RIVAL ELEVENS READY FOR GRAND FINALE

BLUE AND WHITE ARE FAVORITES OF CONTEST

Connecticut has More Veterans in Line-up for Traditional Gridiron Contest.—Hundreds of Alumni and Visitors to Watch Rival Colleges Vie for Supremacy.

Connecticut and Rhode Island will meet Saturday on Gardner Dow Field for the fifteenth gridiron clash between the two colleges. Interest in the contest is at white heat both at Kingston and on the Hill, for the men from "Rhody" have been the Aggies' keenest rivals in football since the beginning of hostilities in 1897.

To date, each college has captured six games with two resulting in a tie which makes the battle of Saturday all the more interesting to the Aggie rooters who are anxious to see the tide turn for Connecticut and wipe out the defeat of last year.

The Connecticut Team

At present there is considerable speculation as to what will be the exact line-up of the Aggies when the initial whistle blows on Saturday. The team came through the St. Stephens' game in good condition with the excep-

NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED TO ATTEND BANQUET

FOOTBALL MEN TO BE HONORED AT FEAST

Prominent Men to Speak.—Former Secretary of College Will be Toastmaster.—Banquet Starts at Seven-Thirty.

Seating accommodations at the Football Banquet have been provided for 340 people, the largest attendance at any banquet yet held on the Hill. E. O. Smith of Philadelphia, former secretary of the College, will act as toastmaster. He will introduce as speakers President C. L. Beach, Prof. A. G. Manchester, Coach J. W. Tasker, Captain M. F. Daly, and one or two members of the Alumni Association. It was expected that "Vic" Aubrey of the New York Association, would be one of the Alumni speakers, but a telegram from him states that it will be impossible for him to attend.

The committee in charge had endeavored to get Lieut.-Gov. Templeton as one of the speakers, but previously arrangements for that day prevent him from coming. Music will be provided by the College Orchestra. The Connecticut Glee Club will lead the singing but will not present a separate program. The Orchestra will be placed beneath the portrait of Prof. Monteith.

ADVANCED STATISTICS FAVOR BLUE AND WHITE

CONNECTICUT PLAYERS OPPOSED HEAVIER TEAMS

Many Veteran Players to Appear on Both Teams. — Connecticut Has Scored More Points Than Rhode Island Rival.

In comparing records and statistics of the Connecticut and Rhode Island teams for advance "info" on the coming contest, Connecticut has by far the most impressive record of the two elevens. Playing a hard schedule of nine games with some of the leading teams of the east the Aggies have come through with two wins, one tie and five defeats. Three of these losses came at the hands of Maine, Tufts and Springfield, all much larger institutions than Connecticut. In each of these contests the Aggies put up a stiff battle against heavy odds. To date Connecticut has scored 70 points to its opponent's 94, which is far better than Rhode Island has done playing against weaker teams.

Rhode Island has played six games with two wins and four defeats. "Rhody's" eleven has succeeded in winning over the Coast Guard Academy and Delaware, neither of whom can be considered of great importance. On the other hand Rhode Island lost

DETAILS ARRANGED FOR MONSTROUS REUNION

PEP FEST WILL BE HELD NIGHT BEFORE THE GAME

Waterbury Drum Corps and Students to Parade in Willimantic Before the Game.—Many Alumni and Visitors Expected.

With everything in final readiness for the big Alumni Reunion and the biggest football game of the season, the only element of uncertainty is the kind of weather the Weather Clerk will issue for that day. Committee plans are completed to the last detail, tickets for the football banquet are selling like hot cakes, alumni from all over the state are planning to return to this big event of the year, and all that is needed to make the event a huge success is a perfect football day.

Plans have been made by the committee to care for one thousand Connecticut supporters. The Waterbury Drum Corps will leave Waterbury early Saturday morning. On their way to the College they will stop at Willimantic, and, under the direction of A. J. Brundage, '10, Secretary of the Alumni Association, who will have a squad of students to assist him, a short parade will be staged as a means of interesting Willimantic people in the game. Placards will be carried in

SNAPPY ST. STEPHENS ELEVEN HOLDS AGGIES

VISITORS TIE SCORE WITH AERIAL ATTACK

Hurley and Berry Score Connecticut Touchdowns. — Deloria's Forward Passing Features. — Final Score Reads Twelve All.

