Hartford Conn, October 20th 1906.

The adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut Agricultural College, was called to order by the Vice-President, at 11-30 o'clock A. M.

Present; Trustees, Palmer, Henry, Storrs, Patterson, Pierpont, Jenkins and Capen.

The resignation of the Rev Harris E. Starr, was taken from the table and the following preamble and resolution passed, to-wit;

" Whereas, a communication has been received from the Reverend Harris E. Starr, dated the 18th inst, in which he states that he appreciates the endeavor of the trustees to make it possible for him to continue his work at the college, but that circumstances have arisen which make it inexpedient for him to do so, therefore be it resolved; that we accede to his request with regret, and hereby accept his resignation tendered September 19th, to take effect November 20th A. D. 1906, and that the required three months notice is hereby expressly waived."

After a general discussion of matters relating to the welfare of the college, it was Voted; to adjourn, subject to the call of the Vice-President.

Attest;

Charles A. Capen,

Secretary.
