CLASS OF 1927 ENTERTAINS WITH JUNIOR PROMENADE TONIGHT

COLLEGE IN FESTIVE MOOD

Large Number Signify Intention of Attending Annual Spring Dance.—1926 Druids to Reveal Identity Tonight

Final arrangements for the Junior Prom which will be held tonight in Hawley Armory have been completed.

The grand march will start promptly at 8:45 p. m., daylight saving time, and will be lead by Sherman Wilcox and Miss Helen Black. George MacDonald's Orchestra of Boston will furnish music for the evening. This orchestra comes here with an excellent reputation.

Vincent Doolittle, chairman of the decorating committee, announces that the decorations will be simple, yet attractive, the color scheme being one of light blue and white. Japanese lanterns which will be used for the lighting effects will add an exotic touch to the hall.

On Saturday afternoon a tea dance will be held in the Armory by the Junior Co-eds. The same orchestra employed at the Prom will play for the dancing which will last from 3.00 to 5.00.

One of the features of the Prom will be the appearance of the members of the Senior secret society, the Druids. They will be distinguished by a narrow red ribbon running diagonally across their shirt fronts. In the course of the evening they will tap seven men of the Junior class who have been most prominent in college activities.

The Patrons and Patronesses of the evening will be Doctor H. K. Denlinger, Doctor and Mrs. E. W. Sinnott, Professor and Mrs. C. A. Wheeler, Professor and Mrs. Henry Dorsey.

The following will attend the dance

CONNECTICUT DAY IS SUCCESSFUL

New A. A. Field Improved.—Co-eds Serve Meals.—Dance at Night

Great improvement on the new A. A. field was accomplished on Tuesday when the faculty and students observed the annual Connecticut Day by suspending classes and working on this project. A number of other changes were also made.

The work started immediately after a breakfast in the Dining Hall served by the Co-eds, when the first gang went into the field. Under the super-

Final Score 113 to 22.—Adverse Weather Conditions Hamper Men Greatly.—Granite State Team Shows Fine Form.

Connecticut met its third successive defeat in track at Durham last Saturday at the hands of the strong New Hampshire University track team. The fast, well balanced Granite state team carried off first place almost at will in nearly every event, garnering a total of 113 points. The Nutmeg stagers trailed far behind with only 22 points. Except for the fact that a heavy gale was sweeping across the field, track records in several events would no doubt have been broken. The runners had to face a stiff wind which put them under a considerable handicap. In spite of this, however fast time was clocked in the sprints and hurdles.

There were only three first places taken by Connecticut men: the half mile, the shot put, and the high jump. Gallant won the half mile easily in the time of 2 minutes 9 seconds, which was considered fast under the existing conditions. Longo was not in his usual form in the shot put. His best heave traveled only 37 feet 8 inches, this was far enough to take first place, however. The high jump ended in a tie between Burke of New Hampshire and Farwell of Connecticut.

The weather conditions were so bad that no attempt was made to break the tie. The two jumpers were allowed four points each in the scoring. In the mile race Mulligan and Captain Peasley of New Hampshire ran together until the final lap when Mulligan tried to sprint ahead. He was injured, however, and was forced to fall back, finishing second. Connecticut men took third places in the following events: Hohn, discus throw; Listro, 100 yard dash; Rowe, 220 yard low hurdles; Evans, broad jump, and Atwood, 220 yard dash.

The summaries:

120 yard high hurdles: Won by Toolin of New Hampshire; second, Gray, New Hampshire; third, Rowe, Connecticut. Time 16 seconds.

One mile run: Won by Peaslee, New Hampshire; second, Mulligan, Connecticut; third, Williams, New Hampshire. Time 4 min. 40 seconds.

100 yard dash: Won by Van Allen, New Hampshire; second, Watts, New Hampshire; third, Atwood, Connecticut. Time 10 seconds.

