SCHOLASTIC TOURNAMENT LEADS TO CHAMPIONSHIP

10 HIGH SCHOOLS COMPETE

Fraternities Entertain Visitors—Loving Cup to be Awarded at Final Game—Only Class C and D High Schools to Compete

The eyes of Connecticut's sporting circle will be focused upon the Aggie court today and tomorrow, as the Interscholastic Basketball Tournament holds sway. Ten teams, representing high schools of the state, will battle on Hawley Armory court for the state championship in the C and D classes. The tournament is arranged by the State Interscholastic Conference which has selected the teams to play, and only high schools which come under the jurisdiction of this board will be allowed to send teams to participate in the tournament.

The tournament has been divided into four rounds, the first of which will be played this afternoon and the second evening. Two games will constitute the round to be played Saturday morning, and the final game, deciding the winner of the tournament, will be played Saturday evening. The winners of the tournament will not only be judged basketball champions of the state's C and D class high schools, but will also be receivers of a loving cup which is to be presented by the College Athletic Association. In order to partly defray the expense of entertaining the high school boys an admission of twenty-five cents will be asked for each of the four rounds. The officiating will be done by local talent.

The teams entered in the tournament represent the high schools of Stafford Springs, Stonington, Deep River, Terryville, Collinsville, Westport, West Hartford, Branford, Turlot and Litchfield. These teams will be entertained by the various fraternities of the college. The tournament is not a scheme for advertising the college to these high schools in as much as the college was selected by the Interscholastic Conference as the scene of the contests. However, every one connected with the college will look on with a great deal of interest, and will do their best to entertain the visitors in true Aggie style.

With the advent of Spring the Winter custom of crossing the campus will have to change if the grass just coming up is to be saved. The next few weeks will be a critical period for the young grass, and in order to have the fine appearing campus of past years, the student body must use the beaten paths.

ONE SENIOR AND SIX JUNIORS ELECTED TO HONORARY SCHOLASTIC FRATERNITY

GAMMA CHI EPSILON AWARDS ANNOUNCED BY PROF. G. H. LAMSON IN PRESIDENT'S HOUR

Society Founded in 1916—Elections Based on Scholarship, Activities and Character—Highest Honor to Students at Connecticut.

One senior and six juniors were elected last week to membership in Gamma Chi Epsilon, honorary scholastic fraternity at Connecticut. Those receiving the honor were:

Clemens Joseph Diemand, '25, of New Britain.

Harold William Wardle, '26, of Bridgeport.

Milton George Moore, '26, of Ludlow, Vermont.

Edwin Waldemar Nelson, '26, of Hartford.

Leland Eugene Evans, '26, of Hartford.

Earl Henry Jagoe, '26, of Stratford.

Sidney Lewis, '26, of Hartford.

Announcement of the elections was made Wednesday at President's Hour, with Prof. G. H. Lamson, honorary member of the fraternity presenting the awards. Gamma Chi Epsilon was founded at the State College in 1916 and elections to this fraternity are based upon a high grade of scholastic work, participation in student activities and character. Members are ordinarily chosen in their junior year by the senior members of the fraternity, and election to Gamma Chi Epsilon constitutes the greatest honor that can come to a student at the Connecticut Agricultural College.

Clemens Diemand, senior class president, has been prominently identified with student activities at Storrs. He was editor of the 1924 Nutmeg, and is the present associate editor of the Campus, the student weekly. He is a member of both the Student Senate and Mediator, and has been an honor roll student since his freshman year.

Harold Wardle has been active in both athletics and student publications. He is a varsity track man, managing editor of the Campus, a member of the Student Senate and the Mediator.

Milton Moore, president of the Junior class, is editor of the 1925 Nutmeg, president of the State College Players, and assistant manager of basketball. He has been an active member of the Dramatic Club for three years.

Edwin Nelson has been active in student publications, being a member of both the Nutmeg and Campus boards at Storrs. He has been a member of the class track team, the Social Committee, and is identified with several other committees as well.

