FORMER INSTRUCTOR DIES IN NEW HAVEN

H. D. EDMOND HERE FOR OVER TWENTY YEARS

Chemist for Local Experiment Station
Until About a Year Ago. Active in Local Affairs

Herman Deane Edmond, class of 1900, B. S. 1904, who died at his home in New Haven on April 14th, was at one time military instructor at the College and was connected with the local experiment station for many years.

After his graduation Mr. Edmond returned to take up advanced work at the College. Later he became military instructor, or commandant, which position he held for about two years.

Mr. Edmond was a resident of Storrs for over twenty years and was chemist for the local experiment station until about a year ago when his failing health forced him to give up his work. When fire destroyed the chemical laboratory of the College in 1917, Mr. Edmond was transferred to the New Haven station but he continued to work for the local station, although he made his home in the Elm City.

While at Storrs Mr. Edmond was active in local affairs, being master of the Grange, Past Master of Uriel Lodge No. 24, A. F. and A. M. of Connecticut and was very active in the Faculty Club and the tennis association of the College. For many years he was deacon of the local church but at the time of his death he was a member of the Center Church of New Haven. He was also treasurer and clerk of the local church for a time. Mr. Edmond was a member of the Eta Lambda Sigma fraternity.

Funeral services were held at Hampton on Monday, April 17. The active bearers were Professors S. P. Hollister, J. N. Fitts, A. T. Stevens, D. E. Warner and Doctor E. W. Sinnott of the College and R. L. Birdsall of So. Willington. Honorary bearers were President Charles L. Beach and Professor W. M. Esten of the College, Director E. H. Jenkins and Dr. E. M. Bailey of the New Haven Experiment Station.

HICKS PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST IN JUNE

OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS WORKING FOR DEGREE

Cash Prizes for Best Three as Judged by Faculty Member of Another College

Announcement of the list of subjects for the annual Hicks Prize Contest and the rules governing the 1922 competition have been made by the Secretary's office.

Originating in 1894 through the gift of $1,000 by Ratcliffe Hicks, a lawyer, manufacturer, legislator and influential politician of Tolland, the Hicks prize was first offered for excellence in oratory and declamation. During the war the contest was not held, but in 1920 it was again revived as a competition in oratory and declamation. Last year the Committee on Scholastic Standing decided to combine the two contests into a single contest for excellence in English composition, and offered a first, second and third prize to the winners.

Arthur Weinstein, 22, was awarded first prize in last year's contest, with Ida Tuttle, '23, and Warren Brockett, '21, receiving second and third prizes.

One change in the rules of the contest for this year has been made by the faculty, who have voted to eliminate special students from the competition. Only those students who are candidates for a degree are eligible to enter the contest. The prizes offered are a first prize of $30, a second prize of $20, and a third prize of $10, the awards to be made on Commencement Day, June 10. Each essay is

SCHOOL OF AG. FINISH COURSE

THIRTEEN TWO-YEAR MEN RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Graduation Exercises Held in Local Church

The graduation exercises of the Two Year Course were held Saturday morning, April 8, at eleven o'clock in the Storrs Church. Thirteen men, the first to graduate since the course has been revised and shortened, were given their diplomas by President Beach. Rev. Marshall Dawson opened the ceremonies with an invocation. The address to the graduates was given by President Beach. He spoke of the development of agriculture since early times, the effect of the World War on the condition of the farmer, and as parting advice to the Two Year men, he told them when they returned to their farms to take an active part in the affairs of their communities. He emphasized the opportunities for leadership open to men with special training such as they have had.

The address was immediately followed by the presentation of diplomas, and the exercises closed with the singing of Alma Mater. The four piece College Orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

The men to receive their diplomas were:

Kenneth Bingham Boynton
Ralph Gaines Bunnell
Gould Bingham Clark
William Henry Clossick
Emerson Bradway Davis
Lester Dunklee

CONNECTICUT DAY SCHEDULE PLANNED

GRAND CLEAN-UP COMES ON TUESDAY, MAY 9

Campus and Gardner Dow Field will be in Good Condition for Junior Week

Connecticut Day will be held on Tuesday, May 9, this year according to the plans of the Student Affairs Committee of which Professor Kirkpatrick is chairman.

