STATE COLLEGE PLAYERS GIVE FIRST LONG PLAY

WILDE'S FARCE TONIGHT

New Material Has Been Added to Repertoire.—Players Have Humorous Experiences in Journeys Around State.

This evening the State College Players will produce at the Armory what is considered the funniest farce ever written, "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde.

"If you miss it," says Prof. Secker-son, "you will have lost the chance of a lifetime. It is worth the price of admission just to see how naturally and gracefully Moore can fall on his knees and propose to a girl, or to hear Parker, in the role of Algy, ex- pound the gentle art of Bunburying."

Go to Willimantic

After a brief interruption of their activities for the purpose of preparing some new material, the State College Players resumed their journeying last week, and added a new chapter to the interesting history that has been in the making during the past six months. On Thursday, November 1, about four hundred Willimantic High School students greeted a performance of "The Trysting Place" with storms of laughter and applause; and on Friday evening, November 2, the audience that gathered in the auditorium of the new Windham School was equally appreciative and enthusiastic. At the latter place, the two plays that constituted the program were followed by a dance in which the Players participated; then the ladies of Windham greeted the entire company in a classroom and served a delicious luncheon of coffee, chicken sandwiches, and cake.

Varied Experiences

Some day the complete history of the Players and their doings will be recorded for the delectation of those who are interested in them—and it is to be hoped that everyone is interested. Then will it be known how Lawson acquired a flowing mustache at Pachaug; how, at the same famous place, Lawson and Moore heroically saved the Congregational Church by extinguishing an incipient conflagration with a huge kettle of coffee; how several members of the troupe won their spurs as barkers at the Wolcott Fair; how Littleworth became an auctioneer at Groton; how Miss Pierpont, as Mrs. Briggs, amazed all her friends and relatives by her display of histrionic talent.

Next week is the Rhode Island Special. Get your tickets early and be at the mass meetings.

AG CLUB TO HOLD BARNWARMING DANCE

ANNUAL FAIR ABANDONED

Farmers Will Hold Big Social Event December 8.—Harvest Queen to be Chosen.—Fair Will be Held in 1924.

At a Special meeting of the Ag. Club held the first of the month it was decided to drop the Ag. Club Fair for this year, as it was felt that the time was too limited for the production of a real exhibition. There was general sentiment however that this feature should not be left out permanently and a committee was appointed to look after next year's fair.

To Hold Barn Warming

Several novel substitutes were suggested in the discussion that followed; that of a barn warming meeting with the most approval. The idea comes to us from the University of Missouri, where it is one of the largest and best social events of the year. As no barn is available it will probably be held in the Armory on December 8, the night scheduled for the Agricultural Fair Dance. Rural costumes, a Harvest Queen, and numerous stunts are among the schemes being worked out by the committee in charge.

PI KAPPA DELTA TO INSTALL LOCAL CHAPTER

ANNUAL BANQUET AFTER

Faculty Members and Freshman Debating Team Will be Present.—L. E. Hickman of Harvard Law School Installing Officer.

As the "Campus" went to press the plans had practically been completed for the installation and banquet of the Connecticut Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, a national forensic fraternity having over seventy-five chapters.

The ceremony will take place Saturday evening. Mr. Leon E. Hickman of the Harvard Law School, who is to act as installing officer, will be met in Willimantic Saturday morning by Charles D. Christoph, E. J. Collins and Oscar D'Esopo, representing the local chapter.

Attend Games Together

After dinner the entire group to be initiated, consisting of Dr. Henry K. Denlinger, Mr. Charles D. Christoph, E. J. Collins, '23, Oscar D'Esopo, '25, William Hutton '25, Lawrence A. Loeb '26 and Samuel Wilkes ex-'26, together with Mr. Leon E. Hickman, the installing officer, will attend the football games on Dow Field in a body. Each member will wear a red carnation in his buttonhole, as this is the official flower of the fraternity.

Installation at 6:15

Following the games a brief recess will be declared, after which the candidates, together with four members of the faculty who have been invited to witness the ceremony, will be initiated and installed at 6:15 in the Faculty Club room.

Directly after the ceremony, the group, augmented by Malcom L. Stephenson, E. C. Mintz, and Louis Belden, speaking members of the freshman debating team, will go to the "Mary Anna" in Willimantic, where the first annual banquet of the local chapter will be held.

In inviting the members of the freshman debating team to be present, at its first banquet, the fraternity is establishing a precedent which it intends to follow out in future years. It is thought that this will interest outstanding members of the freshman class as regards debating in the fraternity, and in debate.