Leland Evans has been a member of the track squad at Storrs since his freshman year, and in addition has played on his class baseball, basketball and football teams. He was also a member of the Mid-Year Formal Committee.

Earl Jagoe is business manager of the Nutmeg, assistant basketball manager, a member of the Mediator, and of the Junior Week Committee. He has also been identified with the activities of the Agricultural Club since his freshman year.

Sidney Lewis has been an active member of the Debating Club, the Student Senate, the Mediator, and the Blue and White Club, and is a student member of the committee that is working to raise funds for a new Church and Community House at Storrs.

STUDENT SENATE PRESENTS RESOLUTION TO FORMING ACTIVITY AUDITING COMMITTEE

Personnel to be Recommended Yearly by Senate to Student Org.—Chairman to be Senior Senator—Two Blue and White Club Vacancies Filled

At the regular weekly meeting of the Student Senate held Thursday evening among other important business transacted was that of drawing up a resolution to be presented at the next Student Org. meeting recommending the appointment of an auditing committee to audit the finances of all activities. This committee, it is planned, shall be comprised of two seniors, one junior, and one sophomore. One of the seniors shall be a member of the Student Senate, and he shall act as chairman of the committee. Each year, at the first meeting of the Student Org, the Senate shall submit for ratification the personnel of this committee for the ensuing year.

To fill two vacancies, Donald Bar-

CAMPUS BOARD HAS NEEDED REORGANIZATION

ELECTIONS TAKE PLACE

Business Manager Now Junior—Circulation and Subscription Departments Strengthened—Two New Positions Created.

At an important meeting of the Campus Board held Monday evening the long-contemplated reorganization of the business board was effected. The most important change was that of having the business manager in the future a junior instead of a senior. This change will give a continuity to the Board, the lack of which in the past has been a serious weakness.

In past years, the business manager would often graduate without the accounts being entirely straightened out and the new manager the following year would be starting in without anyone to advise and guide him. Under the new plan these conditions will be corrected, for the new business manager will have the help and the assistance of the retired manager to help him get started in the fall.

Another important change made was that of having the positions of Circulation and Subscription managers occupied by juniors instead of sophomores, as has been the practice in the past. Much of the difficulty with the circulation of the Campus in the past has been largely due to the mismanagement of inexperienced men, and this change it is expected will correct the evil. It was also voted to create the positions of Assistant Circulation and Assistant Subscription managers to be occupied by sophomores in order to have trained men to fill these important positions in their junior year. Miss Irene Cooke was elected to fill the newly created position of Co-ed Editor.

The membership of the Campus organization was materially increased by the election to the Associate Board of the following:

John L. Breitwieser, '27
Cecil R. Smith, '27
Herman Gauger, '27
Edward R. Collins, '28
Francis Ryan, '28
Bartlett Barnes, '28
Elizabeth Service, '26
Helen Lowenberger, '27
Sarah Croll, '27
Mildred Brockett, '27
Francis Schreiber, '27

rett and Charles Clark were elected to membership in the Blue and White Club. They will fill the places held by Hopkins and Saxe, who have left college.

THE CAMPUS DEBT FUROR

The furor created at the last student Org meeting was natural—and expected. There has been an undercurrent of dissatisfaction with the way many of our financial activities have been carried on for quite some time. In the four years we've been here, we, the seniors, realize that the manipulation of our finances were not quite what they should have been. The Dramatic Club, the "Nutmeg", the "Campus", and dances have all been, within the last four years, at odd times, under criticism. Perhaps it is because the "business" positions on the Hill are not the inspiring kind that one is inclined to put one's heart and soul into with the same nerve that characterizes our attitude in athletics. In any case, we know that if there is need of reorganization or improvement in this line, now is the time to put it across. Many good things may come out of the critical attitude of the last Student Org meeting. Therefore, we can say that although the refusal on the part of a few to pay the "Campus" debt may have been unjustifiable, on the whole, the issues were pretty well defined and improvement is in order.