All classes will be suspended on that day and everyone is expected to turn out and help put the Gardner Dow field and the campus grounds in presentable condition for Junior Week which is the following week.

Those who were on the Hill last year and the year preceding will remember how both faculty and students appeared in old clothes, and other make-shift outfits, and worked all day on construction and clean-up work. A new backstop was erected, the ground back of the Armory was graded, and the campus generally cleaned up last year.

A vast amount of work was accomplished and the campus looked like an entirely new place at the end of the clean-up day. By four o'clock, the work which had been mapped out was finished, and many were the lame backs, blistered hands and concrete opinions of rubbish.

But everybody was happy and right ready to do justice to the out-door supper served by the dining hall management, and a dance in the Armory served to make the most fatigued laborer forget the work of the day in his zeal to "trip the light fantastic toe."

This year one of the projects to be taken up is the general improvement of the Gardner Dow Athletic Field and committees will be appointed to look after this matter. At present none but the executive committees have been appointed, but sub-committees will be appointed very shortly. The committees appointed now are:

PEERLESS TO PLAY AT "WAY DOWN EAST"

After considerable effort the social committee has been fortunate in securing the motion picture production "Way Down East" to be shown here Saturday evening, April 29. This picture had a successful run in many large cities.

The "Peerless" Orchestra of Willimantic will furnish appropriate music for the occasion.

CONNECTICUT BOWS TO BROWN UNIVERSITY

BEAR VICTORIOUS IN FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Hard Fought Battle Ends With Aggies Under a 4 to 1 Score.

In the opening game with Brown University at Providence on Saturday April 2, the Aggie machine was defeated by a 4-1 score. The score does not tell of the hard fought battle for the Aggies, handicapped by having only two days outdoor practice, gave the Bear some real opposition.

Errors were largely responsible for Connecticut's defeat for Laubscher pitched winning ball. Brown's ability to hit in a pinch also added to the score.

Mettelli and Gordon were the only Aggie players who were able to solve the delivery of the Brown pitcher, and each connected for two safeties. Ganem played a brilliant game in the field and made a wonderful catch of a foul fly near the Aggie dugout.

Connecticut scored her only run in the second inning when Ryan walked, stole second, advanced to third on a fielder's choice by Wetstine, and crossed the plate on Leddy's wild pitch.

The fire works broke loose for Brown in the fourth inning when two hits and two errors gave the Bear the winning runs. In the seventh inning Bruin added another tally and in the following inning a hit aided by two errors gave Brown the final tally.

Merriweather made a brilliant catch of a sure hit off Brundage's bat in the first inning with Gordon on second.

CONNECTICUT DOWNS MASS. AGGIE IN FIRST HOME GAME OF SEASON

BLUE AND WHITE OUTCLASS BAYSTATERS AND WIN PITCHERS' BATTLE 2 TO 1.

MASS. AGGIE MOUNDSMAN GETS HOME RUN IN SIXTH.—LAUBSCHER CREDITED WITH EIGHT STRIKEOUTS AND ONE RUN

The Conn. Aggie nine proved too tough a nut for Mass. Aggie to crack in a grilling diamond contest held on Gardner Dod field Saturday afternoon, and as a result the Bay Staters returned home, after nine innings of hard-fought baseball, on the short end of a 2-1 score.

The contest, the first home game for the Blue and White, was a pitchers' battle from the start. Kroeck performed on the mound for Mass. Aggie, and "Bob" Laubscher for the Nutmeggers. Both twirlers were in top-notch form and it was not until the sixth inning that either team was able to score. "Kid" Brundage reached first on a fielder's choice, forcing Emigh out on second. Then "Bob" Laubscher placed a long drive to center field, netting two bases, and placing Brundage on third. Makofski the next man up, singled to short who fumbled, thus allowing the Blue and White to tally twice.

Mettelli Works Well Behind Bat

In the seventh inning, Kroeck, the elongated Bay State moundsman, made one of the longest drives ever seen on Gardner Dow field, sending the ball way into deep left into the tennis courts, netting a home run, the lone count of the visitors. In the ninth inning, Kroeck nearly duplicated his first drive, poling a long one to center field. The fast work of "Nick" Emigh prevented Kroeck from netting more than two bags on this performance, however.