After the banquet, the following speeches will be made:

"Greeting": E. J. Collins, '25, president, Conn. Alpha.

Toastmaster: Dr. Henry K. Denlinger.

"What Pi Kappa Delta Has Meant to Me": Leon E. Hickman.

Debaters I Have Known": Prof.

1924 NUTMEG BOARD HAS ANNUAL STARTED

CLASS PICTURES TAKEN

Printing Contracts Ready for Signatures.—New Features to be Incorporated in Book.

According to C. J. Diemand, editor-at present has the class annual well in-chief of the 1924 Nutmeg, the board under way. Business manager T. J. Kennedy states that the subscriptions and advertisements are coming in good thus far.

Dedicated to "Prexy"

This year the book is to be dedicated to President Charles L. Beach who, the class feels, is one of the best friends that the student body of this college ever had, and who has worked unceasingly for the growth of the institution.

As to the actual work on the book, the printing contracts are ready to be signed; an early signature insuring an early start on the work. In about a week the faculty section will be finished and placed in the hands of the printer. Several new and distinctive features will be inaugurated in this year's Nutmeg in an endeavor to put it ahead of previous editions.

AGGIES TRIUMPH IN SECOND HOME GAME AND SMOTHER C. C. N. Y. 19-0

SWEM LEADS ATTACK WITH BRILLIANT RUNNING

Visitors Have Little Offensive Power.—Fumbles and Penalties Prevented a Much Larger Score.—Aggie Machine Shows Offensive Power.

Coach Dole's Aggie gridsters succeeded in rolling up only nineteen points against the weaker City College eleven last Saturday on Gardner Dow field before a large crowd of visiting alumni. The metropolitan eleven was helpless before the Aggie defense and was not dangerous at any time during the game. Three times in the first half and twice in the final period Connecticut advanced the ball far into New York territory but failed on the final dash.

Offense Gets Going

The long awaited Aggie offense broke out in the form of a spectacular demonstration of the driving power of the Blue and White backfield. Swem was the individual star of the game. Time after time, he reeled off over thirty yards and was responsible for the advances to the touchdowns. On the first play after the kickoff, Connecticut fumbled. City College recovered the ball, but kicked after three unsuccessful attempts on the Aggie stonewall. Connecticut replied with a punt which City College fumbled, allowing Swem to pick it up and tear off forty yards. Connecticut failed to put the ball over so City College secured the ball on downs.

Donahue Scores

The first quarter ended with no score but characterized by brilliant playing by the Nutmeg team. Connecticut started a battering offense in the second quarter which resulted in the first touchdown. In rapid succession the Aggie backs pierced the New York line for long gains. Donahue finally took the ball over, and Moreland failed to make the kick. For the rest of the second half, Swem and Donahue raced around end for long gains, but did not add another score.

At the beginning of the second half, Swem fumbled the kick-off which was

SIDELINES

Although the Rhode Island game at Kingston next week looms so large on the Connecticut football horizon as to obscure everything else, nevertheless none of should forget that one of the fastest college elevens going comes to Storrs tomorrow for the last home game.

Saint Stephen's always turns out a fast team which plays the open game. This year even more than last year they have distinguished themselves by the success they have shown with the aerial attack. When on the defensive the Aggies will have to be alert every minute for the long overhead heaves of Deloria, a full-blooded Indian, who is the Saint's best bet as a passer.

We know that schedule-makers face serious problems, but we are extremely sorry that St. Stephen's, a team which is playing here for the fourth successive year, and which has improved each year, will not, according to rumor, be on the Aggie schedule next fall.

If there is one game on the schedule which is a good one to watch, it is the game with the Saints. They always play clean and hard, and get off some spectacular work. And their record of recent years is all the more remarkable when we remember that they have only a little more than 100 students in the college.

The St. Stephen's-Connecticut games have resulted as follows:

1920 Conn. 63; St. Stephen's 0
1921 Conn. 21; St. Stephen's 0
1922 Conn. 12; St. Stephen's 12
Let's win again this year.

According to the way the teams from which players are selected for the Hartford "Courant's". All-Connecticut eleven are going this year (Williams, Springfield, Trinity, Wesleyan, and Connecticut) several Aggies should be on the mythical eleven when

INTERCLASS RUNNERS TO COMPETE NOV. 21

ANNUAL CROSS COUNTRY

Each Class and School Eligible.—Keen Competition Last Year.

The annual interclass cross country run is set for Wednesday afternoon, November 21, at four o'clock sharp, to start in front of the Armory.