In the last analysis, it is not a question of whether we shall or shall not pay the debt, but how we can put publications and other activities on a better business basis. Most of the arguments at the Org meeting showed the general trend of student thought. The thing for us to do is to continue along this line until some substantial changes are made. Let us not sit back and merely grumble. This matter of an auditing committee elected from the Student Body at large is an excellent idea and not original with that Student Org meeting. The Student Senate has been working on this change and will soon come out with a plan for ratification by the Student Body. Reorganization of the Campus Board has already begun. A committee will draw up a new constitution. The circulation and subscription managers will be juniors and they will each have a sophomore assistant. The business manager will also be a junior. This is an adroit move, and will obviously do away with the possibility of a business manager making his exit (as he did sometimes as a senior), leaving his successor in the lurch with a lot of uncollected bills and other unfinished business.

There was one salient feature about the Student Org meeting which did not please the upperclassmen one whit. The oratorical Johnny from the sophomore class who seemed so anxious to play the "leader of the opposition" act has not subscribed to the Campus. The upperclassmen feel that he should be a trifle less pretentious and a little more loyal to Connecticut. The "big noise" at any Student Org meeting should logically come from upperclassmen. We believe in free speech, but men who have been here three or four years have the best background for dealing with college problems. The one year "tramps" whose main purpose here is to get as much out of the college as possible without putting anything into it, or any other men who fail to respond to college obligations and who are only too ready with destructive criticism, these men should wait until they are upperclassmen before shooting off too much steam. It is good policy, traditional and logical.

BATTALION OFFICERS IN OUTSIDE APPEARANCE

Companies Reorganized—Drill to Continue on A. A. Field—Hutton to Act as Major.

The R. O. T. C. Battalion began drilling outside on the A. A. field last Friday, and the drills for the rest of the year will be held there. At this drill, the active battalion was completely reorganized. Sophomores from Company A were placed in Companies B and C to act as corporals, and pivot men, and enough freshmen were added to Company A to make it complete. This new arrangement makes three evenly matched companies and should greatly improve the smoothness of the drill.

The following officers of the college battalion were appointed recently by Capt. Crim:

Major—William A. Hutton
Captains—John R. Jacoby, Thomas J. Kennedy, Charles F. Radomski.
First Lieutenants—Revere H. Beebe, Paul J. McCarron, George B. Warrek.
Second Lieutenants—Lyman H. Hitchcock, Wright D. Gifford, William H. Griffin.
First Sergeants—Leland E. Evans, Theodore Brigham, Arnold R. Griffin.

SAFETY VALVE

Dear Editor:

As this is a "dead-news" period for the Campus, I am taking the privilege of sending you a few observations on the recent Student Org. meeting.

The flow of oratory from the budding young hot-air artists suggesting that the Campus debt be paid by canvassing the Alumni, giving a dance, and other such brilliant schemes, reminds me of the ever prevalent hicks found in every small town who can barely keep themselves from starving to death, but still they lounge around the stove of the village store and point out the mistakes of President Coolidge and tell how they would run the government if they were in Washington.

Incidentally, I would suggest that before these student geni get up at Student Org. meetings to display their ignorance, they should first get acquainted with a few facts from those who know. For instance, the Varsity Club several times a year attempts to raise money by running several dances, and with a good attendance, they are able to clear a scanty twenty or twenty-five dollars. It makes me wonder how a $600.00 debt can be cleared by giving a dance or a dozen dances for that matter. If such a thing were possible. Also, I wonder if the one who suggested that we collect the money from the Alumni would pay if HE was an alumnus. I understand that he has not even subscribed to the "Campus" this year, while he is still a student on the Hill, and I'm too much of a skeptic to believe that he would have a change of heart as an alumnus.