Airtight and brilliant fielding marked the whole battle, Brundage and Emigh both making several catches which nipped Mass. Aggies' hopes in the bud. The Connecticut infield also played a snappy game. "Bob" Berry, at second, stopped a hot liner between first and second which sent Mass. Aggie back to the field again, and which proved to be the next to the last long drive of the game.

Captain Metelli played his usual consistent game behind the bat. Both Laubscher and Kroeck were each charged with six hits, which were mostly of the scattered variety, and but one free trip to the initial sack was allowed during the game. This was drawn by Berry from Kroeck in the second inning. The game was errorless for Connecticut. Mass. Aggies made two errors, one of which allowed the Nutmeggers to put across the winning runs.

JUNIORS DOWN SOPHS IN CLOSE CONTEST

In the second of the interclass games the juniors defeated the sophomores 6 to 5. The game was close from the start. Nelson pitched good ball for the sophomores with Donahue behind the bat. Dickens twirled for the juniors with Patterson catching. Each pitcher had 10 strikeouts to his credit, while Dickens walked 7, Nelson succeeded in holding it to 6. Alexander played a sterling game of ball for the juniors, getting two hits and bringing in one run.

BOSTON COLLEGE DEFEATS AGGIES

HUB CITY NINE WINS LOOSELY PLAYED GAME

Errors Responsible for 15 to 2 Defeat

Yesterday afternoon in Boston the Aggie nine tasted defeat for the second time of the season at the hands of Boston College. The game was loosely played throughout. Errors gave Boston many unearned runs and allowed them to pile up a 15 to 2 score. E. Phillips, the Boston catcher, drove in two runs in the sixth, when he hit to deep left for a home run.

Emigh hit to right field for a three bagger in the fifth inning.

Boston broke loose in the last inning and hits coupled with errors netted them six easy runs.

The Frosh started the interclass baseball season auspiciously Monday afternoon on Gardner Dow field, handing the Seniors a 13 to 3 setback. The yearlings pulled up a big lead in the early innings and were never threatened by the Seniors. Wells, on the mound for the Frosh, pitched a good game, striking out eight and issuing but two free passes. Jacquith started for the Seniors and lasted until the fourth canto when Frosthalm took up the burden. He fared but little better, five runs being scored from his delivery. "Scotty" Grant played a star game at second and figured in the only double play.

Austin, New York; C. C. Brodie, Bridgeport; Fred Maynard, Jewett City; Aaron Hyman, Unionville; Raymond H. O'Conner, New Haven; N. J. Rogers, Hooversville, Penn.; and Hudson S. Weigold, Torrington, enrolled. The beekeepers were not so numerous. Prof. Crandle had Lloyd Ayes, South Coventry; Sidney H. Moon, New London; Mrs. E. C. Wieland, New Haven, as students. The course in pruning and spraying was not given by Prof. Hollister as no one enrolled.

TRACKSTERS PREPARE TO MEET MASS AGGIEMany Men Competing for Places on Team to Represent Blue and White

Saturday, April 29, Coach Daly's tracksters go to Massachusetts Agricultural College to compete in a dual track meet with out rivals from the Bay State. As yet it is an uncertainty as to who will represent the Blue and White in the events of the meet.

Track is a comparatively new sport to the Connecticut Agricultural College but it is rapidly approaching a major sport style. The candidates for the track team have been practicing nightly for the last two months and although the number of men out is not extremely large, there is keen competition for places on the team. So hard have the men worked and so nearly alike are some of the men on the squad, that Coach Daly has not been able to pick and assign the men for the meet Saturday.

Little is known as to the strength of the Baystate outfit. Rumors reaching the Aggie camp state that Massachusetts has a strong team and will put up a hard battle, which Connecticut is prepared to meet.

INTERCLASS BASEBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Freshman Nine Looks Good in "Twilight League."

The interclass baseball schedule has been announced by Coach Guyer. There is to be a series of ten games to be run off in four of which the faculty will take a hand. This means that each team will play four games—one with each class and one with the faculty.

