Boas, Francis Boulanger, Warren Burrington, Ralph Chaffee, Gladys Goldthorpe, Clarence Grant, Robert Keeler, Paul Kennedy, Edward Lord, Robert Mathewson, Katherine Potter, Paul Putnam, Louise Ransom, Andrew Schenker, Charles Slanetz, Edward Slanetz, Carl Small, Merle Tuttle, Arthur Weinstein, Enos White, and Frank Williams.

The sophomores are next with sixteen members or 33.3 per cent of the class. These are: Howard Atkins, Marritt Chalker, James Clark, Thomas Donahue, Marion Eggleston, Sarah Fuller, Leah Gottlieb, Margaret Hall, Allan Hotchkiss, Frederick Littleworth, Helen Manchester, Charles Matthews, Isabella Modell, Russell Palen, Edna Parker, Benjamin Pinney, CAPTAIN ALEXANDER'S OUTFIT HAS GONE THROUGH A SCHEDULE OF NINETEEN GAMES, LOSING TO WESLEYAN, SPRINGFIELD, TRINITY AND MASS AGGIE ONCE AND WINNING FROM THE LAST THREE ONCE. IT IS CLAIMED THAT NO OTHER COLLEGE IN NEW ENGLAND HAS CARRIED A STIFFER OR MORE SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

NOTED PAINTER DIES AT HOME IN FARMINGTON

Monteith Portrait Was Painted at His Studio.

Robert Bolling Brandagee, one of America's best known portrait and landscape painters, at whose studio in Farmington, Professor H. R. Monteith's portrait was painted, died last Sunday afternoon in his home at Farmington.

Mr. Brandagee's portraits were considered his best works. His portrait of Miss Sarah Porter was exhibited a few years ago at the annual exhibition of the American artists in New York and was given the place of honor in the center of the Vanderbilt panel at the National Academy of Design. This portrait is considered one of the finest painted by an American artist.

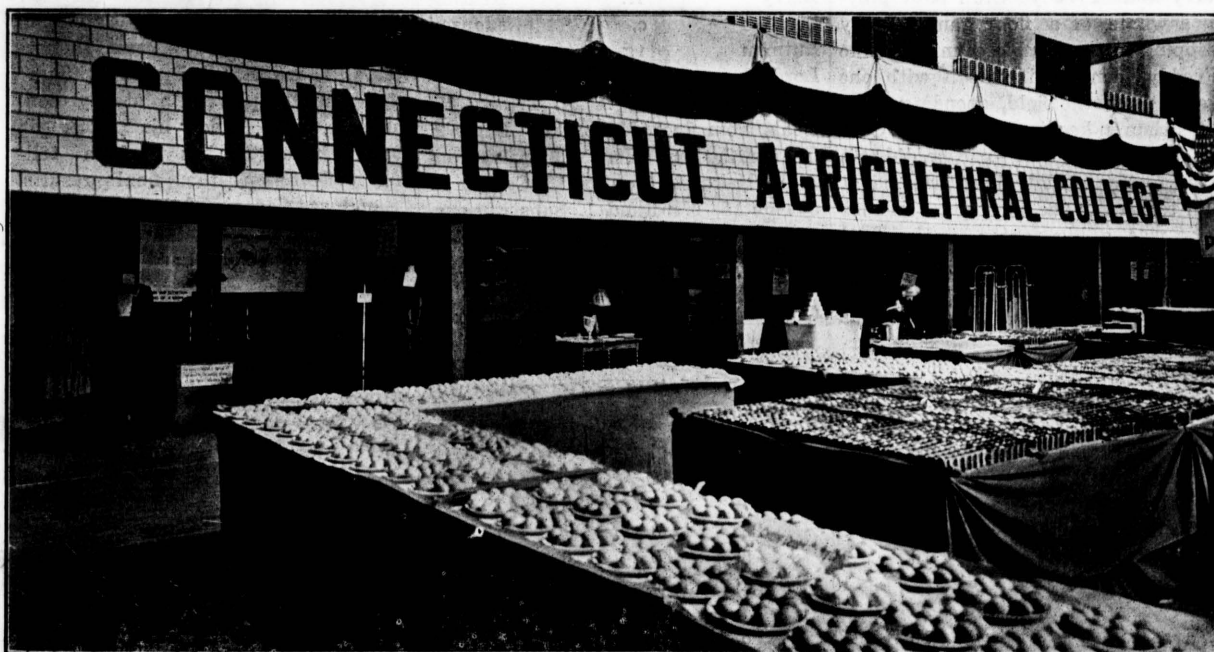

During his life Mr. Brandagee was awarded medals at Paris, the Buffalo, Carrying a schedule of nineteen games including many of the strongest teams in the east, and winning fifteen of these, Coach Tasker's Connecticut Aggies quintet is being proclaimed by many as a logical contender for the New England championship. Although it is admitted by the Blue and White followers that Holy Cross quintet has lost fewer games than the Aggie five, they point to the fact that Captain Alexander and his team mates have carried through a stiffer schedule than any other eastern college. Both in regard to the number of teams played and the strength of the opposing teams taken as a whole.