440 yard dash: Won by Daland, New Hampshire; second, Burke, New Hampshire; third, Barclay, New Hampshire. Time 54.2 seconds.

220 yard low hurdles: Won by Toolin, New Hampshire; second, Gray, New Hampshire; third, Evans, New Hampshire. Time 24.6 seconds.

Two mile run: Won by Peaslee, New Hampshire; second, Daland, New Hampshire; third, Weeks, New Hampshire. Time 10 min. 20 seconds.

220 yard dash: Won by Van Allen,

New Hampshire; second, Watts, New Hampshire; third, Listro, Connecticut. Time 21.3 seconds.

880 yard run: Won by Gallant, Connecticut; second, La Mont, New Hampshire; third, Lee, New Hampshire. Time 2 minutes, 9.6 seconds.

Shot put: Won by Longo, Connecticut; second, Kelsea, New Hampshire; third, Hoagland, New Hampshire. Distance 37 feet, 8 inches.

Discus throw: Won by Hubbard, New Hampshire; second, Kelsea, New Hampshire; third, Hohn, Connecticut. Distance 119 feet, 1 inch.

Hammer throw: Won by Trombly, New Hampshire; second, Reed, New Hampshire; third, Hoagland, New Hampshire. Distance 115 feet, 1/2 inch.

Javelin throw: Won by Evans, New Hampshire. Distance 160 feet.

Running high jump: Won by Farwell, Connecticut, and Burke, New Hampshire, tied for first place; third, Smith, New Hampshire. Height 5 feet 5 1/2 inches.

Pole vault: Won by Stewart, New Hampshire. Height 10 feet.

Running broad jump: Won by Ladd, New Hampshire; second, Stewart, New Hampshire; third, Evans, Connecticut. Distance 20 feet, 6 inches.

FROSH DEFEAT
LOOMIS PREP

The Freshman baseball nine opened its season with a 10-5 win over Loomis Prep last week at Windsor. The Freshman scored a run in the opening frame, but Loomis came back in their half of the inning and tied the score. Both teams went scoreless for the next two innings. The fifth inning proved to be a big one for the Aggie yearlings when they pushed five runs across the plate. Loomis came back, scoring four runs, making the score 7-5. Three more runs were added to the Aggies' score in the eighth inning, when timely hits and good base-running resulted in scores.

Metcalf twirled a very creditable game for the Freshman, allowing Loomis only six scattered hits. The yearlings garnered fourteen bingles from the Loomis pitcher, four of them being for extra bases. Haversat featured with the willow, getting three hits out of four trips to the plate. The Connecticut 1 0 1 5 0 0 0 3 0—10 Loomis 0 1 0 4 0 0 0 0 0—5

HEWITT CHOSEN
FROSH CAPTAIN

Eric B. Hewitt '29 was recently elected captain of the freshman baseball nine, on which he plays first base. Hewitt is a three sport man, playing regularly on the freshman teams in football, basket ball and baseball.

While a student in Chapman Tech of New London, Hewitt made letters in football, basket ball, baseball and track. He captained the Chapman Tech basket ball team last year, and his work for a forward position was a big factor in the success attained by that quintet.

AGGIES TOPPED IN RHODE ISLAND STATE

Rhode Island State defeated Connecticut Agricultural College, its greatest rival, 10 to 6, here today. After the third inning the home team maintained a commanding lead.

The Aggies collected only four hits, but they took advantage of every opening. On the other hand, the Rhode Island aggregation piled up a total of seventeen hits, yet had many possible tallies die on the bases. Stevens, the local shortstop, was the big gun with four hits, including a double and triple in four trips to the plate. Score:

Connecticut's Winning Streak Broken As Physical Directors Take Closely Contested Game.

Springfield College stopped the winning streak of the Connecticut Aggies baseball team last Saturday at Springfield when they emerged the victor in a closely contested game. The Aggies were leading 4-2 up to the eighth inning when two Springfield pinch hitters hit safely, scoring two runs for the physical directors giving them a 5-4 victory.