Displaying a brand of aerial attack seldom seen on Gardner Dod Field last Saturday, the scrappy St. Stevens eleven fought a 12—12 tie with Capt. Daly's crew in an uncertain but interesting contest. The St. Stevens men played clean and well but their defense was weak and the Aggies broke through for numerous long gains. The accurate forward passes of Deloria, a full-blooded Indian, were the main causes of their showing.

Aggies Score First

The first tally was made when Berry receiving a punt in the middle of the first quarter, executed one of his speedy broken field runs and brought the ball back thirty yards to midfield. A ten yard end run by Berry, helped by two line plunges gained a first down. By the aid of effective line rushes by Makofski, Hurley and Ryan, another first down was made. Hurley carried the ball across the remaining four yards for a touchdown. Eddy's kick from placement was blocked.

For the rest of the quarter the ball was played back and forth in the vicinity of the center of the field.

ALEXANDER MEMBER OF ALL-NEW ENGLAND FIVE

VARSITY CAPTAIN IS GIVEN FORWARD BERTH

New England College Coaches Pick Sectional Basketball Team.—Two Springfield Men in Guard Positions.

Captain Louis A. Alexander of the 1921-22 basketball team is rated as All-New England forward for the past season in a mythical "All" team chosen by fifteen New England college coaches and published in the new edition of Spalding's basketball guide. Alexander, considered one of the greatest forwards in college basketball, is ready to play his fourth and last season for the blue and white. "Alex" prepared at Crosby High School, where he started as an all-around athlete.

No other members of last year's Aggie quintet were placed, although it is hard to understand how Captain "Phil" Lord was not mentioned for either the first or second team. Lord played brilliantly in the back court all season. Like Alexander, he is in his fourth year here. The fifteen coaches ranked Springfield as the leading five of New England, with Holy Cross second, and Connecticut third. In commenting on this ranking Oswald Tower states that all three teams have just claims to the title, but that he, personally, is not ready to say which should have the award. In other words the above rating is by no means sure,

MASS. AGGIE TWO YEAR MEN DOWNED BY AGGIES

BAY STATERS OUTCLASSSED BY IRREGULAR ELEVEN

Blue and White Scrubs Gain Victory With 11 to 6 Score—Swem is Individual Star of Game.

Connecticut seconds were victorious in the game with the two year men at the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Many of the second string men were kept home for the game with St. Stephens thus weakening the team considerably. New men who had been out for only a week and the showing made against the heavy two-year men was redoubtable.

Both teams made a touchdown in the second quarter. Bangs, the sturdy Bay State quarterback made a forty yard broken field run after intercepting a forward pass. Swem evened the score by intercepting a forward pass from Mass. Aggie and running fifty yards for a touchdown.

Neither team scored again until the last half when the Bay Staters held the seconds for downs on the one yard line. Mass Aggie was forced to punt from behind their own goal line and the Aggie backs rushed in and broke up the punt, netting the Aggies two points on a safety. The ball was taken to the thirty yard line and Radowich immediately added three more points on a drop kick, leaving the Blue and White leading 11 to 6.

The seconds played three quarters

SPECTACULAR GRID CONTEST SCHEDULED

SOPHS AND FROSH TO CONTEST FOR HONORS

Both Teams Hard at Work and Confident of Victory.—Officials will be of Highest Order.—Several Practices Held.

Negotiations have been opened with Tom Thorp, Columbia; Walter Eckersall, Chicago; Carl Reed, Springfield; Al Sharpe, Yale; and several other leading football officials of the United States, by Manager McAllister of the sophs and Manager Wardle of the freshmen, cooperating with the department of physical education of the Connecticut Agricultural College, in an attempt to get the best possible officials to handle the biggest football classic of the season, the game between the sophs and the freshmen. It is felt by those in high authority that the officiating in other years has been rather lax, and Manager McAllister says that there shall be no repetition of last year's fiasco when his team lost one game, which with proper officiating they could have won easily.