They point out that the Aggie quintet has been the only machine which has been able to best Harvard on her own floor this year, also that the only other quintet which has been able to take a measure of the strong West Point machine is Pennsylvania, heralded as the championship outfit of the intercollegiate league last season. Aggie supporters also have brought forth the argument that the Blue and White basketballers have been the only ones who have turned back the crack Springfield College aggregation on the Springfield court. Although the physical directors administered a sound beating to the Nutmeggers on the Hawley Armory court the Aggie supporters feel that this may be offset to some extent by the fact that the game was played on the night following the excitement attending a fire scare in the Administration building, when the entire student body was aroused at an early hour in the morning. Another factor which has been advanced as a partial reason for the condition of the Blue and White quintet is the fact that the squad had only the day before returned from the Northern trip, traveling all night with poor accommodations in order to reach Storrs for the Springfield game and for the semester examinations which began that morning.

JUNIOR FIVE TRIUMPHS AGAIN OVER SENIORS

"Kid" Brundage Stars

Last Monday night the juniors defeated the seniors by a score of 25 to 11. The seniors played well but were unable to score as often as the juniors. "Kid" Brundage was the big feature of the game, his passing and shooting bringing forth much applause from the audience. He made 5 field goals and 3 out of 9 tries from the free throw line. "Jerry" also played a good game for the juniors, caging 4 field baskets. "Bike" was the main stay for the losers, with 3 field goals. Phil Dean also played a good game and added 3 more points from the free throw line.

TRINITY BOWS TO FAST AGGIE TEAM IN SEASON'S LAST GAME

FAST AND THRILLING GAME ENDS WITH CONNECTICUT
LEADING 24-17 SCORE.

MAKOFSKI IS BIG POINT GETTER OF CONTEST. ENTIRE FRESH-MAN FIVE PLAY LAST SEVEN MINUTES OF PLAY

Coach Tasker's Connecticut Aggie quintet wound up its nineteen game slate in a blaze of glory on the Hawley Armory court Saturday night by administering a 27-17 defeat to the crack Trinity five in a fast and spirited encounter, shot through and through with sensational and hair raising play.

The Trinity victory gives the Aggie quintet the imposing number of fifteen wins in nineteen starts.

It was a wonderful game and the tally is only the smallest part of the story for it does not bring out the superb passing game of both quintets, the periods when both fives were working at fever pitch and when it seemed that the din and frantic exhortations of the Blue and White supporters would literally raise the roof of Hawley Armory. Nor does it give any conception of the ultra sensational work of the Blue and White machine, handicapped by the absence of Captain "Louie" Alexander and represented in the last few minutes of play by a complete freshman outfit. No credit should be taken away from the Blue and Gold quintet, however, for the play was even of a higher order than that exhibited at Hartford a few weeks ago when the Aggie quintet went down to a 21-19 defeat. It would be hard work to pick the big gun of the Aggie offense for the team worked as one, first "Bill" Makofski, then "Bob" Berry, then "Freddy" Stull, then "Phil" Lord, then Putnam, O'Brien and Krasow coming in for a share of the glory. "Bullets" Makofski scored every point chalked up for the Aggie in the first half and for the entire game he was credited with a total of five field baskets and six points from the fifteen foot line. "Bob" Berry and "Freddy" Stull both played a whale of a floor game, Berry dropping in two double counters while "Freddy" contented himself with one basket from the field, spending most of his time in keeping Jepson and Canner on the worry list—and he did this to perfection. "Phil" Lord worked at high tension in the back court and his work was a big factor in the final reckoning while "Sam" Putnam, playing in his last varsity contest under a Blue and White jersey maintained the same high standard which has characterized his four years of collegiate ball. "Billy" O'Brien and Harry Krasow were both given the big chance to show their wares and both proved beyond question that they had plenty of wares to show, also that when the varsity roll is called next season that there is a strong probability of Crosby High being well represented since Alexander, O'Brien and Krasow are all products of the Waterbury institution.

Trinity Gets No Field Goals in Second Half.

The Trinity quintet five played in hard luck in a few instances, losing two baskets by the narrowest of margins. Forced to shoot from mid-floor as the result of being unable to penetrate the Aggie defense the Hartford boys proved unequal to the task, not being able to drop a single field basket in the second half. The Aggie quintet was also bothered by a tendency to let loose some long careless drives.

Canner broke the ice in the first minute of play with a basket from the fifteen foot line, Makofski then retaliated with a pretty double counter from the corner and for the remainder of the frame Canner and Makofski played tag with the basket, Jepson being the only other man to puncture the hoop in the first half. At half time the tally stood 10-10, at one time the Trinity five having a two point lead. The Aggie quintet went to work in real earnest early in the second frame and toward the middle of the half the Blue and White jerseys were everywhere in evidence with the result that a lead was obtained that the Trinity machine was unable to over come.