The meet is open to all classes in the college and the School of Agriculture, the latter being considered as one class. Every year recently the classes have put out good teams making keen competition in the run; in fact, last year the first four men to finish the run represented each class, and all were within twenty-five feet at the finish.

Last year, this college put out a cross-country team that made a creditable showing at Rhode Island. This material is it impossible to put out this season, owing to the ineligibility of a team from the college, but if good prospects show up in the interclass run, a team will be assured for next year.

First Five Count

For this event the first five men from each class shall constitute the team, though any number of men may run. The more who enter, the better the run.

Although the matter of interclass cross country awards is up to each class, it is the opinion of the track manager that at least the first seven men to finish should get numerals, regardless of which class wins the meet.

UNDEFEATED FROSH PLAY LAST GAME

Team in Fine Shape for Contest.—Andrew Will Probably Start, Tho Bothered by Injured Ankle.

Connecticut's freshman team, which has yet to feel the sting of defeat, meets the strong team from the School of Agriculture at Mass. Aggie on Gardner Dow Field this afternoon.

So far the yearlings have played five games, of which they have won three and tied two. Their great defensive power is shown by the fact that they have only been scored on once.

If the frosh can come through today, they will have made a strong showing as the first freshman team ever to represent Connecticut.

The end positions are unsettled. There is a possibility that Vickers, who played well when he got into the

AGGIE FRESHMEN WIN BIG GAME 3-0

DEFEAT RHODY FROSH

"Sam" Andrew, Though Hurt, Boots Field Goal in Fourth Quarter Which Wins Game.—Work of "Rosey" Ryan Stands Out in the Line.

Winning their big game from the Rhode Island freshmen 3-0 on Dow Field last Saturday, the Connecticut yearlings continued their undefeated record. This was the first game between freshman teams of the two colleges, whose varsity teams have called their annual football contest the big game for 26 years.

Rhody Outplayed

The game was a desperate battle throughout, with the outplayed Rhode Island frosh fighting from the first sound of the whistle. Connecticut clearly had the edge on the Kingston team, whose backs could not pierce the powerful Aggie line. On the other hand, Connecticut sent its catapult, Reeves, together with the other backs, through the Rhody forwards for good gains.

Rhode Island kicked off, and Schofield immediately made it first down for Connecticut with a 17 yard dash. Later in the quarter Rhody intercepted two Conn. passes, but failed to gain on them.

Londonen, the Kingston quarterback, scooted around Glazier for 20 yards, which was the best run shown by a Rhody back during the game. The engineers failed to follow up this bid for a score, however, and lost the ball on downs. The Aggies started a steady drive down the field with a series of line bucks by Reeves and Palmer, only to have the whistle blow before they reached the goal.

A good deal of punting was resorted to by both teams in the third quarter. Ryan was playing a great game at tackle. Several times he broke thru and nipped a Rhody back before he reached the line.

Andrew Drop-Kicks for Only Score

Later in the third quarter, when it began to look as if the drives of the

FAST ST. STEPHEN'S TEAM HERE TODAY

AERIAL ATTACK EXPECTED

Aggies Prepared to Squelch Forward Passes of Opponents.—Practically Same Team That Beat C. C. N. Y. to Play.

After having sent the C. C. N. Y. eleven down to a 19 to 0 defeat, Coach Dole's gridsters will play their seventh game of the season Saturday when they take on the scrappy eleven from St. Stephen's. This game should be one of the best of the season as St. Stephen's is reported to have a fast team, capable of pulling off many spectacular plays. Their strongest attack is the forward passing game which they seem to have down to perfection. In a recent game with Worcester Tech. they gained about 360 yards with their aerial attack.

Defense for Pass

Coach Dole has been working hard this week with his men, a great deal of emphasis being put on the defensive forward passing game. The Aggie team will go on to Dow field ready to break up the forwards that the fighting ministers are sure to hurl.

Practically the same men who started the game last Saturday will start with the whistle against the 'Saints'. Brink and Dunn will be the wing men and M. Eddy and Nanfeldt will be the tackles. E. Eddy and McAllister will hold down the guard positions while Captain O'Neil will be in the center of the line. The backfield will be the same as last week with Donahue at full back, Moreland at quarter-back and Swem and Purple as half-backs.