The paramount cause of the financial difficulties of the "Campus" is the presence of too many students on the Hill who are here for only two years and who want to get as much as possible from the college without giving anything in return. When not half the students subscribe to the college paper but sit back and expect to derive benefit from what some one else is paying for, how can we expect the paper to stay clear of financial difficulties. It is a few of these tight-fisted "birds" who do not have enough college spirit to come out and work for the paper, but sit back and refer to the paper as "nothing but a damned review", and even go so far as to advocate suspension of publication.

However, regardless of the attitude of a few slackers who place their pocketbooks above the welfare of the college, I am sure that the majority of students have the interest of the college at heart and will, therefore, agree with me when I say that if the students cannot edit a college paper, then the authorities had better close down the institution and send the students over to the Mansfield Training School for their education.—C. ## CO-ED NOTES

CO-ED WEEK FORECAST IS MOST PROMISING

CAVALLERO TO PLAY

Arrangement of Boxes Similar to Last Year—Patronesses to be Comprised of Home Economics Faculty

Preparations for Co-ed Week have already hit their stride. The girls who are managing the Formal, the Campus, and the Glee Club entertainment have all the moves worked out on paper and are just waiting for the first of April to come to put them in action.

Cavallerro himself, accompanied by his team of six note-tossers, will be here on Friday, April 3, to prove that definite number of dances has not "Music hath charms". Although the program has not yet been announced the Social Committee has promised four moonlights.

The patronesses will comprise members of the Home Economics faculty, Miss M. E. Sprague and her staff, Mrs. G. I. Hendrickson, Miss E. J. Rose, Miss M. G. Lundburg, Miss M. S. Gardner and Miss E. B. Hamilton.

"Purg" Hutton, '26, is arranging a plan for boxes that will accommodate the seniors, sophomores, and faculty on one side of the Armory, and the juniors, freshmen, and alumnae on the other side. It is expected that over a hundred couples will attend.

Christine Macmenemy, president of the Girls' Glee Club, assisted by various committees, is completing arrangements for a vocal concert and dance to be given on Saturday, from eight till eleven thirty in the Armory. The members of the club, coached by Mrs. Farrell, have been practicing a program of choral songs.

During this second annual Co-ed Week the girls will again publish the circulate an issue of the Campus. Irene Cooke, '25, will edit and have entire charge of the paper. The various duties of the regular board will be fulfilled by Pauline Graf, '25, Margaret Hutton, '26, Phyllis Smith, '26, Carrie Main, '26, Sallie Croll, '27, Elizabeth Service, '26, Frances Schrieber, '27, Helen Lowenberger, '27, and an assistant news board.

FINAL CO-ED BASKETBALL GAME IS WITH MAINE

The co-ed basketball team will close its 1925 schedule with a game with Maine University on Saturday, March 21, in the Armory.

Last year the girls gained a victory at Orono, and this year they hope to do just as well. The regular lineup will be used with little or no substitution. The Maine team, probably ten in number, will spend Saturday night at Storrs.

The Girls' Athletic Association will take charge of entertaining the team.

AGGIES PLACE THIRD AT HARTFORD EVENT

Capt. Jacoby Competes with Ritola in 1500 Meter Race—Atwood Turns Ankle with Aggies in Lead—Wesleyan Finishes First by Close Margin.

In a thrilling race in which the lead changed several times the Aggie Relay Team lost to its Wesleyan and Trinity Rivals at the Weaver High School games in Hartford last Saturday evening. But for the fact that Atwood, anchor man for Coach Daly's proteges, injured his ankle on the last turn, the race would have been ours. The race was fast, official time being 2 minutes 57 4-5 seconds for the 1350 meter distance.

Quigley, lead-off man for Connecticut, was penalized four yards for a false start. On the second start Phillips of Wesleyan took the lead with Keller of Trinity second and Quigley in the cellar position. Quigley soon drew up to his rivals, but dropped behind again at the finish. McCarthy took the belated stick from Quigley. He ran a good race, finishing third in his field. He handed the baton to Smith who drew up to his rivals before handing the stick to Atwood. Atwood, running against White of Wesleyan and McBurney of Trinity took the lead at the first turn. He slowly drew away from his rivals until he led by about five yards. Wesleyan in second place and Trinity's representative in last place fought hard to overtake the Connecticut runner. Connecticut rooters saw visions of a victory at this point, but fate in the form of the Wesleyan Jynx intervened.