Although the outcome of the series cannot be positively pre-determined, it is obvious that the teams will have to display form if they are to show up the Frosh. The Junior class would have the edge on the other teams, but for the fact that it has so many men out for the varsity team. The other classes have less material from which to pick.

SEVEN WEEKS TO GO

We are rounding into the home stretch of the last lap, it is now a sprint to the finish.

To the college senior the last seven weeks bring a vague unrest, a pang of regret that this will be his last glorious spring on the Hill, a futile desire to forecast what Dame Fortune of the future has up her sleeve. The Junior probably sees but one series of events in the last few weeks that are worthy of attention. His thoughts center around Junior Week and he commences to wonder how much money it is going to take to show the girl a good time.

The seven weeks to come are going to be busy ones. In student activities we must revise the constitutions of the Student Council and the Mediator. The Dramatic Club is changing its constitution. The Campus has honorary fraternity activities on foot. Then we have baseball, track, Junior Week and finally the annual elections.

The Easter vacation gave relaxation, that, is, in the majority of cases. We should be in fine trim for the last dash. Let's move.

DO YOU KNOW THE NEWS?

You may pride yourself on your general capacity in college affairs and you may be hitting your college courses for a row of "A's", but if you do not keep in touch with the political, economic and other live issues of the day as they are divulged in the daily, weekly and monthly press, you are not functioning properly as a member of an institution of higher learning nor as one of the future active citizens of a great nation.

A great many students make no attempt whatever to look at the daily papers and the weekly and monthly magazines. These probably do not know that there is a conference at Genoa or that the big leagues have begun the annual race for the baseball pennant.

Other students cursorily consult the papers. These perhaps run through periodicals in the following manner: sports page, humorous column, cartoons, scandal articles. This sort of pastry should be taken as a desert to the main dish.

The escutcheon of the American press is not spotless by any means but that is no excuse for a collegian's lack of knowledge on vital topics and his disinclination to think around the big issues of the day.

THAT PROSPECTIVE STUDENT

The college is rapidly becoming known through the state for what it really is,—a state college for the training of men in agriculture, science, mechanical engineering and women in home economics; a college that turns out good athletic teams, that possesses professors of high standing, that is situated in a beautiful locality; a college that educates in life as well as in books.

We talk of publicity for the college. Sometimes without knowing what we are talking about, since there are many factors which enter into the publicity problem. However, one of the best methods of publicity which has been used and will be used to a greater and greater advantage, is that of personal publicity, carried on by undergraduates and alumni.

A student who has attended Connecticut can divulge its possibilities of service to the state by talking with friends in his community. He can lay open the treasure chest which he knows exists. He can increase the usefulness of the college by clearly and truthfully setting forth the purposes of the institution, its system and conditions.

Every undergraduate should operate in this fashion. Know your college and tell your information to the people of the state whom you believe can make use of it.

GOT A JOB?

The youthful rah-rah boy is now industriously hunting a job for the summer months. 'Tis rather a jobless world just now and the young collegian will just have to take what he can get.

Usually a freshman or a sophomore in college tries to obtain a position which offers the greatest financial return for his labors. "I'll do anything if there is enough 'jack' in it"; "I'm coming back with a 'sock' next fall," are some of the expressions of the vernacular which we hear about the campus.

Money is needed in collegiate life, to be sure. The fellow who comes back in the fall with a 'sock', a large amount of money in other words, is in an enviable position. However, there are other factors which are worthy of consideration, for instance, the occupational factor.

If you have come to college with an unsettled idea of what career you will eventually follow and you are unable to decide between several possibilities, there is no better time to experiment with one of them than the annual summer vacation. Practical

COUNCIL MAKES SEVERAL CHANGES IN ROAST RULES

Pig May be Roasted Partially Before Time of Roast Designated

A revised edition of the Pig Roast rules is being drawn up by the Student Council. The period has been changed from fifteen to seven days, a majority of the student body having signified the desire for a shorter period.

Regarding the roasting of the pig, the new rules may allow the pig to be partially roasted before hand, but may state that it must be roasted for one hour in the presence of the class, at the designated spot where it is to be eaten.

"No Freshmen can leave the five mile limit at any time during the banquet period" is another rule which will probably be incorporated into the regulations to prevent men from hiding in adjacent towns to escape capture.