Makofski turned in a good baseball game allowing but seven hits, while Connecticut collected eight safe blows off the Springfield pitchers. The Springfield nine were unable to get to his offerings after the first inning until the eventful eighth when two hits, coupled with two free passes, won the game.

Connecticut scored one run in the fourth when Makofski tripled to left field and scored on Schofield's sacrifice hit. The Aggies added two more runs in the fifth when Nanfheldt connected for a double and scored on Williams' home run which was one of the longest blows ever seen at Springfield.

Coach Dole's team made the score four to two in their favor in the eighth when Horne walked. Allard then drew another pass after Gilbert and Eddy fanned. Nanfheldt doubled scoring Horne but was caught off second base by "Bob" Berry and run down for the final out. Springfield will play a return game at Storrs on May 19.

HAYFIELD FOLLIES TOMORROW NIGHT

To Conclude Junior Week Activities.
—Curiosity Aroused Over Much Discussed Junior Show.

Saturday evening the class of 1927 will produce an original revue entitled "The Hayfield Follies," that deems well to surpass anything of its kind that ever has been produced on the campus. The Follies will conclude the activities of Junior Week. The show is being produced under the direction of Mr. Tilley of the English department.

In the show there will be a chorus of "girls," which include the "Misses" Schofield, Nanfeldt, Rowe, Bergeren, Gould, and Kennedy, ably assisted by "Miss" Rabb as leading lady. It is reported these "girls" in the lines of singing and dancing, cannot be surpassed.

"John Barrymore," in the person of John Sullivan, will render a solo. Sullivan is the real find of the show, and his singing will be one of the features.

A satire on the "Drums of Oude" will be given under the title of "Bums of Stew," in which the chorus "girls" will take an active part in this part of the program.

"Sid" Fine, the local funmaker, will give an illustrated talk on various topics that are being broadcasted about the campus, and will explain them thoroughly.

A reproduction of Mr. Torrey's famous "Smokers" will play a prominent part in the production. This scene is sure of being interesting as it shows how these informal meetings may be improved.

Another feature will be the classroom scene that will be "typical" of the classes, and how they are conducted.

SCHOFIELD NEXT A. A. PRESIDENT

William K. Schofield will be elected president of the A. A. for next year and Andy Sayers secretary, at the A. A. meeting next week. Their election is assured because of the fact that they are unopposed for office. The only position that is contested is the position of vice president. The nominees for this office are Arthur Williams and Harold Watson.

Schofield has been a prominent man in activities on the "Hill." He has been a three letter man in sports and has been chosen next year's basketball captain. Billy was twice selected as a forward on the All-New England team. He is also a member of the Mediator and vice president of the Varsity Club. He has also held the vice presidency of the A. A. Schofield has been rated as one of the most versatile athletes that ever played for Connecticut. His fraternity is Alpha Gamma Rho.

Sayers is a prominent member of the Freshman class of which he is president. He won his numerals in football and bids fair to be a member of next year's varsity. He is a member of Alpha Phi.

"PARTING SHOTS" A SWAN SONG

Our last issue! We are stepping down and out this week; turning over to the newly elected Campus Board the burden of keeping Storrs supplied with news. Commencement is four weeks from tomorrow, and in that time we hope to do our semester's work and graduate with other members of the class of 1926.

Looking back over our four years at C. A. C., we can see there have been many changes. Some have been for the better; some for the worse. We see there has been a slow but healthy growth in that time; a condition which indicates a still greater growth in the future.

In these, our last editorials, we want to make use of an opportunity. As we view it, an opportunity to pass out a few bouquets, and possibly a brickbat or two.