The sophomores, with their vast experience and training should win the game easily, says Manager McAllister, but Manager Wardle, when told of this said, "Ah! But he forgets that we are fresh from the outer world, with all that store of knowledge gained in high school and as yet untainted by

CONNIE SAYS

"Shop Early for Christmas," both in the city and at Storrs. The State College Store is featuring very attractive Christmas gifts in the line of jewelry, which will go big with the girl or man at home. In order to co-operate as much as possible with prospective purchasers a discount of fifteen per cent will be given on all jewelry purchased between the dates of November 18 and 26.

There are countless varieties to choose from and a gift for each and every individual. Popular at this time of the year are the monogrammed Waldemars, college rings and watch charms. For the fair sex there is a wide variety of rings, vanity cases, bar pins and many other articles dear to a feminine heart.

Look them over and rate a "big drag" after Santa Claus opens his sack.

Numerous fountain pens have been lost during the present year and the unfortunate losers will have an excellent opportunity to replace their lost weapon at a minimum cost, for a new supply of all the latest styles and designs has recently been received at the local emporium.

The new John Hancock cartridge filler model is the latest word in a fountain pen and sales have been phenomenal. Just slip in the cartridge and the pen is ready for work. Now selling at $5.00 and a world beater. Moore's well known line will be complete at prices ranging from $2.50 to $7.00. Your roommate is using his pen when you want to borrow it so get one of your own. It's a necessity for a college man.

"Get Rich Quick Wallingford," will be shown in Hawley Armory, Saturday night. Current Events and dancing will add to the program of the evening.

A FRESHMAN DORMITORY

The discussion, pro and con, as to how much the freshmen study, and the enforcing of certain disciplinary rules that would benefit the underclassmen, that has been evident in the past has developed into a discussion as to whether or not a freshman dormitory should be established at Connecticut.

If such a dormitory was established regular study hours, perhaps from seven-thirty to nine-thirty, would be enforced. During this period freshmen would be compelled to stay in their rooms and quiet and order would prevail, in place of the hubbub that often makes itself evident at the present time. There would be no unnecessary or annoying disturbances from upperclassmen who are visiting and gossiping or who wish to loiter in the room. The freshmen would be given a far better opportunity to study and to obtain good marks during their first year. This would mean that when they become sophomores they would "know the ropes" and would be ready to participate in activities and at the same time be sane enough to do the necessary amount of studying in order to obtain creditable marks.

It is true that the freshmen obtain much valuable information from their upperclass roommates or those who room across the way. It is also true that these same upperclassmen are very often a source of annoyance to the freshmen who intend to study and work hard to get the most out of his college career. Often these upperclassmen may be a drag upon a well-intending freshman and in the end they are the chief result of a downfall in grades at which point history repeats itself and the unfortunate frosh is no longer an Aggie man.

The freshmen are able to meet the upperclassmen on the campus many times each day, or in the fraternity houses or rooms, or in the dormitories when study hours are not in force, at which times they would benefit by the acquaintances fully as much as if they roomed with the upperclassmen.

STANDARD FRESHMEN
CAP TO BE ADOPTEDCLASS COLORS ARE TO BE STANDARDIZED ALSO

Three Sets of Colors to Exist.—Freshmen Will Not Receive Colors Until June.—Tradition Will be Part of Commencement Exercises.

A standard freshman cap and standard set of class colors were adopted at the regular meeting of the Student Senate last Monday night. The standard freshman cap of Connecticut is to be a skull cap of Connecticut Blue, with a green visor and a white button.

Three sets of class colors will be in evidence on the campus in the future. Only two colors will be allowed on a banner and a design of the banner must be submitted to the Student Senate for ratification before it is adopted by the class.