Numbers of Men

For the benefit of the alumni and others who do not know all of the men on the team, the name and number of each man likely to get in the game Saturday follows: Captain O'Neil, 1; M. Eddy 5; E. Eddy 4; Longo 6; Bitgood 7; Nanfeldt 8; McAllister 9; Baker 10; Baylock 36; Purple 31; Brink 54; Dunn 53; Swem 40; Donahue, 41; Moreland 49; White 34; and Thomson 11.

Aggies would fall short of the goal-line and result in another scoreless tie, the break came. Near the Kingston goal, Vickers, a substitute end, blocked a punt, and Lorentzen recovered the ball. Although his injured ankle had been hurt earlier in the game, and he had an infected foot, "Sam" Andrew sent a perfect drop-kick over the bar from the 23 yard line, which proved to be the winning score for Connecticut.

Connecticut attempted five passes, of which two were intercepted, two incomplete, and one was successful. Rhody attempted three; one being intercepted, one incomplete, and one completed.

WHERE IS THE AGGIE SPIRIT?

The year on the Hill started off with a rush and everything seemed to augur one of the best years in the history of the college from the activity standpoint. The question at the present time seems to be, where has the spirit gone and what is the reason for its departure. There is no doubt but that it has departed and there is nothing to be gained in evading the issue.

Just for example, about one-third of the college turned out for a mass meeting and that meeting was for the purpose of supporting a fighting Aggie football squad. Again the Campus is in a bad situation, chiefly from the want of new material and lack of interest on the part of the student body at large.

This expresses the situation in a nutshell and the only thing for the student body to do is to locate the cause and to decide upon an antidote. It is a situation which faces every Connecticut man, and each and every one should face the issue and decide what is to be done to revive the old pep and enthusiasm, and do it quickly so that the entire student body will invade Rhode Island with that old Aggie fight which has never known a superior.

MASS MEETINGS

One of the means of obtaining enthusiasm for athletic contests is thru a mass meeting preceeding the game in question. This year these meetings have been poorly attended and the lack of interest has been noticeable. The football team is one of the best that has ever represented Connecticut and is entitled to the very best support that the student body can give.

Notwithstanding this half of the student body does not attend these meetings. In the future attendance will be taken and the names of those who neglect to appear will be posted on the bulletin board. Just what is the reason for the lack of interest does not seem to be apparent. It certainly is not the showing of the team. Thus it falls either on the student body or the cheer leaders. If these individuals are not capable of arousing pep they should be replaced by others who are more competent.

ALL ABOARD FOR KINGSTON

During the past week tentative plans for a special train to carry the Aggie rooters to Kingston have become a reality, and all that is necessary to make the trip a success is the cooperation of the student body. Three hundred tickets must be sold in one week in order to insure the special means of transportation.

Therefore it is essential that all desiring to go should purchase their ticket from a member of the committee at the earliest possible date. Decide to go NOW and pay your money at once. By so doing you will help to make the trip a success and at the same time save those in charge much unnecessary bother by not having the bulk of the work to do at the last minute.

Let's do the thing up brown and show the "Rhody" men that the Aggies support their team and are going to invade their campus one hundred percent strong.

COL. THOMAS J. DIXON
SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Col. Thomas J. Dixon of the War Department at Washington addressed the college assembly at President's Hour last Wednesday. Colonel Dixon is a nationally known speaker who has addressed some of the largest college assemblies in the country.

Colonel Dixon's subject was "Building a Greater America." In his talk he very artistically described a picture which is dedicated to those who fell in the world war, and this picture today hangs in the Pantheon in Paris. The mentioned picture represents every great battle, every distinguished person, and every noteworthy fact that has occurred during the war, either in words or in personages. Upon introducing America into his talk he stated that Germany won on the shores of N. Y. the first victory over America by sinking one of the first four transports namely the "Saratoga". However this did not discourage the Americans in the least for troops were being landed on foreign shores every day.

"MONTE CRISTO" SCREEN
SHOW FOR WEEK END

An all star cast featuring John Gilbert will be found in "Monte Cristo", the movie to be shown in Hawley Armory Saturday evening. Human interest, tragedy, surprise, marvelous photographic effects and all the best qualities of the big special are packed into this screen version of one of the most gripping melodramas of all time.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR
GO-TO-CHURCH SUNDAY

ALL GROUPS NOTIFIED

Rev. Marshall Dawson, College Pastor, to Preach Sermon.—Has Had Wide and Varied Experiences.

The Church on the Campus is wide open and ready to receive what is expected to be the biggest crowd it has ever held on Sunday, November 11.

"Go-to-Church-Sunday," the one day in the year when every student, and every other member of the community is asked to cast aside all other interests for an hour and attend church here, comes on Armistice Day, and not through any accident.