Captain Casper R. Crim gets the first bunch of flowers. To really appreciate what the Captain has done, one should have seen the "Storrs Army" in 1921, or the early days of 1922. A motley crowd carrying guns; no more need be said. What Captain Crim has accomplished only we who have been here four years really know. Enough to say he has improved our R. O. T. C. unit about 500 per cent. Captain Crim came to Storrs with the class of 1926, and he leaves with us. We congratulate him on successfully completing a difficult task, and wish him success in his new work.

THE COLLEGE DINING HALL IS COMMENDED. And we are not doing this just to be different! Again we can see the changes that have taken place in four years, and they have been changes for the better. Four years ago, no one "crabbed" the dining hall more than we. Yet after visiting other college dining halls, and fraternity dining rooms, Connecticut's hash-house isn't so bad after all. And so we take our hats off to Miss Carr, and tell the world that she is feeding us well, and in spite of difficulties that are hard to overcome.

NEXT WE SEND A BRICKBAT IN THE DIRECTION OF HOLCOMB HALL; not at the Co-eds, but to those who apparently own that dormitory, built with state funds.

To us it seems as though that building is too closely guarded, not so much for the welfare of the co-eds, but more for the convenience of those in charge. Refusing to allow co-eds to occupy their own rooms the night before the close of Easter recess is a case in point. The occasion was a fraternity party held locally, yet the co-eds had to find rooms in faculty houses, because Holcomb Hall was "officially closed." This despite offers to have wives of faculty members chaperone the co-eds in the dormitory for that night!

From time to time we have heard faculty members express the wish that fraternities hold their dances and banquets in the wholesome atmosphere of Storrs. We believe this expression will be heard more often with the completion of the Community House. There are many points in favor of the plan, but they will not amount to the proverbial hill of beans unless now and then some concessions can be obtained from those who hold the keys to Holcomb Hall.

TO THE ADMINISTRATION WE SUGGEST PROVISION BE MADE FOR A COMMONS ROOM FOR NON-FRATERNITY MEN. This can easily be done when Hall Dormitory is complete; either by providing a room in that structure, or one of the rooms in the other men's dormitories. Social and recreational facilities for non-fraternity men are limited. Is it too much to expect of the college to provide a comfortable room, similar to the fraternity rooms, for the use of these men? Some will suggest the Community House should fill the need, but we believe the atmosphere will be too formal in that building.

TO SOME OF OUR PROFESSORS WE SAY COOPERATION SHOULD NOT ONLY BE PREACHED: IT SHOULD ALSO BE PRACTICED. Too often we have to listen to professors lecture on the great benefits of cooperation, only to see these same professors fail to cooperate with their associates in department, or inter-department affairs. Childlike, we wonder how thousands of farmers the country over are going to cooperate, if right here in Storrs a group of highly trained experts and authorities cannot make the idea work! Bad business: if a "Prof" can't practice what he preaches, or at least avoid doing just the opposite, then he ought to do something else. His students will not take him seriously, that's sure.

THE MEDIATOR GETS A BRICKBAT FROM US, and our only difficulty is to find one large enough. Fraternity ambitions to land offices and captaincies, and to gain control of this or that activity, along with rushing, bring about a situation that is positively harmful to the college. Most of us are cutthroats, crooks, drunkards and robbers, according to the other fellow. Men hate each other. One group is arrayed against another, each fighting for every advantage. Politics worthy of Tammany Hall are common. AND THE COLLEGE SUFFERS.

Why? The main reason is because the Mediator lacks GUTS enough to stand firmly for what is right. After four years, we compliment that organization. It is the nearest approach to a perfect figure-head we have seen on this Campus. So far as we can ascertain, its most useful function is to fill one page each year in The Nutmeg. Flagrant violations of rushing rules that everyone knows about go unnoticed by the Mediator. For fear of hurting someone's feelings, that august body allows a condition to grow which is doing more harm to the college than any other thing we can think of. We suggest that the Mediator get down to business, or go out of business.

SUMNER DOLE GETS A BOUQUET FROM US TOO, AND IT IS ONE WELL DESERVED. Here again is a case where one should have been here at least four years to see and understand the changes he has brought about.