The use of motor vehicles by either class will be prohibited.

The codfish aren't the only fish that frequent Codfish Falls.

With Junior week looming large in the offing, many studes went over the road at Easter vacation.

SAFETY VALVE

THE CO-ED WEEKLY

Dear Editor:

Much comment has been heard about that unseen article, supposedly in existence among the fair sex of our college—The Co-Ed Weekly.

Whether or not such a paper exists is the source of many arguments among the girls as well as among the fellows. This last points out the fact that something is radically wrong. Either a certain select few of the co-eds are posing as leaders of the aforementioned paper in an attempt to gain undue attention or if the paper really exists in the regions of Holcombe Hall that are unfrequented by the male portion of our college, we are privileged to consider it a "scandal sheet" or something in that class, for it dares not show itself.

The fact that only a select few of the girls believe in the paper or are aware of its existence strenghtens the fact that it is not representative of the co-ed body and therefore should be considered as something undesirable among them. If the already mentioned select ones are ashamed to show the publication among the co-eds what are we to think, and why do they pat themselves on the back as being connected with such a paper?

True, the co-eds have the right to print a paper for themselves if they wish, two or three of them for that matter, but they should either produce a sheet worthy of the eyes of all the girls, or if it must be run by a select few, they should consider the matter a deep, deep secret and not a source of pride.

VARSITY CLUB DANCE HELD LAST SATURDAY

Letter Men of College Give Annual Dance in Hawley Armory

As a fitting celebration for the victory of the baseball team over Massachusetts Aggie on Saturday afternoon the dance given by the Varsity Club in Hawley Armory Saturday evening was attended by sixty couples. The College Orchestra of six pieces furnished music for a program of sixteen numbers including two moonlights. The proceeds of the affair will be used in paying the debt caused by the football banquet.

Coach and Mrs. J. W. Tasker, Professor and Mrs. Henry Dorsey and Professor and Mrs. A. W. Manchester were patrons and patronesses for the occasion.

During the Easter vacation a small grass fire started in the West Orchards of the College and threatened to do considerable damage until the baseball squad turned from the national pastime to put out the blaze, which was kept from doing damage.

The Best Business Career

Is what every ambitious senior is thinking about at the present time.
Life insurance is one of the best, one of the most desirable, and one of the most satisfactory as a permanent calling.

In assets and volume of business, life insurance is one of the three leading businesses of this country, yet the field is comparatively under-developed.
Only 7 per cent of the economic value of human life in the United States is covered by insurance. This gives an idea of the big field still to be worked, especially business insurance for firms and corporations.

As to remuneration: Reports of college graduates who have entered business indicate that life insurance is at the very top as a source of income.
Now is the time for you to consider what you are going to do after graduation. If you are ambitious and willing to work hard and are interested to know about life insurance, address

The first newspaper contest ever held in Connecticut will take place here at the annual meeting of the Connecticut Editorial Association, on July 29th, according to the plans made by the society at a special meeting held in Wethersfield last week.

Several special features are arranged for the meeting, the chief of which are a dinner entirely of Connecticut grown food, and the weekly newspaper contest.

Ribbon prizes are to be given to the first, second and third successful contestants in the following classes:

Best balanced paper—proportion of advertising to news and editorial.

Best first page—topography and news.

Best editorial.

Best home set advertisement.

Best newspaper letterhead. (Designed and printed in home shop)

Two copies of the issue to be entered in any one event must have been printed between January 1 and April 22 of this year and are to be sent to Mr. Walter Stemmons prior to the contest. All anniversary, holiday or "special" issues are barred from the contest as well as all but the weekly and semi-weekly papers of the state.

PROMINENT STUDENTS CONFINED TO HOSPITAL

During the Easter vacation Alfred Crofts and Frank Williams were taken seriously ill and had to be removed to the Willimantic Hospital, where they are now confined.

Williams was stricken with attack of appendicitis and after an operation is slowly recovering.

Inflammatory rheumatism was the cause of Mr. Crofts' breakdown. Although he is very ill at the present time and will be unable to return to college this year he is slowly recovering.