Respect for War Dead

Those in charge of the affair believe that the students should have a double incentive to go to church on Armistice Day, since in addition to supporting their local church, they are paying respect to the men who gave their lives in the World War.

Every fraternity, the Woman's Club, the Faculty Club, the Extension Service, the Woman's Student, Government Association, and the School of Agriculture, have been notified of the occasion by E. I. Collins. It is hoped that the heads of these groups will urge their members to be present in church Sunday.

Rev. Marshall Dawson

Some of the people who attend church Sunday may be hearing for the first time one of the most brilliant parsons in the country, Marshall Dawson of Storrs, whose first book, "Nineteenth-Century Evolution and After", will be issued by the Macmillan Company of New York next month. For this reason a summary of Mr. Dawson's life is given here.

Mr. Dawson's native state is Tennessee. At the age of 21 he was admitted to the bar and migrated to the Philippine Islands. While there he spent two years in the Attorney-General's office, during the latter part of which time he was constantly traveling throughout the islands, investigating or prosecuting.

A trip around the world followed, after which he practiced law and served as Register of Deeds for the Moro Province for about a year, with headquarters at Zamboanga. A trip three-quarters around the world was his next adventure.

In 1906 Rev. Dawson retired from work permanently, if the life of a minister may be considered play. Subsequently he was occupied as a "college bum" for a number of years. That experience was followed by a brief period of lecturing and preaching on the Pacific coast. New England next: a brief rest at Yale, followed by the acceptance of the pulpit in the Storrs Congregational Church, and the duties of chaplain of the Connecticut Agricultural College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Wooster of Athens, Georgia, announce the birth of a daughter on November 4. "Sonny" Wooster, '22, is instructor in poultry husbandry at the University of Georgia.

LARGE NUMBER NEEDED
FOR KINGSTON SPECIAL

TICKETS SELLING SLOWLY

Three Hundred Must Pay Before Monday in Order to Make Aggie Special a Certainty.—Committee is Hard at Work.

Early this week a mass meeting was student body of the plans which have held for the purpose of informing the been made to carry the Aggie rooters to Kingston for the big game of the year and enthusiasm ran high in that practically everyone present agreed to go by train.

Tickets Must Be Sold

Since that time the members of the committee have canvassed the Hill with the result that only about one hundred tickets have been sold. While there is no doubt that many more will produce the required collateral before the day of the game, there has been nothing like the response which was indicated at the mass meeting. In order to secure the train it is necessary that the required number of tickets be sold several days in advance of the day of the game and unless there is a decided spurt this number will not be realized.

"The Aggie Special"

A train has been proved to be the only feasible way of making the trip in a body and the committee has done all in its power to secure the best rates possible and the most attractive schedule. It remains for those who pledged themselves to support this project to keep their part of the agreement and come through with the money immediately.

As usual there have been a number of reports of men and women who have decided that they can get to the game in a better and cheaper way than by the train. The committee would appreciate all such reports in order that they may bring them to the attention of the student body and thus make public the names of those who are unwilling to get behind a college undertaking and make the affair a success.

Should Go on Special Train

Late Thursday night T. C. Cronin, chairman of the transportation committee, stated to a Campus reporter that returns are coming in very slowly. In addition to this he stated, "We have done all in our power to make the trip a success and it now remains for the student body to do its share. Get away from the idea that you are doing any one a personal favor by going on the train. If you haven't enough college spirit to support your team and back the college, you would be much better off on the Hill than at the game."

A mass meeting will be held Monday night when the final number of those who have purchased tickets will be announced. The success of the trip needs swift action on the part of those who signified their intention to go to the game by train.

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

"Love Among the Lions"— a Little Theatre play—D'Esopo among the co-eds.

—CP—

Connecticut version: But last night, in the pine grove, I loved her best of all.

—CP—

Line from a song sung by C.C.N.Y. rooters during the game: "We'll tame the wild buffaloes."

Voice in Aggie stands: "Come ahead; we've got the buffaloes."

Maybe "Steve" Daley told them to sing it.

—CP—

Looks as if the Philosopher would have to give up this column. Wise cracks do not come to him any more. And the editor of the Nutmeg wants him to save what few W. C.'s he has for the humor section of the year-book.

POETRY

That's where my money goes, For fees and dues and shows,

To stay in school;

Then, broke, to bed I go,

And dream sweet dreams of dough,

Huge bales of kale.

All kinds of women fair

Are crowding round me there,

Striving to pull my hair,

And mess my map.