Coach Dole has worked under difficulties which few appreciate, and the success attained by his team is too well known to be retold here. But of even more importance than winning on the field, Dole has worked and stood for the type of sportsmanship that develops character in his men through athletic competition. And although we often overlook that point, it is really the best reason for having athletic teams in our college. We compliment Coach Dole for keeping that ever before him.

FRESHMEN DISCIPLINED BY THE STUDENT SENATE DESERVE A BRICKBAT, and also others in the class, who through the too merciful handling of their cases were not sentenced to the pond. "SLACKERS" is the term that well describes these men, who shirk freshman labor and thereby place a heavier burden on their classmates. May they go through the pond early and often, until they learn to do their part!

TO THE EIGHTY-EIGHT ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS who subscribed to this paper during the present college year, we thank you for your support. To the remaining one thousand, nine hundred and twelve alumni and former students, we beg that you give the undergraduate newspaper of your Alma Mater another chance, and subscribe for the next college year.

The Campus needs your support, for it will furnish you with the news of the college at weekly intervals during the college year. Past difficulties in circulation have been overcome, and the paper is now being DELIVERED to subscribers. Unsolicited letters from alumni subscribers located at distant points are the basis of this assertion. From New Jersey, Illinois, Florida, and nearby states come letters telling of receiving every issue of this year's paper, and on time! We believe next year's Campus will be the best in the history of the college. Prove it for yourself by subscribing at Commencement.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST, WE OFFER A BOUQUET TO OUR FRIENDS WHO MADE POSSIBLE

THE FACULTY ISSUE OF "THE CAMPUS." The best issue of all time, say we, and it is something we would like to see carried out each year. That it was the most interesting and most widely read issue of the year goes without saying, and as far as we have been able to ascertain, it is the first and only issue of The Connecticut Campus which had an extensive sale over the bookstore counter! We repeat, may the good work go on, and each year see one issue of "The Connecticut (S)Campus"!

"KICK IN"

Additional light is thrown on the "WHY" of the overhead in a communication to the Student Senate from the business office. Very briefly it states that during the last ten months 826 pieces of silverware have been "borrowed" from the dining hall. The cost to the college of this silverware is $171.45.

Possibly some of this was taken by visitors during the college year and also last summer. And probably much of it has been taken by the student body. This is an unnecessary cost, and one which can to a large extent be controlled by the students.

While the amount involved is insignificant compared to the several thousands of dollars collected through the "overhead" charge, it constitutes one of many costs making such an assessment necessary. We should make an effort to reduce dining hall costs if we want the "overhead" tax removed. And a start in the right direction can be made by returning the "borrowed" silverware. One thing is certain, damning the overhead on one hand, and making away with the college silverware in the other, will never get us anywhere!

CONNECTICUT DAY A SUCCESS

vision of Mr. Manchester, effort was concentrated on the south and west sides of the new athletic field where grading on the unfinished area, as well as enlarging, was carried on. The dirt removed was used to strengthen the retaining wall at the northeast corner. The mound in centerfield of Dow Field was leveled out and an area cleared of turf.

Able foremen supervised the work, while President Beach mingled with the workers and encouraged them in their efforts. In the middle of the forenoon the second gang relieved the first, and work continued until noon. The Co-eds served lunch in the Dining Hall, after which work similar to that of the morning was continued. In addition, some clean-up work was done. The bank about the running track was improved, and an effort was made to put the tennis courts in condition. The second gang began the digging of a new drainage ditch which when completed will carry off most of the water that has heretofore collected on the new field. At quitting time, the uncertainty of the weather changed the plans, and the Co-eds served supper in the Dining Hall, instead of picnic style as had been planned.

To properly conclude the day, a baseball game between the Co-eds and the seniors, featuring Mrs. Jo Rabb as umpire, caused a great deal of merriment. Dancing in the Armory completed the events of the day.