SC. OF AG. CONTINUE WINS DEFEAT 1924 QUINTET

Hard Fought Game

In one of the most hard fought and bitter battles ever played between classes, the School of Ag triumphed over the sophomores by a score of 16 to 15 last Monday night. The score had been running nip and tuck and it was anybody's game until the last 5 minutes to play. The sophomores took a spurt in the last 5 minutes and succeeded in sweeping the school off its feet. Then with the score at 15 to 12 against the school and only 1 minute to play they took a spurt and scored 2 baskets, making the score 16 to 15 in their favor.

Vail was high man for the winners with 3 field baskets, Erwin next having 2 field goals and one foul shot. Eddy was the high man for the losers with three field goals.

Summary:—

The Megaphone

A summary of the 1921-22 basketball season has been worked out by the Campus and is presented in other columns of this issue. It will be worth keeping for reference.

* * * * *

The table of points scored by individual players proves an interesting study. Don't forget, however, that the best man is not always the one who scores the highest number of points in any game or period. The old team play is what counts.

* * * * *

The Trinity contest was the climax of four seasons of successful basketball for "Sam" Putnam. "Sam" has always played a steady consistent game and his work in many instances has had a telling effect on the final results. "Sam" was Captain of the quintet during the 1920-21 season and at all times he played clean and hard as befits an Aggie man.

* * * * *

If we began to describe the individual merits of the men in Saturday night's contest we would have to add a few more pages to the issue.

* * * * *

Baseball will be with us in full strength in a few more weeks. Watch for the Baseball issue.

MONTEITH CONCERT COMING MARCH 24.

A final date has at last been set for the Monteith Concert,—Friday evening, March 24, at 8:30 in Hawley Armory.

The program as arranged by Miss I. Monteith consists of instrumental and vocal selections, solos and readings. Miss Monteith has obtained the talent for the evening and has chosen some of the best players of her acquaintance to appear before the students, faculty and visitors on the evening of the 24.

The Student Council has been in touch with several prominent people in Willimantic and Hartford, who will receive special invitations to the concert. It is probable that special seating arrangements will be provided for the visitors.

PROFESSOR WATTLES SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Following the long established custom that each new addition to the faculty must appear before the students at College Assembly, Professor Willard Wattles was the speaker at President's Hour last Wednesday. His subject was "Folks," and he opened his speech by the recitation of his poem by that name. Professor Wattles spoke on literature and its relation to life, and emphasized especially that the greatest literature, both in poetry and prose deals with human qualities and instincts which are universal thruout all time and among all peoples. The address was closed with several other poems of merit written either by Mr. Wattles or by his friends. A poem read at the dedication of the Memorial Building at M. A. C., and a "Trail on Toby" were among the best of these.

GOD FORBID!

Dr. Denlinger—"What would America be without its' women?"

Brierly Field—"Stag-nation, sir."

UNUSUAL BUSY MONTH FOR COLLEGE CREAMERY

The Creamery has been unusually busy during the past few weeks. Much cream has been imported, and the weekly output of butter has been between three and four hundred pounds. Approximate one hundred gallons of ice cream have been made weekly. The total business done in the creamery lately has amounted to nearly three thousand dollars per month.

Pan-American Exposition and at the Exposition in California. He exhibited frequently in New York and Paris.

It was only a few months ago that college representatives met Mr. Brandagee at his studio in Farmington and arranged for the painting of the Monteith portrait by Harold A. Green under the supervision of Mr. Brandagee. The old artist has been ill for a considerable length of time however and failed rapidly during the past few weeks.

Mr. Brandagee was a personal friend of Professor Monteith.

WANTED--A NAIL."For lack of a nail, the shoe was lost,
And for lack of a shoe, the horse was lost;
For lack of a horse the rider was lost,
And for lack of a rider, the battle was lost."

Stemmons says, "Follow up your lead."

A thoughtful woman student returned to the minister of the Community Church a manuscript copy of one of his sermons. "I have read it three times," she said, "and want a copy to keep."

The minister is continually embarrassed by requests for copies of his sermons. He wants to have them read. Yet, without clerical force or fund for printing, he cannot furnish the copies that are requested. From time to time the comment is made: "That message should reach the entire student body; it should be printed and distributed." There is a narrow limit to the number of sermons from this pulpit that can be printed each year, in the Boston Transcript, for the Churchman Afield page must be kept representative of the foremost pulpits of the world.

WANTED: A friend of the church's work at the college, who will provide funds for printing sermons for the circulation of which a specific demand has been expressed. Address answers to Rev. Marshall Dawson, Minister, Community Church, Storrs, Conn.

Letters of congratulation on the basketball season may be addressed to Coach Tasker's Five, c/o Captain Louis Alexander, Storrs, Connecticut.

The sports camera man for Pathe
News is expected any time.

Now for the baseball season.

If this snow continues to fall the boys will have to play Brown on April 8 with the co-eds indoor baseball set.