On the last turn with about forty yards to go to the tape, Atwood turned his ankle and tearing the ligaments in his foot, but pluckily continued toward the finish line. For a few moments it seemed that even then the

PIN TOURNEY CREATES FRATERNITY RIVALRY

Sigma Phi Gamma and Shakes Win Matches—Games Close and Exciting—Pin Decides Winner in Second Match.

The interfraternity bowling tournament opened with a match between the Sigma Phi Gamma and Phi Epsilon Pi teams. The first string was captured with ease by the Sigmas. In the second string, however, the Phi Ep staged a comeback and made a third string necessary. The third string proved a walk-away for the Sigmas. There was no exceptional scores made in this match, Osterling being high man with a total of 287.

The second match, between the Shakes and the Phi Mu Delta, was a thrilling battle from start to finish. The Phi Mu took the first string by a narrow margin. The second string went to the Shakes also by a narrow margin. The third string was probably the most exciting one ever bowled on the Armory alleys. The results were in doubt until the last ball had been rolled, when it was found that the Shakes had won with the lead of a single pin. The high scorer of the match was Allard, with a score of 313.

The third of the series of elimination matches in the Interfraternity Bowling tournament between the Eta Lambda Sigma and the Alpha Gamma Rho resulted in a victory for the former. The first string, won by the "X" with a lead of 7 pins, did not produce any spectacular bowling. The second string, however, showed a much higher brand of bowling, and was also won by the "X" with a lead of 6 points. The third string was not necessary. High man of the match and highest scorer of the season so

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK FOR FRESHMAN NINE

Thirty-two Yearlings Answer First Call for Practice—Several Former High School Players on Squad—Seven Game Schedule Arranged.

With 32 men answering the first call for freshman baseball practice, prospects for a good yearling nine this season look encouraging. Coach Alexander had his men report for their first workout last week, and they have been working out daily in Hawley Armory. Practice will be held out of doors as soon as weather conditions permit.

A schedule of seven games has been drawn up, two of which will be played at Storrs, with the remainder on foreign fields. The team will be managed by Assistant Managers Eyre and Brockett.

Numbered among Coach Alexander's squad are several former high school players of experience, and it is expected that they will prove valuable to the yearling outfit this spring. For pitchers, Alexander has Eddy, Brooks, Bergren, Seagrave, Randall and Adams. Eddy formerly played with the Simsbury High nine, Brooks played for Torrington High, and Bergren with East Hartford. It is too early to predict how these men will shape up for the Aggies, but it is hoped that this group will yield one or two men who can perform with a fair degree of consistency. For catchers, Logan and Harrison are available, both of whom have had previous back-stopping experience.

The infield will see a merry scramble for positions, with twelve candidates working for the berths. Donahue, short stop for the Crosby High team of last season, will try to land the same berth with the yearlings, though Scanlon will no doubt give him plenty of competition. Hadley, former Wilby High third sacker, will try out for that corner here at Storrs. Other candidates include Brown, Burton, Cummings, Sweat, Gulliver, Horne, Emerson, Bitgood and Sullivan.

Outfielder candidates are Salad, Heller, Mimbi, Birch, Kelley, Murphy, Kennedy, Schaeffer, Down, Whitney, Osterling and Lifschitz.

INTERCLASS LEAGUE HEADED BY JUNIORS

Freshmen Bow to Sophs—New Uniforms Show Class Backing—Final Game Monday Night.

In Monday's class games, the juniors defeated the School of Ag. 16-8, and the sophomores downed the freshmen 15-14. Juniors still lead the league with a record of 7 victories in 8 starts, though it is expected that the sophomores, who are now one game behind, will even the count by defeating the School of Ag. when they meet in the final game next Monday night. Unless the short course men upset the dope and defeat the sophomores, it will be necessary for the juniors and sophomores to play an extra game to decide the class championship at the State College.