HOLSTEIN CHOSEN MEDIATOR HEAD

At a recent meeting of the Mediator, Nathan Holstein was elected president for the coming year. William Bendokas, the newly elected Sophomore representative of the Eta Lambda Sigma Fraternity, was chosen as Secretary.

The newly elected Sophomore members who will represent their fraternities in the Mediator next year are as follows:

The following Senior and Junior members of the Mediator, assisted by the Sophomore members, will draw up the rushing rules for the 1926-1927 rushing season:

Theta Sigma Chi, Wallace Moreland and Arthur Zollin; Eta Lambda Sigma, Hugh Greer and Randall Rutherford; Phi Mu Delta, Lewis Quigley and Randolph Whaples; Alpha Phi, Ernest Speers and Carl Ajello; Alpha Gamma Rho, Earl Jagoe and William Schofield; Phi Epsilon Phi, Sidney Lewis and Nathan Holstein; Sigma Phi Gamma, Wilson Beardsley and Charles Clark.

CAMPUS JOINS NEWS ASSOCIATION

the delegates, to the mutual benefit of all member papers. Each member paper had a specific problem to present to the conference, after which all delegates told how the same problem, or similar ones were solved at their respective institutions.

The association maintains both service and business committees, which function to aid member papers in solving their editorial and business problems. The service committee works through an association or intercollegiate editor on each member paper. The duties of such an editor are to furnish cuts, advance stories on the athletic teams of his college, or any other news to the service committee. The committee then forwards the material to the college which has previously requested it. The business committee will also assist the member papers, though in more of an advisory capacity. Any member paper encountering business difficulties is on request advised by this committee on the best methods of solving the problem at hand.

Connecticut's election to membership in the association came as welcome news to members of The Campus board, who believe the services of the organization will make for a more newsy and better paper.

Eugene A. Ttezloff of the University of New Hampshire was elected president of the association; Thomas C. Heffernan of Boston College, vice-president, and Harold Hilton of Norwich University, secretary-treasurer. W. S. Moreland was elected to serve as a member of the service committee.

MYSTERY MAN PUZZLES STORRS

Stranger Relates Weird Tale of Buried Treasure

A real mystery man, one of the strangest characters that has been seen in this city for many years, arrived in town yesterday, bringing with him a weird tale of buried treasure that rivals the stories of Captain Kidd and Treasure Island. The visitor, who declined to disclose his identity, other than to say he might be known as "M. Sunshine," was accompanied by a parrot which, like his eccentric owner, was a most peculiar sort of bird.

The mystery man first attracted attention by the squawking of the parrot—a bird which his owner claims is the only cigarette-smoking parrot in captivity. The bird's shrieks of "Old Gold, Old Gold," and its refusal to be quiet during the wee small hours of the morning, resulted in "M. Sunshine" being asked to disperse with his plumaged companion or else leave a well-known hotel, where other guests were complaining that they could not sleep.

"M. Sunshine" protested in vain that in Egypt, where he claimed to be a character of no small prominence, though he would give no details of his personal history, parrots were welcome in any hostelry. He demanded that his bird be allowed to remain in his room and raised all sorts of a fuss when he was informed that either the parrot must go to the basement or he must leave the hotel.

Hotel employees sought in vain to convince him that it just wasn't done in American hotels, but the mysterious stranger was obdurate. And when an ultimatum was delivered "M. Sunshine" wrapped the gilded cage of his shrieking bird in a green baize cloth, paid his bill and indignantly left.

To reporters who talked with him he announced that he is a well known philanthropist and that he has plans for spreading "Old Gold" all over New England. Asked to explain his rather rambling assertions, he said, "I cannot say who I am or where I come from. But in good time you shall know. And when my secret is out there will be old gold for every man in this city." Hotel employees said he appeared to be plentifully supplied with money, but was eccentric in many ways. He talked ramblingly of "guineas," "bags of old gold," "My treasure chest," and such things, and appeared to be a harmless sort of old gentleman.