Hope the new grandstand materializes.

Don't forget the big argument taking place in the Armory on Thursday, March 16.

CRUMBLING GODS.

In the religious, as in the political,
industrial, and educational fields, we lack leaders.

If leaders are to come, then the opportunity for them to appear is ripe.
The crowd seethes, gods are crumbling, systems totter, the trail is dim.
Who will lead the way?

In America the great religious system of the Church is failing. Pews are empty and because the system has placed its main reliance upon weekly instruction from a pulpit and has trained its men to lecture to occupants of those pews, it becomes ineffectual when people refuse to occupy the seats. Perhaps the only church system which is now efficacious is that which requires attendance.

In the colleges of America, where we are now training some of the future leaders of the nation, similar conditions prevail. The student listens to four or five, sometimes half a dozen lectures every day in the week, except Sunday, and on this day he has a strong inclination to cut the "class"
in religion, even if it is held late in the morning.

A new and powerful speaker may create interest for a time, but only for a time. His power to attract diminishes and he soon goes the way of his predecessors. That which will continue to stimulate young men, the average theologian apparently cannot furnish.

The world, perhaps, has moved too fast for the Church, whose ideas are behind the times, whose methods are obsolete. The rising generation accepts evolution, studies psychology,
wonders about spiritualism, follows
with awe the disclosures of science.
The youth of today can fly through space, talk along a wire or send his words through the air without a wire.
He reads by light made from an invisible substance.

To this new man, interpretation of religious truths must be made in a new form. The old will not do. Conceptions change and in moving toward the ultimate,--religion, as a system,
must at least stay up with the procession if it does not wish to hold it back. If religion talks in a mediaeval voice, modern ears will not understand.

Even truth can be clothed in a new garment.

To discard well established methods might be folly but if the Church is to succeed it must at least modify them!

THE TWO YEAR "C"

There has been much comment and criticism within the past few days
upon the letters which the men of the Two Year course are wearing. It has been pointed out that the "C" has heretofore been an award for varsity sports only, and that to give it for participation in games which are in reality nothing more than interclass competitions, is to cheapen it and lessen its value to those who have earned it thru sacrifice and hard work on the football field, the basketball floor, or the baseball diamond. Altho the argument has been advanced that the small letters "S of A" serve to distinguish this from a varsity "C," yet
it must be remembered that no "C"
of any description whatever has hitherto been given for interclass competitions. Even the long season of training on the track is rewarded by a somewhat similar letter, and it must not be thought that visitors will be able to distinguish between the two forms.

The men of the Two Year course
have been approached on this subject, but it is their claim that, since they are not members of the Athletic Association, that body has no jurisdiction over their activities. It is, however, to be hoped that the Two Year men will see the justness of the request which has been made of them, and, in consistence with the fine spirit which they have so far shown this year, will voluntarily correct the mistake which has been made.

Members of the Stenographers Club
of the college gave an informal dance
and card party to a few gentlemen
friends in Hawley Armory, Wednesday evening, March 8. The College orchestra was in excellent tune for the affair. Later in the evening, the party adjourned to the home of Miss Gladys Wheeler, where refreshments were served.

SAFETY VALVE

To the Editor of the Campus:

During the process of growth in any college, there comes a time when the institution has more students enrolled who must "work their way" through, than it has work to offer them! This is particularly the case in state colleges such as ours, which generally have a large percentage of at least partially self-supporting students.

When the number of would-be workers exceeds the number of jobs available, it is obvious that some men must be left out, and athletes are usually given the preference. Now far be it from the undersigned to say a word against the athletes. They are all doing splendid work for their Alma Mater; some in spite of great difficulties, financial and otherwise.

Athletics go a long way towards putting a college on the map--this year's basketball team is a striking example of that--and the athletes are entitled to all the work they can get.

But, let us remember that athletics alone do not place a college high in the collegiate ranks. What of the other student activities? First and foremost,
the Campus, moulder of student thought and state opinion; the Black-guards, Dramatic and Glee Clubs, without whose artistic influence the finest traditions and most vivid memories of college days are blotted or erased; the Nutmeg, recording in permanent form
the high lights of one's undergraduate years; and so on, throughout the long list of non-athletic activities.

So, when giving out student labor,
let those in authority not forget that the distinction of a college comes as abundantly from the quiet, too often comparatively unrecognized work of the writer, singer, actor, debater, or thinker who sees and works for the future,--as from the athlete who plays the more spectacular game and feels the thrill of wildly cheering crowds.

Let us give preference to the active men in assigning work, without drawing a line between the athlete and non-athlete. Both are laboring whole-heartedly and single-mindedly for the advancement of Connecticut.