Interest in the interclass league is running high at the present time, and the Monday night games always draw a large crowd to Hawley Armory. In Monday game, the sophomores appeared on the floor in the new orange and black uniforms, which were furnished by the class of 1927 as an evidence of their backing of the team. "Sam Kramer was again the big gun in the sophomore attack, and his long range sharpshooting was all that enables his team to remain in the running for another crack at the juniors, present league leaders. The yearling outfit had been greatly strengthened by the addition of Hadley and Sullivan to the lineup, and gave their upperclass rivals a real battle the entire distance.

MAKOFSKI ELECTED BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Basketball Banquet for Squad at Johnsons—Makofski Rated as One of Best Basketball Men in State

William F. Makofski, '26, of Schenectady, N. Y., was unanimously elected captain of the 1926 basketball team, following a banquet at Johnsons' last Wednesday night.

Makofski was the high scorer for the Aggies during the season just closed and his outstanding work was a big factor in what has turned out to be one of Connecticut's best seasons on the chalked court.

Makofski returned to Storrs following a year at Cornell. He played forward on the Aggies championship five in 1922, and in 1923 he jumped center. Makofski is also a letterman in baseball and football, and as a freshman in 1921 he made letters in three major sports.

In commenting on the work of the Schenectady boy, Coach Sumner A. Dole said, "Makofski, I believe to be the best basketball player in New England. This past season as running guard he led the Connecticut Aggies in scoring. We played fourteen games and Mac scored forty-six field goals, and thirty-one fouls out of fifty shots. He can pass, shoot, take them off the backboard, dribble, pivot and never gets tired."

Makofski was selected for one of the guards on the All-Western New England basketball team, which is picked by a vote of the basketball coaches at Trinity, Wesleyan, Connecticut Aggies, Massachusetts Aggies, Springfield, Amherst and Williams.

Makofski's election came at the close of a banquet tendered the varsity hoop squad by the Athletic Council of the College. In addition to the squad, and Coach Dole, those present included Professors Manchester, Guyer and Hollister, and Freshman Coach Alexander. Alumni members present as guests were Paul Putnam, Philip Dean and W. T. Clark.

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

There is nothing like a silent, well-lighted room, a cup of strong coffee, and the hour of midnight for inspiration.

Since the presentation of "The Neighbors," a number of students have asked Prof. Seckerson if they couldn't understudy "Peter."

Pete may have been slow at the start, but, brother, did you lamp his finale!

Guess we'll have to give ole Pete and his "daughter of Eve", the C.P. "loving cup."

The poor C.P. again had to sink to the hateful task of translation when his "subtle connotation" phrase brought the beanery staff to argument and defense of their league.

Give the grass a chance, boys, you were young once.

The use of farcical and improper figures of speech, we think, should have no place in the business of a Student Org. meeting.

When we see a chap stumbling along in the "gutter of life", we do not hand him a kick, nor a shove, we help him—if we are imbued with one speck of unselfish brotherly feeling. With a debt, "The Campus" will stumble along; without a debt, one of the most important activities on the Hill has a chance.

others could not overtake him but the strain was too great and he wavered. Step by step the Wesleyan and Trinity men drew up until the men finished with the thickness of the tape separating them.

The judges decision gave Wesleyan first, Trinity second and the Aggies third.