While reporters talked with him, he lighted a cigarette and after taking a puff calmly handed the weed to the parrot. The bird proceeded to take it in his claw, puffed away at it and then blew smoke at the newspapermen. "It's his favorite pastime. I taught him to like cigarettes when I first had him," the strange old gentleman said.

The last seen of the old man was as he boarded a taxi with the bird still screeching "Old Gold, Old Gold," from beneath the green baize cover.—Advertisement.

Miss R. M. Hall Donates Large Sum to Storrs Church Fund

Miss Rosa M. Hall of Wilmington donated $10,000 to the Storrs Church Fund last week. Miss Hall is the sister of the late William Henry Hall, who has done a great deal for the college and after whom the new dormitory will be named.

The Community House will be dedicated on June 6 at 3 o'clock after Baccalaureate exercises. After dedication the Community House will be thrown open to all visitors.

The furnishing committee will have the Community House furnished by that time, and are now actively engaged in selecting the rugs, draperies, and furniture.

Services will be held in the old church for the last time the following week. At this time the ceremony of breaking ground for the new church will take place. Services will be held in the auditorium of the Community House until the new church will be completed.

When They Go On Grass? — What Then?

Grass Alone Won't Make Milk

Very soon your cows will go to fresh pasture. They like it and it stimulates them. It is good as far it goes, but they cannot eat enough to maintain their condition and their full flow of milk on grass alone.

In 100 pounds of average pasture grass there is 3.7 pounds of digestible protein, but only 15.9 pounds of total digestible feed. That is not enough. Your cows would have to eat 170 to 190 pounds of grass a day. They cannot graze or hold 100 pounds.

The Voice of Authority

By Prof. W. J. Fraser, Illinois Experiment Station: "It would require 30 acres of pasture to support an ordinary cow. To graze this area she would have to travel 30 miles a day and have a muzzle two feet wide."

By Prof. Hooper, Kentucky Experiment Station: "I clipped 100 pounds of bluegrass and it filled three gunny sacks. A cow cannot hold this much grass."

Your cows will go right on making milk, but they will not make it all out of grass. They will draw protein, fat and mineral matter from their own bodies to fill the milk pail. They will get poor, exhaust themselves, become unprofitable and go dry weeks or months before they should.

Give your cows a balanced grain mixture with their grass. Feed three to eight pounds daily per cow according to yield. Grass is laxative, therefore you should avoid laxative concentrates. The following ration is one of the best you can feed:

Corn Gluten Feed 300 pounds; ground corn 300 pounds; ground oats 200 pounds; wheat bran 200 pounds. Start this ration when cows go to pasture and they will go through the summer and into the fall—in fine condition and full production.

This Valuable Book Free

"The Gospel of Good Feeding" is a brand new book of 64 pages. It gives you the newest ideas on feeding. It will help you to make more money—day in and day out—summer and winter. It contains 28 rations for dairy cows, steers, hogs, sheep and poultry.

"SAFETY VALVE"

The Campus assumes no responsibility for articles in these columns.

Storrs, Conn., Apr. 30, 1926
Dear Editor:

We have always assumed that the Junior Play was an entertainment produced and sponsored by the Junior Class, but we have recently observed that the Junior Week presentation for this year is to be something entirely different. In the first place the play is not being produced by the Junior Class, but rather by professionals who are laboring under a contract with the class. In the second place these professionals commercialize the dramatic art here at the college and thereby tend to demoralize the spirit behind the college theatricals.

As far as we are able to ascertain, the Junior Class as a whole was not consulted in regard to this matter. Some members were not aware that the class is paying three students and one member of the faculty to produce the entertainment. There are very few Juniors in the cast and yet the play is being staged as the Junior Show. What objection is there to our State College Players?