(Signed)

I. C. E.

To the Editor of the Campus,
Dear Sir:

At a recent meeting of a few of the
C. A. C. alumni from around greater Boston of course every one expressed his pleasure at the very favorable progress being made by the different athletic teams at the college and many expressed their desire to see the basketball team in action before the close of the season. To favor some of the alumni we feel that at least one or more games of each sport should be played in Boston and New York each year. As far as we are concerned we can find no fault as the college will play here next season in both baseball and football but New York seems to be left out and there are many alumni from that section and also many future students. Would it not be possible for the baseball team to play five or six games around New York and Phila.

on their Easter vacation, as it would
at least give them some good early training.

We are glad to read in the CAMPUS that the track coach was ready for an early start and this year should be another good one for him. What we would like to see very much is a relay team at the B. A. A. games each year.

Your's very truly,
W. R. Pattee.

Dear Editor:

The spirit shown at the last basketball game of the season showed definitely that we have a college made up of men who have an appreciation and devotion to the higher things for which our College stands and that they are willing to give all that is in their power to give for the promotion of clean manly sport. This is the impression which any visitor might receive as he stood on the sidelines of the Trinity game. We pride ourselves that we are a college that is interested in playing the game hard and clean.

On the other hand let us take a glimpse at the Armory lecture room
on Sunday afternoon and see the result of a cordial invitation, issued from Sunday to Sunday, to those men of the college who are interested in talking over some of the things, which are vital in the building up and maintaining of a student body which appreciates the importance of playing the game of life squarely. This invitation is the voice of the Bible Class. Dr.
Denlinger who is vitally interested in every department of the college is giving much time and thought as to how the much needed moral awakening of the student body can be realized. Is it fair to the leader, to have an audience
as on last Sunday afternoon, of only four men from the entire college and three men from the Two Year Course.
It must be noted here that in general
the latter body has supported the Bible Class far better than the members of the college body. Again when several of the Faculty stand ready to help in this work, is it fair that they should receive almost no backing from the student body? Is it possible that the enthusiasm and the spirit shown in the Armory on Saturday nights can so completely die out in less than twenty four hours? Were we mistaken in our assumption, at the game the night before that Connecticut men were fond of searching out those things which can be found to be inspiring from the bits of poetry or the interesting parts of the Bible which the leader of the Bible class always has at his tongues end? Then the only possible solution to the whole matter, is an action by the male students of the college to pause from the usual idling of time on Sunday long enough to show such a man your respect, to show the world that your college is furnishing an education which is so well rounded that it includes the moral side and that you

TRACK MEET WITH MASS AGGIE AT AMHERST APR. 29

"Track material is showing up well," stated Coach Steve Daly in a recent interview with a Campus reporter. "The team as a whole is well balanced, and there are good prospects among the freshmen."

An average of from 30 to 35 men have been turning out for practice each afternoon, and on some days there have been over 40 men out. Manager C. H. Ferriss has arranged for a meet with Mass. Aggie at Amherst on April 29, and a meet with Trinity on June 3 is pending. It is hoped that a meet with R. I. State here at Storrs can be arranged, but as yet, no definite plans have been made.

Among the old men who have turned out again this year are:

Boulanger—hurdles.
Goodearle—dash.
Hawley—hurdles and dash.
Heath—distance.
Steere—distance.
Brenneis—distance.
Brockett—distance.

LACK OF AG. TEACHERS IN CONNECTICUT

Professor C. B. Gentry reports a decided lack of teachers of vocational agriculture in the state for the coming year.

Calls are coming in from other states for agricultural teachers, and the supply is far below the demand. The College has supplied a number of agricultural teachers in the past few years, and they all proved satisfactory, but at present the College does not have enough men enrolled in the teacher training courses to fill the positions which are open in the state of Connecticut alone.

TWO YEAR MEN GET TRACK AND BASKETBALL LETTERS

At a recent meeting of the Two Year Club, letters were given out to the men who placed in the Cross Country run last fall as well as to Manager W. N. Gillette. President C. F. Newberry, presented the letters to the following men, G. B. Clark, Capt. H. W. Kirk, P. H. Erwin, C. B. Standish, J. P. Schilcher, A. Howard, F. S. Bray.

At the same meeting letters were given to the members of the basketball team which has performed so well this season. Those receiving these letters were Manager C. F. Newberry, Captain J. P. Schilcher, J. T. Sweeney, H. B. Vaill, P. H. Erwin, G. B. Clark, E. B. Davis, S. A. Walters.

GANEM WINS LEG ON CUP IN POOL TOURNAMENT

Louis Ganem of Eta Lambda Sigma defeated Ronald Bamford of Phi Mu Delta in the final round of the interfraternity pool tournament on Monday evening by the score of 100-51. Bamford failed to show the form which won him the cup last year and had brought him to the final in this year's tournament only to lose out in the final match. Ganem played the same consistent game which has marked the tournament and, taking the lead in the opening rack, was never in danger during the entire contest.