I tell them they must quit;

I will not stand for it—

It isn't right.

When morning sunlight comes

There are no beating drums

To wake me up.

The large old class-bell rings;

What o' to me it brings;

I dress and run.

Onward to class I go;

Long after eight I know—

Why is it I'm so slow?

Always the last.

A question I am asked;

Wake up and look aghast—

No thoughts will come.

Oh God, why don't you give

Us chaps, if we must live,

Some cash and brains?

A Page from Philosopher's Dairy

Saturday, November 3

A hectic day, though quietly begun from a strange bed and quietly ended in another strange bed. The morning is of no account, since I was not awake until noon, even though I went to two classes and wrote an Economics report. There being two home football games in the P.M., did not wish to fortify myself for the task of reporting these contests. Accordingly, at 12:45, accompanied by sundry other journalistic brethren, proceeded to Dow Field. A perfect football day, both in scores and weather. After the games got cross-country training hunting all over the Hill for a typewriter to write the varsity game and get it on to the 5:30 bus.—the idea of the race being to let the citizens read an account in the Sunday newspapers. 1923 NUTMEG TO BE OFFERED FOR SALE

Surplus Supply to go at Three Dollars to New Men or All Those Desiring Additional Copies.

During the coming week the business board of the 1913 Nutmeg is to inaugurate a campaign to dispose of the extra copies of last year's annual. The books will be offered at three dollars per copy to all new students or those who may desire additional copies.

The 1923 book was one of the best ever published on the Hill and the reduced price should prove very attractive to people who did not have an opportunity of purchasing one last year.

that Dan Noble's broadcasting station would put the newspapers out of business. After supping, to Willimantic in search of excitement, and to let the natives know the scores of the games. Succeeded well in both purposes. To bed early Sunday morning as aforementioned. The week is dead, and methinks 'tis well. It is quite evident that our weeks are not for the weak which is a sad pun, but all I can offer at present.

The co-d wrestling team had a good workout in the Armory Saturday night.

The Sentences of the Week

"For the last hundred years we have been going rapidly towards democracy, and what is the result? The destruction of the handicrafts. That there are still good pictures and good poems written proves nothing; there will always be found men to sacrifice their lives for a picture or a poem." —George Moore.

THE CREAM of the JEST

Hiram, driving a load of Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed from the dealer's, passed his near-sighted neighbor, Eben, on the road. Both pulled up to a halt to exchange greetings.

"Whatcha been buyin', Hiram?" asked the near-sighted one, straining his eyes at the pile of Buffalo sacks.

"Buyin' Buffalo, natcherly, Eben."

"Well now, my eyes are gittin' bad. Course if I'd seen 'twere feed sacks piled up I'd a knowed 'twas Buffalo, first off. But I couldn't make 'em out. Thought maybe 'twas a couple o' new cows."

"Your eyes ain't so bad, Eben. There's darn little difference 'tween a load of Buffalo an' a couple o' new cows,—either'll give me as much new extra milk!"

Hiram's confidence in Buffalo as a milk maker is shared by thousands of farmers—another reason why it is

CO-EDS HOLD FIRST COURT PRACTICE OF YEAR

Forty Candidates Report and Are Given Instruction in Rudiments of the Game.—Several Veterans Back.

Forty candidates reported for the first girls' basketball practice of the year, held in Hawley Armory, Tuesday night. The first session was occupied in simple passing and other rudimentary subjects. Coach R. T. Guyer had charge of the work and was assisted by Coach S. A. Dole and Freshman Coach L. A. Alexander.

There seems to be an abundance of material in the freshman class and the return of last year's team makes the outlook bright for a successful season. Elizabeth Hamilton, '24, is manager for the coming season and has an attractive schedule arranged which will be published in a future issue of the Campus.

WOMEN'S CLUB BAZAAR COMING NEXT WEEK

There will be held in the Armory on Thursday, November 15, a very attractively arranged bazaar, given under the direction of the Woman's Circle of Storrs.

Mrs. R. E. Dodge, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the sale, has stated that articles which will appeal to the tastes of everyone will be on display.

Homemade candy, cakes, pies and doughnuts (just like mother used to make) will, of course, be popular with we Epicurians.

Among the hand embroidered household linens one is sure to find something that will make a worthy and useful Christmas gift for Mother.

There will be a table of imported Japanese Arts and Crafts. For those who are fond of the unexpected a "parcel post" booth has been planned; and there will be an attractive showing of children's toys and novelties.