Beginning next year the freshman class will not receive their colors until Commencement time when the graduating class will present their colors to the freshmen. As the present freshmen have already adopted green and white, the colors of 1922, they will be allowed to retain them. As a part of the Commencement exercises, the colors of the present seniors, orange and black, will be given to the freshmen in order to establish the tradition. The colors of black and orange will then pass out of existence on the Hill.

The sets of colors that will continue as the standard class colors of the college will be: Green and White, Purple and Gold, colors of the present sophomores, and the junior colors of Orange and Black.

CLASS COLORS

With the adoption of the proposed system of class colors suggested by the Student Senate there will be but three sets of colors existing on the Hill at any one time.

Although the freshmen will be without class colors until Commencement they will know just what the colors are to be and the banner can be designed and approved by the Senate and may be ready for distribution to the class on Commencement Day or as soon as college opens in the fall.

The handing down of the colors by the seniors to the frosh at Commencement time is one of the exercises of the day at many large colleges throughout the country, and it will add greatly to the Commencement exercises at Connecticut, which are rather lacking in formalities and student traditions.

With the housing situation as it now stands on the campus the establishment of a freshman dormitory could be easily accomplished. A proctor would be appointed for the study hours and demerits issued for breaking the prescribed rules. A certain number of demerits would mean the expulsion of the offender from the dormitory. A freshman dormitory once established would do much good work for the college as a whole and would be the salvation of many students.

ACTIVITY POINT SYSTEM
PROPOSED BY SENATESCHEDULE DEvised TO PREVENT OVERLOADING

Student Senate Bases Division of Activities on Amount of Time Each Requires.—Seven Points is Maximum for any one Time.

In order to prevent men from so overloading with activities that they do little or nothing to warrant their holding an office, as has often been the case in the past, the Student Senate has drawn up a point system which limits the number of activities a man may participate in at any one time. The division of all the more important college activities into groups with regard to the amount of time required is the basis of the system. Seven points has been set as the maximum in order that a man may do justice to the activities he wishes most to take part in and to his studies at the same time. The groups and the number of points for each follow:

Group I—Five Points

All major sports—men in squad and manager
Editor of the Campus
Editor of the Nutmeg
Business Manager of the Nutmeg

Group II—Three Points

Dramatic Club Play—actors and managers.
Managing Editor of Campus
Associate Editor of Campus
Director of Press Club
Members of Debating Team
Presidents of Student Senate
Chairman of Ag. Club Fair Committee
Chairman of Junior Week Executive Committee

Group III—Two Points

Remaining members of Campus Board
Remaining members of Nutmeg Board
Editors and Managers of Handbook
Student Senate Members
Chairman of committees for three big dances
Vice-President of Ag. Club
President of Athletic Association
President of Ad Club
President of Debating Club
Assistant Managers of sports—during season.

Group IV—One Point

Class Treasurers
Members of committees for big dances, Ag. Club, etc.
Class Presidents
President of Mediator
President of Theta Alpha Phi

SAFETY VALVE

WHY?

To the Editor of the Campus:

It is easy to make a promise, but hard to keep one.

When the World War ended four years ago, a momentary hush came, followed by a flare of acclaim which rocked the country. The victorious soldiers were cheered and orated; then the nation resumed its normal life. Gradually the men in khaki were forgotten. Sixty odd thousand of them are where they can never feel this, but scores of thousands more know the sting.

"... While the world of gain and appearance and mirth goes on, so soon what is over is forgotten, and waves wash the imprints off the sand . . ."—Walt Whitman.

At the Connecticut Agricultural College last Saturday no holiday was granted, no exercises (the outward sign of gratitude) were held, not even a moment during the day was set apart for a concerted personal tribute to the men who died in the World War.

WHY?

(Signed) Armistice Day.

HARTFORD FAIR EXHIBIT
PLANNED BY COLLEGE

The exhibit from the College at Hartford Winter Fair will include the work of the College, the Experiment Station and the Extension Service, as usual, but they will all be grouped under the college in order to focus attention on the College as the center of all the activities, and to get the College more firmly impressed in the minds of the people of the state.