Wesleyan Gets One Win

Wesleyan defeated the Aggie quintet on the Hawley Armory court by a one point margin in the second home game of the season. It is felt however that the comparative records of the two quintets give the wearers of the Blue and White a wide margin in their favor. Another factor entering in the Wesleyan contest was the shifting of "Freddy" Stull from center to forward, and "Bill" Makofski from guard to center in order to make room for "Phil" Lord who had been kept out of the earlier games because of an injury to his leg. This broke up the machine like team work of the squad and the Red and Black outfit, playing an excellent defensive game had little difficulty in handing the Aggie quintet a one point setback.

Mass. Aggie snowed under the Blue and White quintet to the tune of 30-17 on the Amherst court but the local boys have never grieved much over this setback. Twenty-four personals were called on both quintets during the encounter. Another factor which worked to the detriment of the Aggie Basketeers was the cramped nature of the Mass. Aggie gym and the low ceiling. Trinity also hung the Indian sign onto the Aggie hoopsters at Hartford, in a spirited contest by a two point margin. The local five was unable to make headway against the excellent defense of the Trinity machine, caging only two field goals during the entire contest. The Trinity quintet was credited with five field baskets. Time after time the Blue and White five missed out on seemingly easy baskets, several of these by the narrowest of margins. Coach Tasker's charges turned the tables on the Trinity five in a very thorough manner on the Hawley Armory court last Saturday however, playing without the services of Captain Alexander, and represented in the last 10 minutes of play by a complete freshmen five. Not one basket was allowed the Hartford boys during the second half. This record, it is felt, more than offset the defeat at Hartford.

Aggie Record Superior

It is claimed by the Blue and White enthusiasts that the record of the Conn. Aggie squad taken as a whole is much superior to that of either Holy Cross or Springfield College. Many who claim to be in a place to know are of the opinion that Springfield is perfectly willing to accede the title to Conn. Aggie.

With the exception of "Sam" Putnam at guard, who will be graduated this year, the entire squad will be available for next season and a big year is predicted for the Blue and White on the Basketball court.

Start Season With Win

The Aggies started the season with a win over Harvard on the Cambridge court by a 33-28 tally. Lord was not in the line-up, due to an injury received in the first day of practice, Makofski taking his place in the back court. Balock dropped in five of the twelve field baskets chalked up for the Nutmeggers. Harvard was credited with nine field baskets.

West Point lost it's first game in two season's to Captain Alexander's five at West Point. The Aggie quintet was working in midseason form, Captain "Alec" caging 21 out of the total 33 points with the remainder of the squad working in similar form.

Brown University next fell before the Aggie attack, losing out by a 29-23 tally, at Providence. Alexander was again high point getter, caging a total of 17 points. Balock also had a big night, dropping in four baskets from the field during his time in the contest. The first game on the Hawley Armory court resulted in a win for the Aggies, the Lebanon Valley quintet coming out on the short end of a 40-29 tally. "Phil" Lord made his first appearance of the season at guard alternating with "Sam" Putnam. "Phil" soon proved that it was to be a big season for him.

Consternation was thrown into the Aggie camp by the defeat of the varsity at the hands of the Wesleyan University quintet by a one point margin. 20-19 was the final tally with the score at half time 9-9. A shift in the lineup as the result of the return of "Phil" Lord to the back guard worked seriously to the detriment of the machine play which had previously featured the Aggie attack.

Rhode Island Defeated

The Blue and White five came back strong in the next contest, handing the Rhode Island State quintet the short end of a 38-18 tally on the Kingston court. Stull again worked at center, Makofski being shifted to right forward, and celebrating the event by dropping in eight baskets from the field.

Frequent substitutions by Coach Gore of the Mass. Aggie five failed to prevent Connecticut from overtopping the Bay State five by a 31-13 tally on the Hawley armory court in the next contest. Putnam rung up the unusual number of five baskets from the guard position, "Freddy" Stull coming next with four. The visitors were unable to score a single basket in the second half.

Tufts Loses at Medford

Tufts succumbed without much argument to the attack of Coach Tasker's five by a 27-20 score on the Medford floor in the next encounter. During the first half the Medfordites gave the Nutmeggers considerable trouble, the 16-12 which appeared on the score board at half time giving evidence to the closeness of the struggle during that frame. Getting the jump at the opening of the second half, the Aggie five was never in danger for the remainder of the contest.

New Hampshire State at Durham proved a stiff battle for Coach Tasker's men, the Aggies winning out by a 35-30 count. Scoring for the quintet was confined to the two forwards, Captain "Alec" rolling up 21 points while "Bill" Makofski dropped in seven baskets from the field.

Springfield College Gets Win

Springfield College gave the Aggies an unexpected jolt by coming out on the long end of a 46-23 tally after one of the fastest contests played on the Hawley armory court this season.

Captain Bennett of the visitors proved a hard man to handle and was responsible in a large measure for the Springfield victory.

New Hampshire State was unable to retrieve her previous defeat at the hands of Captain "Alec" and his cohorts, losing out by a 26-23 tally, on her visit to the Hawley armory court. The half time count of 13-13 is sufficient indication of the calibre of the contest.

Tufts also was unable to make good her previous defeat, losing out by a 47-35 count in a loosely played contest on the Hawley court. The Aggie machine missed several chances to enlarge its score because of poor shooting.