D'ESOPO STARS IN ONE ACT SKIT

"Love Amonk the Lions" is the title of the one act play now being rehearsed by some of the State College Players. It is not, however, an animal epic, nor was it written by Ernest Thompson Setton nor the late Col. Roosevelt. It is a very humorous exhibition of the tantrums of two very temperamental operatic stars. Oscar D'Esopo, '25, plays the leading male part as Riccardo Bommarito, an Italian tenor, with Miss Sybil Wilson, '27, as Honore Lazenby-Bommarito, wife of Riccardo, and Miss Cora Lavalley, '25, as Clara, maid for Honore.

FIFTY-FOUR MEN IN SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Course That Began November 7 Continues Until April 5.

Starting with a registration of fifty-four men, the School of Agriculture opened its course November 7 to continue until April 5.

Due to lack of space in this issue, the names of those enrolled will be published in a later issue.

FORMER AGGIE MEN ON OTHER FOOTBALL FIELDS

Connecticut Stars Make Good at Other Colleges

Martin J. Ryan, ex-'25, has been elected captain of the freshman team at Georgetown and has been playing a brilliant game all season.

"Mo" Daly, '23, captain of the Connecticut pigskin chasers last year, has won a berth on the Army eleven at West Point and played at fullback for practically the entire game last Saturday.

"Beano" Graf, '22, former Aggie center is again holding down a guard position at Springfield College for the second year.

With him on the Springfield team is "Bob" Berry, ex-'25 star Connecticut quarter last year, who is Springfield's best bet behind the line, and "Freddy" Stull, ex-'25, Aggie fullback in 1921, who is also on the varsity squad.

"Ching" Hammill, ex-'25, one of the greatest backs who ever wore the blue and white, is playing with the New Britain professional team.

PROMINENT AGGIE LEAVES HIGH PUBLIC OFFICE

Irving W. Patterson, '05, Resigns as Chief of R. I. Highway Department.

Irving W. Patterson, '05, Chief Engineer of the Rhode Island State Board of Public Roads, has resigned from that office, his resignation becoming effective next March.

During his ten years in office Mr. Patterson has given Rhode Island one of the best highway systems of the country. His ability has earned for him a reputation throughout the country as an authority on road construction. Recent issues of Providence newspapers have contained many articles in appreciation of Mr. Patterson's work as chief of highways.

Rhody game, may get the call at one of the wings. Other available ends are Bunis, Glazier and Flaxman. Tackles will be well covered by Captain Zollin and Ryan, two of the best men in the line. Five guards are ready to start: Lorentzon, Dawson, Reynolds, O'Connor and Clark. The first two will probably be the ones chosen. "Dada" Daly will play center. In the backfield only one change is contemplated by Coach "Lou" Alexander. Chapman, who has been hovering on the sidelines all fall, will play at least part of the game in place of Palmer.

Schofield at quarter, Andrew at right half, and Reeves at fullback are counted on to play in the final game. In case the Aggies win this game, there is a possibility that they will journey to Medford, Mass., to play the Tufts freshmen in a post-season game.

Mr. Gane, the gentleman who prints our paper, is anxious to get tickets to the Yale-Princeton game. Anyone who can accommodate him will be a lifelong friend of Mr. Gane and the Campus board. Write to him directly at Willimantic.

FROSH AND SOPHS TO DEBATE ON RUHR QUESTION

Manager M. C. Stephenson Announces Freshman Team

Judges have been selected for the Freshman-Sophomore debate and the Sophomores have secured a coach. The frosh are still hunting for someone from the faculty who will help them prepare their debate

The question for debate is: "Resolved: That France was justified in her occupation of the Ruhr district."

The judges will be the following: Prof. A. W. Manchester, Prof. I. G. Davis, and Prof. H. A. Seckerson. Prof. W. A. Wattles will coach the sophomore team. E. C. Mintz, L. R. Belden, D. O. Anderson, M. Horwitz, E. R. Collins, and M. L. Stephenson have tried out for the freshman team.

The three speakers selected are E. C. Mintz, L. R. Belden and M. L. Stephenson. Either M. Horwitz or D. O. Anderson will be alternate.

the "Courant" dopestter gets going aftr the last kick has thudded. From present indications our two leading candidates are Captain Red O'Neil, center and Tracy Swem, left halfback.

Springfield is going through an unusually poor season; Wesleyan, which started well, is falling by the wayside; Trinity is at the bottom of the five and only Williams has shown a good card in the games already played Watch Connecticut—she'll be up there when the season's over.