One of the features of the exhibit will be a large map of Connecticut, showing the extent and distribution of clubs and localities in the state having a definite program of agriculture. The work will be indicated by stickers on the map; Blue standing for Agriculture, Red for Club Work, and Gold for Home Economics. The map shows a strong program of work, well distributed throughout Connecticut.

Professor G. C. White, Professor of Dairying, has for some time been an associate editor of the "Journal of Dairy Science," and recently Professor Fischer, also of the Dairy Department, has been appointed an associate editor of this journal. Connecticut is particularly fortunate in having two men on this board, which is made up of the most capable men in all branches of dairy science throughout the States.

So far as possible the Extension Department is endeavoring to hold demonstrations and programs on farms owned or operated by former Connecticut Aggie students to show people what the graduates of this institution are actually accomplishing.

the conflicting influences of college life. May the best team win, as long as it is the freshmen." The fiery manager of the sophomores must have forgotten that story which all school children should be taught as soon as they can walk. The great story of William Jennings Bryan, who has been the dark horse in the presidential race for the last five elections. Who thought that the silver-tongued orator would ever become president? Who thinks that the class of '26 will win the game? But we will surprise the doubters as Bryan did. We are the "dark horses." Time will tell the winner." With this the busy man turned back to his desk, signifying that the interview was at an end.

Mr. Guyer was found busily making out grades for the sophomore class in physical education but he generously gave up his work to tell a few of the humdrum details. He says he has decided that all members of each class except those making their letters in football, the co-eds, and those whose record in Mr. Torrey's office is unsatisfactory, will be eligible to play. Mr. Guyer says he expects to stage the game on Monday, November 27th, and that he is going to request the faculty to continue the present "Daylight Saving" schedule to that day so the two teams can play by daylight. Mr. Guyer says that judging by former class games it would be unsafe to play after dark because in the excitement of play somebody might produce a blackjack and swing is lustily.

Manager McAllister has already had his team practicing twice behind locked gates. There is practically no danger of the freshmen getting wise to the upperclass signals as Quarterback Houston, '25, is going to give the signals in English, a language that the freshmen have not yet mastered. It is probable that Herb Eyre, former Woodbury High star, will be over the ball for the sophs, with "Red" Malumphy, the whirlwind from Ansonia, and Follett on either side of him. "Red" McAllister and "Swede" Johnson, both of whom performed at Middletown High, will be in the tackle position. "Red" Thompson, pride of East Hartford, and "Red" Boyd, have been engaged to hold down the end positions in order that there may be a majority of auburn-haired men on the team. In the backfield will be "Wally" Houston at quarter, Tracy Swem and "Petey" Balock at halfbacks, and Makofski at full back. It is rumored that "Petey" has been getting in condition by peeling strong onions at the Book Store Lunch, while "Mac" spent his summer chasing snails in Schenectady.

Manager Wardle says he will not announce his lineup until after the game, as he expects to bring out a lot of new material. At a secret class meeting held at the horse barns, the radical element in the class won out and instead of Bryan's famous "sixteen to one" the slogan of "fifty-four forty or fight" has been adopted as the freshman motto for the game.

BEAT RHODE ISLAND

WORK ON WIRELESS STATION IS DELAYED

Work on the wireless has been held up by a motor generator which on first test was found to be defective, having an open field, necessitating its return to the manufacturers for repairs. The generator was 1000 volt, having a capacity of one kilowatt.

The outside work is complete, leaving detailed work inside to be finished before the station is ready for operation.

MILITARY HOP WILL BE HELD IN JANUARY

The date of the eagerly anticipated Military Hop has been postponed until January, because the original date in December conflicts with the Freshman-Sophomore Pig Roast, and the varsity debate with New Hampshire State at Durham.