PROF. DODGE ADDRESSES
HARTFORD HIGH SCHOOL

On Wednesday, April 26, Professor Dodge addressed the 2700 students of Hartford High School in two addresses, one at 8:30 in the morning, the other at 1:15 in the afternoon. His topic was "Plant Life and Human Life." In his talk Professor Dodge outlined the possibilities for life work as producers, teachers and experimenters. Points discussed included the relation between agriculture, forestry and business, showing that a man does not have to be going into agriculture to be interested in it or to attend an agricultural college.

The report of the Connecticut Pomological Society for 1920-21 carries a full page cut of Professor Stevens, president of the society for the year, as the front piece. The book is illustrated with views taken by Mr. Manner of events during the field day of the society that was held here last summer.

APPOINTMENT COMMITTEE WORKS FOR SENIORS

Alumni and Men of Graduating Classes Aided in Securing Positions

Assistance in locating positions is offered Connecticut seniors and alumni through the formation, about one year and a half ago, of a Graduate Appointment Committee consisting of Dean W. L. Slate, chairman, and Professors H. L. Garrigus and A. W. Manchester.

As the work of the committee becomes better organized and as experience is gained, it hopes to offer a real and valuable service to any senior or graduate who wishes aid in securing positions. Those who wish the services of the committee are supposed to register with it, in order that the work of locating positions will be facilitated. During the past year the committee has aided about twelve of the alumni and about one-half of last year's senior class.

Giving examples of the service the committee has rendered, Dean Slate states that it was instrumental in locating two men in county agent positions in New Hampshire last year. Also the committee recommended two men for the position of pomologist with a large chemical company manufacturing sprays; the positions offering a salary of $5,000 and considerable chance for advancement if the man was qualified.

This spring the committee has sent a letter to the High School principals of the state, informing them of the existence of the committee and stating the lines of work Connecticut graduates are qualified to follow. This letter follows:

To the Principal:

In connection with your work of filling positions in your faculty for the coming year, you will be interested in knowing that there are well trained young men and women at Connecticut Agricultural College, who expect to go into teaching positions in High Schools.

Naturally, the majority of our graduates now teaching are in Agriculture and Home Economics, but we have a considerable number who are handling the sciences with credit. You may also be interested in the fact that we maintain an efficient department of physical Education and that many of our graduates are prepared to handle this work.

If you care to have us make nominations for positions you have to fill, kindly write, indicating in detail your specific needs.

Trusting that this committee may be of service to you, we are,

Yours very truly,

JUNIOR WEEK PLANS NEARING COMPLETION

With Junior Week less than three weeks away, the Executive Committee and the various sub-committees are rapidly shaping plans into their final form for Connecticut's greatest social event of the year.

"It Pays to Advertise" is the play to be presented by the Juniors on Saturday evening, May 20. The Peerless Orchestra will furnish the music during the play and for dancing after the play. The price of tickets for the evening, which includes both the play and dancing, will be 75c. The committee in charge of the Junior Prom is arranging for the orchestra. Dancing will be from 8 P.M. to 2 A.M.

The general scheme of decoration for the Prom, as given by the chairman of the decoration committee, will be blue and white. Final plans for decorations are not yet completed. Programs for the Prom are ordered, according to Chairman Paul Steere of the Prom Committee.

The committee in charge of the Tea Dance, to be held Saturday afternoon, May 20, is arranging to have the Peerless Orchestra furnish the music for dancing.

EXCHANGES

The enrollment at John Hopkins University shows an increase of about 400 students over the preceeding year according to statistics recently published in the John Hopkins News-Letter.

Dr. H. A. Lorentz, professor of physics in the University of Leyden, Holland, and co-worker of Einstein, recently addressed the faculties and Science and Western Reserve University students of Case School of Applied City. The subject of his talk was "The Bearing of the Theory of Relativity on Optical Phenomena."

The school of Citizenship at Trinity has met with great success. "Do not misconstrue this clipping."

Swasey, who coached Worcester Tech in basketball last year, is now coaching the New Hampshire State baseball team.

Trinity is gradually modifying the traditionary underclass mela, which was accustomed to break out on St. Patrick's day.