Swem continues his great work. He cut loose against City College and the way he tore through time after time for long gains was balm and nectar to the Aggie rooters. Swemmie is one of the cleverest broken field runners we have seen in a long time. Approximately 135 pounds, but it's all fight.

Connecticut's varied offensive against the New Yorkers was something we have been waiting to see. The team broke the line, ripped by the tackles, streamed around the ends, kicked, and forward passed successfully. Great stuff!

Forget going in automobiles; forget the Yale-Princeton game; forget everything but the fact that as loyal students of Connecticut YOU MUST BE ON THE AGGIE SPECIAL WHEN IT PULLS OUT OF EAGLEVILLE SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 17.

VARSITY CLUB DANCE HELD LAST SATURDAY

Small Crowd Attends Fall Dance.—About $14 Cleared.

Hawley Armory was the scene of a dance given by the Varsity Club last Saturday night after the football victory in the afternoon over City College of New York. There were sixty couples present, including a few alumni.

Valdemar Johnson, chairman of the dance committee, who was largely responsible for the dance, stated that about $14 was realized for the benefit of the Varsity Club.

Music by "Honey Boys"

The "Honey Boys" orchestra of New Haven, led by Milton Katz, furnished the music and although they were an hour late in arriving, the program of fourteen dances was carried out and the couples danced until midnight.

The patrons and patronesses for the dance were: Coach and Mrs. Sumner A. Dole and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Guyer.

The committee in charge was V. A. Johnson, chairman, W. S. Moreland, and Seymour Squires.

recovered by Moreland. Fienemann nabbed a pass after an exchange of kicks, and Swem went twenty yards around end, but a forward pass which followed was intercepted by New York, who failing to gain, kicked again.

Swem Stars

This time Swem, after receiving the City's aerial, advanced the ball to the Metropolitan 8 yard line. Moreland sent a short forward pass to Eddy, who gathered it in and made the second score. Moreland failed to make the punt.

The rest of the game was marked by Swem's spectacular running, but penalties and fumbles prevented the Aggies from making the last score until just before the whistle blew. With forty seconds to play, Eddy dropped back and shot a 30 yard pass to Swem, who gathered it in and ran nearly 50 yards for a touchdown. Moreland drop-kicked for the extra point.

Fair Next Year

Committees were appointed by President W. D. Burgess to arrange for next year's fair and to draw up the Barn Warming, to decide plans for an active, lively and instructive program for this year. These committees are as follows: Program committee: R. Seymour, '24, chairman, R. R. Hill, '25, and D. B. Humphrey, '25; "Ag" Club Fair next year: M. B. Chalker, '24, chairman, J. T. Clark, '24, R. M. Keeler, '25, and H. O. Woodward, '25; Barn Warming committee: R. E. Wing, '24, chairman, Miss Hazel Pierpont, '24, R. S. White, '25, F. C. McKeever, '25, Haig Deyirmenjian, '25, and W. D. Gifford, '26. In cooperation with the faculty heads of the various departments, the officers of the club and above committees will endeavor to put across a program of real value and interest.

Cover by McKeever

The cover design, originated by Frank McKeever, has been pronounced by those who have seen it, as one of the best ever made for a year-book. The cover of the book will be flexible.

Photographs this year are being taken by Gerry, of Willimantic, whom the board selected for this work, because of the fact that he can be on the Hill at practically any time desired. Pictures of the juniors and the group pictures are now being taken with the hope of finishing at least all the juniors' pictures before Christmas. This is the first board in the history of the Nutmeg to have pictures out before Christmas, thus avoiding any necessity of rushing the work, and giving the members of the junior class an opportunity to use their pictures as gifts.

A border design is being worked out for the pages.

Subscription drive

About seventy-five percent of the Freshmen have subscribed to date. The first payment on the Nutmeg is well under way, with the second to follow in a few weeks. A drive for subscriptions from the School of Agriculture has been started.

Candidates from the sophomore and freshmen classes who wish to try out for the board are urged to see Clemens J. Diemand for editorial work, or Thomas J. Kennedy for the business end. More candidates are needed.

The board will pay ten percent on all advertisements obtained for the Nutmeg. Ideas for the border design will be appreciated by the board.

Allen W. Manchester.

"Poets I have Known": Prof. Willard Wattles.

"What Pi Kappa Delta Can Do for the College": Prof. Howard A. Sec-kerson.

There is a possibility that President Charles L. Beach of the College may be able to be present. If so, he will be asked to speak. Impromptu speeches will conclude the program.