(Cont. from page 1 col. 1) tion of "Red" McAllister, who will be out the rest of the season with a dislocated arm. "Mac" has been playing a snappy game and were it not for the fact that Coach Tasker has excellent reserves to call upon, his loss would be keenly felt. It is also improbable that "Archie" Cohen will be able to play as he has not fully recovered from injuries received in the Providence game.

Captain Daly will be at fullback, playing his last game for the Blue and White, and can be depended upon to smash through the Rhode Island line for consistent gains. "Marty" Ryan will no doubt hold down one of the half back positions and playing in the form he has displayed all season, should be a big factor in the Aggie offense. The other halfback position will be a matter of conjecture, with Makofski and Hurley as probable choices, with Sneiderman in reserve. "Bob" Berry will be at quarter and is sure of catching punts and speedy running will prove another menace to Rhode Island. Moreland has been working this week at end and may be given a chance to play at this position with the alternative that he will be held as a reserve quarterback.

The Connecticut line, which has proved impregnable against opposing attacks, is in condition and Rhode Island will not be likely to gain at all through the veteran players who compose the first line of the Nutmeg defense. "Mac" Eddy will be at his usual place at left end. Eddy is a fast man in getting down the field and strong on the defense. With "Jerry," another senior playing his last game, after four years of varsity football, at left guard and "Red" O'Neil at tackle, the left side of the line will be heavy and fast. Patterson at the pivot position, Prentice at tackle and Ashman guard will also don their togs for the last time under the Aggie flag and these three veterans of many a hard fought battle can be counted on to close their football career with a creditable showing. Right end will probably be taken care of by Dunn, with Brink and Radovich in reserve. For replacement on the line "Fat" Sleichert will no doubt enter the fray, if he does not start, while "Cheese"

Eddy, with a wide experience, can be used at any line position. "Skipper" Bolan at guard closes the list.

Rhode Island Team

Rhody's selection for the big game has not been definitely made but from reports received from Rhode Island late Wednesday the probable lineup will be:

Left End	Kirby
Left Tackle	Perry, Captain
Left Guard	N. Smith
Center	Mead
Right Guard	Busk
Right Tackle	Clarke
Right End	Chandler
Quarterback	Haslam
Left Halfback	MacIntosh
Right Halfback	Tillinghast
Full Back	Johnson

Johnson is a veteran who was out of the game all season but will be in the game Saturday as his punting is one of Rhode Island's hopes. Reports state that Kirby and Chandler, ends, are fast men in covering punts but they will have their work cut out for them in getting under Eddy's long drives. Captain Perry and Clarke are veteran tackles and considered especially good in breaking through to smear plays behind the line, but the Aggie line doesn't let men do that often. Smith and Busk are heavy guards but scarcely heavier than Juralewicz or Ashman and have not had nearly as much experience. Haslam at quarter is a good general and will be supported by Tillinghast and MacIntosh at the halfback positions.

STUDENTS ENTERTAINED IN HOLCOMB HALL

Musicales to be Given on Alternate Sunday Nights

Many students enjoyed the hospitality of the co-eds at an at-home held in Holcomb Hall on Friday, November 10. Dancing was the order of the evening although several participated in the well known game of "Lotto", under the coaching and supervision of "Willie" Hawkes.

The fair ones of the College have adopted a new plan for entertaining and will, in the future, give a general at-home every four weeks instead of every two weeks as has been the custom this year. On other Friday evenings they will entertain their more intimate friends.

On Sunday evening, November 19, the first of a series of musicales will be given at Holcomb Hall. These musicales will be given throughout the winter on alternate Sunday evenings.

In the center of the room will be the speakers' table.

The work of decorating the dining hall is in charge of G. V. Hilldring, '23, who will be ably assisted by members of the freshman class. Fifty members of the football squad will be the guests of the evening. In addition there will be forty faculty members, 100 students, and 150 alumni, a grand total of 340. The banquet is scheduled to start at seven o'clock.

of the game under a big handicap. Captain Houston was forced to withdraw from the game at the beginning of the second quarter, leaving the team without a regular quarterback. Captain Donahue called signals from center and had the Bay Staters guessing for several minutes. Swem alternated with Donahue at quarter and the team managed to get along without a leader. Swem's tackling was an outstanding feature of the game. Radowich got off a number of long punts.

