Hartford, Connecticut.

April 4, 1916.

The meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut Agricultural College was called to order at the Hotel Heublein by Governor Holcomb at 11:45 A. M.

All present but Mr. Hubbard.

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved without reading with one correction:- adding the name of Mr. Stoddard who was also present at the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting of the Building Committee, held on Tuesday March 27th., were read, accepted, and approved.

VOTED: That the matter of retiring professors be referred to the Executive Committee for investigation.

VOTED: That the following report of the Committee on the Courses of Study be accepted:

"The Committee on Courses of Study in Agriculture reported that for the present the introduction into the curriculum of courses in bookkeeping and commercial practice appears not to be desirable; but that when more elective courses are established and funds are available, no objection would appear to offering them as electives."