Rhode Island State went down to an ignominious defeat before the onslaught of Coach Tasker's crew on the Hawley armory court, able to collect only 18 points while the Blue and White machine was piling up a 41 count. Alexander rang up 20 points for the Aggies netting 14 on field goals. Several substitutions were made in the Rhode Island State line up in an attempt to stem the Aggie onslaught. The entire Aggie second team was sent into the game in the last seven minutes of play.

Springfield College Defeated at Springfield.

Coach Tasker's charges next achieved a strong comeback by besting the strong Springfield College quintet on the Springfield court by a 24-23 tally. The contest was close and fast at all times, the Aggies having the edge on fast play for the greater part of the contest. Lord held Oosting, substituting for Bennet, to 4 points.

On the Mass. Aggie court at Amherst Coach Tasker's five went down to a 30-17 defeat in a rough fast game. Twenty-four personals were called on both quintets during the game. The Aggies were greatly handicapped by the cramped nature of the M. A. C. court.

Two Field Goals at Trinity

Another crushing blow was given the Blue and White quintet at Hartford when the unexpected happened with a vengeance as Trinity emerged on the long end of a 21-19 tally after a fast hard fought game in which the Aggie machine was able to drop only two field goals during the entire contest. The loss of Makofski in the early part of the game proved a serious matter, since many chances for quick, near basket shots, at which the big boy excelled, were passed up because of his absence. The Trinity defense proved to be much stronger than expected.

Maine University, the next opponent on the card, dropped a fast but uneventful game to the Blue and White machine by a 22-16 count on the Hawley Armory court. Up to the middle of the second half the visitors had been able to garner only two points. The substitution of the entire second team gave the Pine State outfit an opportunity to run the tally up to 16 points before further damage was stopped by the return of Captain Alexander to the fray.

ETA LAMBDA SIGMA HOLDS TWENTY-NINTH BANQUET

Waitresses from Mary Ann and Peerless Orchestra Add to Attractiveness of Affair.

The Eta Lambda Sigma held their twenty-ninth annual banquet Saturday evening in the college dining hall. About seventy-five alumni and active members were present. The alumni went to the Trinity game in a body and sat on the east side of the armory, in back of the player's bench.

Walter T. Clark, '18, now a member of the extension service, was toastmaster, and speeches were made by Philip F. Dean, '22, president of the fraternity; James B. Thwing, '02; J. B. Kildride, '17; William F. Makofski, '25; and Victor J. Aubrey, '10.

The committee in charge of the banquet consisted of Paul L. Putnam, '22, Bertram R. Smith, '23, and E. McChesney Eddy, '24. Waiters from the Mary Ann Tea Room in Willimantic were secured to wait on the tables and the Peerless Orchestra furnished music for the occasion. Much credit is due to Miss Bowman, mistress of the dining hall, and Dick Shaw, who presided in the kitchen.

Between courses "Socco" Metelli and Joe Szafer demonstrated their Terpsichorean abilities with "Westy" Johnson presiding at the piano.

Those present were Sherman W. Eddy, '96, one of the charter members of the fraternity; Clayton T. Curtiss, '96, H. W. Potter, '96, Charles S. Francis, '98, Edwin S. Mansfield, '98, Willard W. James, '99, James B. Thwing, '02, James B. Palmer, '04, John C. Snow, '05, H. B. Chandler, '06, Thomas H. Desmond, '06, Harry Hanks, '06, Wallace Lynch, '07, A. G. Clark, '07, Byron D. Houston, '08, Herbert A. Gillette, '08, Wayne L. Storrs, '09, Martin S. Hungerford, '09, Charles S. Harden, '10, Victor J. Aubrey, '12, R. M. Dresser, '13, Trueman Chipman, '13, William Schofield, '13, George S. Stewart, '14, H. Westy Johnson, '16, Willard H. Allen, '16, Barnard A. McDonald, '16, William D. Shea, '17, J. Benedict Kilbride, '17, Water T. Clark, '18, Alton I. Horne, '18, Thomas H. Beich, '18, Harold C. Davis, '19, Alfred A. Upham, '19, Crawford Griswold, '20, Carl L. Alberti, '20, Harold D. Bridges, '20, Earl D. Brigham, '20, James S. Goodrich, '21, Evington Osborn, '21, Frederick C. Maier, '21, Clarence D. Knott, '21, Ernest C. Carpenter, '21, Webster C. Chapman, '21, and the active chapter.

The Eta Lambda Sigma fraternity was established at this college October 26, 1893, as the Eclectic Literary Society. In 1911 it changed to a fraternity and took for its name the Greek letters Eta Lambda Sigma.

The Storrs Garage has recently blossomed out with a new two ton Pierce Arrow truck.

The truck, which has a carrying capacity of 3 tons was bought with the intention of using it to carry freight between Storrs and Willimantic.