If the money were used for repairs on the stage in the Armory, instead of going into the pockets of those seeking personal gain, the college would benefit to a far greater extent. We are greatly surprised that a member of the faculty should accept payment for his services in a student enterprise of this nature. Suppose the Directors of the State College Players, or of the Girls' Glee Club or of the Debating Club were to charge for the time that they put in on their various projects?

If dramatics are to be commercialized, why not procure the services of real professionals instead of amateurs masquerading as professionals?

GERALD D. ALLARD '26
W. W. NARAMORE '28

To the Editor:

It has been brought to my attention through various sources that dissatisfaction with the arrangements under which the junior show is to be produced is rampant in the junior class: that there are rumors of melons to be cut, of perquisites to be paid, or perfidy on the part of the junior class committee, of villainous men bent on filching from the junior class its purse—which in this case, despite Shakespeare, does not seem to be regarded as trash; in short that a network of guesses and wild stories second only to that which accompanied the Gold Rush is being woven. If you will be so kind as to allow me a little space, I should like to state a few facts.

The "Hayfield Follies" was originally a private enterprise, which was to be prepared and presented at some other time than at the prom. The suggestion that it be made the junior show came from the junior class play committee.

After a good deal of discussion and bickering, a contract between those who wrote the Follies and the junior class was signed, providing for the payment of $15 to each of the four entrepreneurs. This would seem scarcely an exorbitant fee for writing, rehearsing and producing a revue. A copy of this contract is in my office, and I should be glad to show it to anyone who wished to see it. As far as I know there is no other agreement, there are no "understandings." The chairman of the junior class play committee is getting out of it nothing but a lot of hard work in one of the heavy parts of the show.

It is my belief that the production of the Follies will cost the junior class less than any other enterprise which it might have undertaken. The royalty on any modern three-act play suitable for production at prom-time would be $50. On top of this there would be a director's fee of from $25 to $50, and expenses for lighting, costuming, etc. The cost of last year's junior play to the class of 1926 was $244. This year, according to Mr Hodge, who is business manager of the show for the junior class, it is extremely doubtful if the total expenses will exceed $150, and it is probable that the final figure will be nearer $125—this in spite of graft and corruption!

As far as we who are concerned with the production are involved, everything is open and aboveboard. We have nothing to conceal and nothing to be ashamed of. The contract under which we are operating is open for inspection. And so we are working hard to give the junior class a good show, a show which we hope they will like. Must we, as a reward, reap a harvest of innuendo and suspicion?

Yours very truly,
WINTHROP TILLEY

To the Editor of The Campus:

Sorry to say, it seems to the writer that there are a few fellows on this campus—mostly from the freshman class—who if—to use a colloquial expression—had their brains turned to powder, would not have enough to blow their hats off.

This theory can be ably substantiated merely by attending one of our athletic games. Some of these numbskulls, whose presence in the "Hayfield Follies" would certainly lend realism to the scene, are actually convinced that any fellow playing for an opposing team is a deadly enemy of our institution, and should be treated as such. When an opposing player comes to bat, they immediately burst into some trite yell characteristic of the West Side "Rustymugs,"—such as "Bean him," or "that big bonehead couldn't hit the side of a balloon."

These same fellows are the ones who immediately want to call out the vigilantes when some fair-minded umpire happens to call a strike on a Connecticut batter, when the ball has "grooved" squarely across the plate.

During the football season these facts were even more painfully brought out. These individuals, thinking that the injury of an opposing player the best thing that could happen, would, when a player was being carried from the field, ask the man if he were hurt, or make some similar scathing remark.

It so happens that most of these fellows, if they could be induced to don an athletic uniform, would be about as graceful as St. Vitus walking a tight-rope. Still they persist in this ungraceful razzing.

It seems to the writer that if nothing else can be done it might be possible to persuade the "Doc" to give a course in athletic ethics, and endeavor to elevate these individuals at least to the condition of a Moron.