Lose Chance of Scoring
The second quarter was marked by brilliant individual runs by Ryan, Berry, Makofski, and Hurley but the advantage was never followed up. By this time the St. Stevens over-head work was in full swing but the repeated tries were fouled for the most part. At one time Ryan intercepted a forward pass and on the next play Hurley smashed the line for a fifteen yard gain. This brought the ball near the opponent's goal posts but the Aggies lost their chance for another score by a fumble on a trick play which gave St. Stevens the ball. Deloria, resorted to long and short forwards with gaining results until "Fat" Sleichert intercepted one just as the half ended.

Score Tied by St. Stephens
The second half opened by kicking to St. Stevens, who, playing the over-head game to the limit, succeeded in earning two first downs. Then Delorio threw a long forward to Kilby who ran for a touchdown, making the score 6-6. The kick from placement failed.

Connecticut Scores
In the kick-off to Connecticut, Ryan carried the ball back to the forty yard mark. Plunges by Hurley and Makofski resulted in a first down. The ball was fumbled and recovered by McAllister. Then Berry started on a wide end run which resulted in the second touchdown for Connecticut. The attempt at a placement kick failed.
Scoring Ends in Tie
St. Stevens kicked to Connecticut and a march down the field was begun

CHANGES WILL BE MADE IN DINING HALL HOURS

In order to carry out plans whereby the large number of alumni and visitors who will be on the Hill can be accommodated at meals, the dining hall hours for dinner and supper on the eventful day will be changed somewhat. The Rhode Island faculty will be well cared for by the "powers that be" of this institution. The regular dinner hour for the students will be at twelve o'clock. Supper will be served at five instead of five-thirty in order that the Hall may be in readiness for the hungry mob at seven o'clock, when the Football Banquet is scheduled to start.

Dr. H. K. Denlinger, of the English Department, addressed the freshman class last Wednesday night. Doctor Denlinger told the underclassmen of the meaning and traditional value of the Monteith portrait now hanging in the College Dining Hall.

by powerful line smashes by Daly, who replaced Ryan, and Hurley. On St. Stevens' thirty yard line the ball was fumbled.

In the last part of the fourth quarter St. Stevens began to gain territory by continued attempts at long forwards when Patterson intercepted one. St. Stephens held and recovered the ball, again resorting to forwards with but thirty seconds to play. Delorio hurled a long one to White who romped over the line with the tying count.

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

Rho! Rhode Island!

All set for the big day.

FIGHT!

The chief "trouble" with the "wild" young people of today is an overdose of the philosophy of Omar Khayyam and his modern prototype, Scott Fitzgerald.

For instance, Omar says:
"Oh Thou, who didst with Pitfall and Gin
Beset the road I was to wander in,
Thou wilt not with Predestined Evil round
Enmesh, and then impute my Fall to Sin!"

Levavi oculos meos in montes!

Co-ed "at-homes" are popular this year. Must be a reason.

The World War veterans who went to school Armistice Day proved that "the pen is mightier than the sword."

But then, the faculty enjoy teaching.

How much did we learn that morning, though?

GASOLINE GUS SAYS:

Whereas the upperclassmen don't have much use for them, it might be well for the sake of the freshmen to fix up a couple of drinking fountains in Storrs and Koons Hall.

The Book Store ought to get in a new supply of bromo-seltzer in the near future.

It's too bad there isn't a filling station nearer the college.

A bosom friend can't compete with a hip friend nowadays.

According to all prospects, there ought to be some good cheering at the Rhode Island game.

The British poet-laureate is supplied with Canary wine, but the Campus Philosopher has to lubricate his muse with plain ethyl acetate, etc.

FAMOUS QUARTET WILL APPEAR HERE SOON

The Suwanee River Quartet, America's finest colored quartet, will appear in the first of a series of entertainments to be provided by the Social Committee. This organization is in its twelfth year on the concert stage. During that time it has made an enviable reputation and has received no criticisms on its work.