In a special race, which was supposed to have been by Pavlo Nurmi and four other Finnish runners, Captain Jacoby of the Aggie Track Team competed against Willie Ritola, Olympic champion in a 1500 meter race. For the first four laps the Aggie captain followed the flying "Finn" step for step, but soon the superiority of the Finnish-American A. C. star showed itself in the way in which he drew away from the lanky son of Storrs. "Jake" finished less than half a lap behind Ritola, and received a greater ovation than that of the winner.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY FITTINGLY CELEBRATED

A. O. H. Holds Enthusiastic Meeting
—Massive Parade of Loyal Swedes and Scotchmen—Oration by Young Irish Orator Draws Applause

St. Patrick's Day was fittingly celebrated last Tuesday at Storrs with an elaborate program under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. At ten o'clock a massive parade of all the loyal Swedes and Scotchmen was held, after which an enthusiastic mass meeting was staged in the Armory. The A. O. H. was especially fortunate this year in getting as a speaker old St. Patrick himself, who delivered a stirring and soul-rendering address on "Ireland as a producer of snake-oil"—in fact old "Pat" had plenty of oil himself, and being big hearted, he freely spread it about. The second speaker on the program was the Storrs Police Chief, who had just time to state that without Ireland, America would be with policemen, when "Midnight" in the rear of the Armory suddenly hollered "How about free beer?" The crowd then became real jolly and Irish confetti was playfully thrown about. When the crowd became too playful and started to toss about the steel girders, the meeting was dismissed. Eight men were carried out on stretchers and a good time was had by all.

After a luncheon of near-beer and pretzels, the members of the clan retired to room 34 Koons, the A. O. H. headquarters. Moe Kaplan, the rising young Irish politician, called the meeting to order, and amid a spontaneous outburst of wild cheering that rocked Koons Hall to its very foundation, he introduced the blushing Da Da Daley as the prohibition candidate for Mayor of Cork. Mr. Daley said that he had Holcomb Hall solidly behind him and with their support the election would be an easy victory. Smaltz Schmitz, well-known Irish comedian and A. O. H. treasurer, reported that the treasury was in strong condition with 350 bricks on hand. A collection was then taken up. Both nickels collected will be used to defray campaign expenses. The meeting came to a close with the singing of "We may be Irish but oh how we love the Scotch."

CAMPUS DEBT TOPIC OF ORG. DISCUSSION

Student Body to Contribute from the Breakage Fees—Debt Incurred by Former Managers—New Board on Sound Basis

After a slight delay in coming to order, due to the necessity of sending a scouting expedition after a large number of the students missing from the meeting, the student organization held quite a spirited session in the Armory last Friday night.

President Johnson stated the main business of the meeting, namely: that "The Campus" was burdened by a debt of $600 which had been accumulated in former years and was handed down to this present board. He emphasized particularly that this board did not incur any of the debt, but that it has been holding its own all year. Recently a little difficulty arose with the printer as to when this debt could be settled, and he refused to go on publishing the Campus until a definite promise could be secured. As the board did not wish to cease publication entirely, several plans were considered, and the most feasible seemed to have each student who was willing, allow the Campus to take $1.50 out of his breakage deposit for this debt and thus clear it up.

Mr. Warrek then explained the situation more fully. He said that it was not forcing the student body in any way to pay this $1.50, for those who are unwilling to support the college paper would have a chance to signify their intentions by signing a paper on the bulletin board. It was really essential though that something of the nature should be done, because this debt could not go on any longer.

There were many opinions expressed as to the method and desirability of raising the money this way. The motion was finally made and carried that each student should be charged $1.50 out of his breakage deposit to clear up the Campus debt. It also had a clause in it stating that those who were unwilling to do their part would not be forced to pay.

"THE NEIGHBORS" GIVEN AT COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

The College Players entertained at President's Hour by giving the play, "The Neighbors," by Zona Gale. This play had been used as a "try out" for the Dramatic Club, and, upon its merit, all those taking part were voted into the club. The players received no coaching for this play and they are to be congratulated for their success. The cast was as follows:

Mrs. Abel ..... Miss Marion Story
 Grandma ..... Miss Ruth Soms
 Mrs. Moran ..... Miss Anna Moran
 Mrs. Trot ..... Miss Ruth Wells
 Mrs. Ellsworth ..... Miss Ruby Gold
 Izra Williams ..... Lawrence Smith