Last Thursday night New Hampshire students were entertained by forty boxing matches arranged by Coach H. W. Cohen.

LOCAL SPEAKERS AT COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

Need of Trophy Room Discussed by Faculty and Students

Connecticut's Trophy Room, its History, Development, Needs and Place in Student Life, was the subject at President's Hour yesterday. Talks were given by Dr. E. W. Sinnott and Dr. H. K. Denlinger of the faculty, and Paul Putnam, '22, representing the student body.

Giving something of the history of the room, Dr. Sinnott told how, two years ago, the present trophy room in Hawley Armory was converted from a class room at a cost of about $250, to serve as a place of meeting for student committees, and the various student organizations. The room at present, said Dr. Sinnott, is a poor place for trophies; and in order to fill its place as a student center, it needs furnishings such as rugs, curtains, another table, magazines, and a good trophy case.

The room at present, said Mr. Putnam, is about half done, and has been in that condition for two years of its existence as a trophy room. Mr. Putnam told of the need at Connecticut of a place that can be used as a lounging room, and for student gatherings; but more important than these is the need of a room for visiting teams. This latter point, said the speaker, is an urgent need on the "hill", and the trophy room would fulfill this need. Mr. Putnam likened the trophy room to a Hall of Fame for Connecticut's athletic trophies.

Dr. Denlinger summed up the need of such a room by stating three reasons why contribute to that cause. First, said he, the room would be a symbol of social unity on the "hill"; second, it would act as a center for the community and religious activities of the college, and third, it is a prophecy of that greater thing that Connecticut will some day have, a College Union.

GOLF ENTHUSIASTS OUT IN FULL FORCE NOW

Six-hole Course to be Completed in Near Future

In past years the followers of "pasture pool" have been numerous on the Hill, many students and faculty members being excellent golfers and keenly missing the dearth of playing facilities on the Hill. In order to somewhat alleviate this need and provide some means of keeping in trim a three hole course was laid out last year in the field opposite the Apiary. During the present season further improvements have been made and if present plans materialize three more holes will be added.

Putting and driving contests occur daily on the putting green in front of the Main Building and a tournament to be open for all those interested in golf is planned for the near future. Already members of an informal club number twenty-five and the coming year promises to be a banner one for golf at the college.

The Willimantic Chamber of Commerce has accepted an invitation to hold a Field Day at the College on June 29. The affair will be for the business men of Willimantic. A program of entertainment is being arranged.

Student Executive Committee: Arthur Frostholt, chairman, Paul Putnam and "Moe" Daly; Faculty Executive Committee, Prof. Kirkpatrick, chairman, Mr. Manchester and Mr. Patch; Girls Executive Committee, Miss Bennett, chairman, Miss Wattie and Miss Hamilton.

A great amount of improvement can be made on the campus grounds. The bleachers are badly in need of repair and it is probable that a number of men will be detailed to fix them. The hockey equipment is still floating in "Swan Lake" and some of the would-be fishermen will be allowed to show their skill in this sport by removing the rink from the pond. The tennis courts need work done upon them and it has been suggested that a road be laid on the north side of the athletic field. The cinder walks about the campus need raking off and a new one is to be laid between Koons Hall and the Dining Hall.

These are only a few of the things that can be done to improve the looks of the campus. Rubbish by the wagon load will be carted away and everyone will feel proud of the appearance of the campus when the Junior Week visitors begin to arrive. Every member of the student body will have something to do and work will be found to keep everyone busy for eight hours.

Supper will probably be served out doors again this year and also a dance in the Armory in the evening as was the case last year. With the full cooperation of both the students and the faculty a great deal can be accomplished and the student body is looking forward to this big day of work and to the fun that necessarily accompanies it.

ROOM APPLICATIONS TO BE FILED AT ONCE

In regard to the assignments of rooms for the coming college year the Secretary's office has made the following announcement:

Students who intend to be in college next year should call at my office for room application blanks and return them properly filled out before May 1st.

It is important that every group of students should put down on its application a large number of choices in order of preference. If this is not done, it sometimes happens that an application is thrown out altogether because no one of the choices mentioned is available. In that case, before a new application can be filed, most of the desirable rooms have been assigned.

G. S. TORREY, Secretary.