Aggies Defeat Engineers

The next to the final game of the season, with Worcester Tech on the Hawley armory court, resulted in a 29-26 count with the Nutmeggers on the long end. The game was of the whirlwind spectacular type and not until the last few minutes of play was an Aggie victory definitely assured. Playing without the services of Captain "Louie" the Aggie five went into the contest less of a favorite than in previous encounters. "Bob" Berry working at left forward soon proved his ability however and his combined with the general excellence of the entire Aggie attack swept the Tech machine off it's feet for minutes at a time.

Finish With Win Over Trinity

The Aggie quintet finished it's 1921-22 career in a blaze of glory by defeating the Trinity five by a 24-17 tally on the Hawley armory court, March 4th. The game will live long in the minds of those who witnessed it. Not a thing can be said too complimentary for the work of the Blue and White quintet in this contest. Playing without the services of Captain "Louie" heretofore considered the big gun of the Aggie offense, the Aggie quintet played for all it was worth, at times having the Trinity quintet completely at sea.

As a preliminary to the regular Monday night class games the sophomore girls played the freshmen sextet, and succeeded in defeating them by a score of 17 to 11. It was an exciting and close game with the score tied at half time. Miss Modell of the class of '24 was the big point getter of the evening, caging 6 field goals and making good 1 out of 5 tries from the free throw line. Misses Hubbard and Clark shared the honors for the freshmen, each getting 2 field goals and a total of 3 out of 9 tries from the foul line.

Summary:—

Miss Modell	rf.	Miss Hubbard
Miss Gaberman	f.	Miss Clark
Miss Hall	sc.	Miss Graf
Miss Teeter	c.	Miss Hodge
Miss Parker	rg.	Miss Howe
Miss Palmer	lg.	Miss Capola

Goals from floor, Miss Modell 6, Miss Gaberman 2, Miss Clark 2, Miss Hubbard 2. Goals from fouls, Miss Modell 1 out of 5, Miss Gaberman 0 out of 4, Miss Clark 3 out of 9. Referee, Guyer.

Guy Smith of Swift and Company of Chicago, formerly of the College Extension Staff, will speak at assembly on March 15. He will also address the Ag. Club and some of the classes. His topics are "Some Fundamentals of the Meat Industry," "The Merchandizing of Live Stock," "The Relation of the Price of Meats to the Price of Live Stock."

Prof. Smith is considered by many of his former associates on the Extension staff to be one of the ablest workers in his line.

voted to publicity for the College. College banners and pennants decorated the walls, along with framed pictures of college views and student life. Student publications were on display, and sample copies of the "Campus" were given to all who cared for them. Basketball schedules were also distributed during the week, and a number of cups and trophies won by College teams were exhibited in this booth.

At the right of the rest booth were the departments of Dairy Manufacture and Dairy Production. The first contained a Babcock tester, cream separator, milk cooler, and other modern machinery for handling milk, cream, cheese and other dairy products.

The latter booth represented a model stable, with a milking machine and modern equipment. A real haymow occupied one end of the stable.

At the extreme right of the picture the Bacteriology exhibit had an excellent display of culture media, with samples and charts of different kinds of bacteria.

and Lewis Richardson.

The Juniors rank third with fourteen members or 25.4 per cent of the class. These are: Louie Alexander, Ralph Collins, Carl Dossin, George Hildring, Sherman Ives, Bernard Juralewicz, Marion Morris, Emma Reed, Elton Smith, George Sneiderman, Byrd Standish, Harold Steck, Gilbert Tucker, and Ida Tuttle.

The School of Agriculture have a showing of fourteen members or 23.3 per cent of the class. These are: Aaron Apter, Percy Cook, Harold Diehl, Lester Dunklee, Pau Irwin, Whitney Gillette, Lyman Hall, Louis Hermann, Walter Marsh, William Meyers, Clifford Newbury, Joe Snow, Harvey Vaill, John Lynch, and Frederick Wells.

The Freshmen have fifteen members or 12.3 per cent of the class on the Honor List. These are: James Bishop, Ralph Bristol, Henry Buckingham, Clemens Diemand, Pauline Graf, Ralph Hill, Lois Hodge, Alice Hubbard, John Jacoby, Allan King, Laura Kittner, Ernest Murray, Ella Nelson, Dorothy Stellenwerf, Nelson Waters, and George Wells.

There are twelve special students on the list. These are: Mrs. Edith Boyers, William Clossick, Julia Bailey, Benjamin Brown, Irene Cooke, Percy Cooksley, Alfred Crofts, Samuel Fier, William Lelash, Daniel Noble, Joseph Rivkin, and Harold Schwenk.

Something to think about: How will your class stand on the next Honor List.

At a meeting of the Horticultural Club last Thursday night, Mr. R. H. Patch of the Floricultural Department gave an interesting talk.

New members who were voted into the Club are: L. C. Richardson, H. E. Bolan, G. E. Tucker, F. McKeever, C. P. Moore, R. W. Potter, and H. T. McCarthy.