This season past they filled one hundred and sixty-five consecutive dates, receiving one hundred percent score everywhere. It is one of the best door receipt attractions in the lyceum. Some courses paid their entire overhead by ticket sales for this company.

Their voices blend together beautifully. The present the plaintive, haunting melodies of the "Camp Meeting," the rollicking songs of the field and quarters, the sweet crooning lullabies and a little jazz. In addition, one of the quartet is an excellent reader. He offers numbers by the famous negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar. For variety the quartet introduces banjos, guitars and mandolins, changing from their white flannel suits to plantation costumes.

the parade by the students telling the "Willi" folks what the big noise is about.

The Pep Fest Friday night in Hawley Armory, under the direction of "Brub" Dow, '21, and "Phil" Dean, '22, will be the biggest on the Hill this year. Alumni and members of the squad will speak at that meeting. Freshmen will see the old Aggie spirit at its height.

The committee has planned to place ropes along the edge of the field, six feet from the side lines, to prevent the crowd from surging out on the field. A large number of the alumni as well as friends will attend the game in their cars, and a specially appointed traffic officer will handle traffic. Willimantic is expected to send a large delegation to the game.

Accommodations for those wishing to stay over night have been provided in Holcomb Hall for the women, and in the fraternity houses and the dorms for the men.

Faculty tickets for the game can be obtained from Paul L. Putnam, '22, or from the Treasurer's office up to Friday night.

Students and alumni will meet at the Main Building at 1:45 p.m. to form the parade that will march on to the field. There will be two sections in the line, one for students and one for the alumni. Blue and White Aggie pennants to be sold by L. G. Metelli and R. D. Brundage will add color to the gathering. A huge bonfire will be waiting for the torch after the game is over.

Judging from letters received, and from personal contact with various members, the Alumni are showing considerable interest in the reunion, game and banquet. Banquet tickets for the Alumni will be sold at the time the parade is formed.

The Aggies outplayed St. Stephens in every quarter but the brilliant playing was marred by costly errors.

The visitors had a well developed aerial attack and the way their full-back threw those forwards reminded the stand of "Ching" Hammill's performance along the same lines last year.

The Game of Games is Saturday and if ever YOU had any pep get out there and YELL.

The old team is out to erase the defeat of last year when the Aggies lost by one touchdown.

How much confidence "Rhody" has in her team will be evinced by the numbers on hand for the contest Saturday. Last year ninety percent of the Connecticut faculty and student body went to Kingston.

to St. Stephens by one point. True, it may be that the New Yorkers tied the Aggies, but the final score was no real indication of the strength of the contenders. Then again, Lowell Textile bested the men from Kingston in their last game. Trinity soundly walloped Lowell and was in turn defeated by Connecticut. Rhode Island has been able to score only 35 points against 35 registered by her rivals, showing that her offense has not been strong even against weaker teams.

Aggie Veterans

Connecticut will be able to throw a team composed almost entirely of seasoned veterans into the fray with a backfield averaging 160 pounds and a line averaging 180. Of the twenty men on the Aggies squad four are seniors, who have played on the varsity the whole four years. These men, together with several of last year's varsity, compose practically the entire team with the exception of two freshmen regulars and two sub ends.

Captain Daly with Ashman, Patterson, Juralewicz and Prentice will play their last game for Connecticut.

Rhode Island Veterans

Rhode Island has five veterans for the game but her team does not match the Aggies favorably in regard to either weight or experience. Johnson will play fullback but he has been out all season and his presence may not count for as much as it did in the contest of last year. Perry, Chandler, Kirby and Haslam are the other men who participated in the game a year ago at Kingston.

While statistics are upset very frequently and are at times unreliable, as all advance writers state, still they have, at least, some bearing on the outcome of a game and in the present situation seem to indicate that on Saturday eve Connecticut will be celebrating a decisive victory over her ancient and honored rival, Rhode Island.
